George V. Vick left this morning for Detroit, Mich., to hold a conference with Henry Ford in regard to the tracor situation in Oregon. Mr. Ford is offering to sell any state at cost 100 of the new Ford tractors, to be disposed of as the state authorities deem best. Washington has taken advantage of this offer but the Oregon state officials elaim they have no money to handle the proposition. Hence unless Mr. Vick can prevail on Mr. Ford to make other arrangements for the tractor in Oregen, the chances are there will be none of the new Ford tractors in the state for this scason.
