people, I don't believe in class legislation. If I believed this legislation would help bring the war speedily to an end, I would be in favor of it at once. It seems to me that you gentlemen should seek information of the food administration or the secretary of agriculture. I believe this legislation would be disturbing and might result in delay in the thinking.

still fight with every muscle straining and put aside non-essential experimenting if we are to win victory from the Hunns," Hurley said.

He declared that shipyards automatically got rid of drunkards and said the chief effect of prohibition "will be to call a sudden halt upon a part of the daily routine of hard working and sober men. One of the greatest difficulties we have had to combat was the turn over of labor. We have been improving that situation gradually and we are frankly worried lest this proposed experiment, may cause additional unrest."

Bids Salem-Aurora
Roads Are Rejected

GERMAN OFFENSIVE COMING ON WEST FRONT

This Drive Will Be Accomplished by U-Boat Campaign Against America

By Carl D. Groat,
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, June 25.—Germany is about to undertake two new offensives—one a renewal of her drive on the west line, the second a further U-boat smash against American shipping. When Chief of Staff March, U. S. A., and British Premier Lloyd-George warned of the opening of a new Teu- tonic drive on the west front, they spoke "by the card." Aerial observa- tions and intelligence information show concentrations that indicate a blow before long.

Her ally, routed in Italy, Germany may hasten the western blow lest allied plots the disorganization of the Aus- trian reinforcements be sent to Italy to com- trians, Germany herself, it was learned today, cannot get reinforcements to the Austrians, short of a week and she can spare then only a few.
