FIGHTING UNDER TWO FLAGS

This is the third instalment of the true story of the heroic careers of Lieut. Col. Richard H. Griffiths and Maj. Alexander Rasmussen, interwoven with which is the first authentic history of the famous American Legion, which didn't wait for America to enter the war, but joined the Canadian army early, to get an early crack at the Boche. The fourth instalment will appear Saturday.

distinctly was not the Texas gunner who carried his flag on his bayonet. Few were chosen to go to the American army. Rasmussen and two friends were among them. Of the latter, one went back to his home in Columbus, O., suffering from fresh wounds, to help train American troops, while the other, from Florida, went with Rasmussen to an American officers' finishing school in France to lecture to new American officers.

was close by, commanding a company in the battalion of Col Griffiths. This company commander is still in the ring and fighting, so he cannot be identified except by his nickname of Capt. Jock. Capt. Jock had been a captain in the Philippine constabulary with the self-same Griffiths as his major. Prior to that he had been a sergeant in

SOCIETY

Mayor Walter E. Keyes, accompanied by his wife, are leaving today for a three weeks trip through the east. Mr. Keyes goes as a delegate from Salem lodge No. 336, B. P. O. E., to the grand lodge at Atlantic City, New Jersey. They also plan to visit New York and Washington, D. C. before returning to Salem.

Mrs. Lulu Dahl Miller from Portland, who assisted the Apollo club at their semi-annual concert, Wednesday evening at the Grand Opera house, left Salem early yesterday morning. Mrs. Miller is a well known contralto singer in Portland. She appears often before the business men's club meetings and is also a popular soloist at the shipyards.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben H. Ling of 494 Union street are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ling and two children from Tonopah, Nevada. Ben Ling and H. H. Ling are brothers and are managers of the Western Union offices at their respective homes.

Honoring the eleventh birthday of Helen Yarnell, a surprise party was given on the evening of June 21st at the home of her parents, 1363 North 17th street. The evening was spent in a jolly manner playing informal games that had been planned for the occasion. Dainty refreshments were served later. Those present were Helen Yarnell, Bary Bielser, Dora Bielser, Noretta Palmer, Phillis Phelps, Bernice Inley, Francis Gleasier, Edna Rodgers, Elsie Raymond and Martha Chase.

Miss Mildred McBeide, a teacher in Salem high school, and Miss Lela Belle McCadden, who graduated in June from the college of music of Williamette University, have returned from a short visit in Woodburn.

now of Salem, both arrived in Polk county in 1851 and settled at Salt Creek. Mrs. W. V. Osmant lives south of town where she was born in 1855. Her sister Miss Clara Smith was born in 1865 and a brother, Mamlin F. Smith in 1862, all on the same farm.

R. P. Boise dates back to the year 1855, born in Salem and E. C. Cross in 1856 or about those dates. E. M. Croisan can claim acquaintance with this country to about the same time in the '50's.

W. T. Rigdon arrived while quite a youngster in 1849, but did not move with his parents to this county until 1850 at Grassy Pond. He first remembers Salem when he visited the village in 1858.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moores have the honor of being the married folks who have lived the longest in Salem. Mr. Moore was born in the city in 1825 and Mrs. Moore born here two years later. Mrs. Miriam Belt Burnett was born in Salem in 1856. Judge Burnett was born in Yamhill county and came to Salem in 1874.

C. O. Rice, city treasurer, was born in 1858 near Shaw. Charles Rice was born in 1858 where the Barnes store is now located and Fred Rice at Turner in 1862.

Judge P. H. D'Arcy holds an unique record and this is due to the fact that he arrived in Salem on October 29, 1859, and settled on lot 1, block 1, ward 1, precinct 1 of the city of Salem and has been there ever since. The Judge arrived in Portland in 1857 from New York.

George Latchfield, bailiff of the circuit court can remember back into the ancient history of Salem as far as any of the pioneers.

F. S. Craig was born here in 1860 and E. C. Churchill about the same year. And in the early '60's the three Clarke children were born on the site now occupied by the Hanson planing mill, Mrs. Harriet Clarke Looney, Mrs. Sallie Clarke Dyer and W. J. Clarke. John H. Albert arrived in Salem July 25, 1865 and is now the only man in active business who was here at the time. The town had about 1,500 people and was considered a thriving village.

the old 6th infantry in the Philippines. Went to Hong Kong

When war came in 1914 Griffiths and a constabulary captain, whom we will call Capt. Mack, beat it pronto to Hong Kong to fight under their old flag, because it was impossible at that time to throw their fighting poundage against the Boche under the flag of their adoption--and of their true devotion.

Griffiths and Mack received commissions and went to join the Sherwood Foresters in England. They were through the hardest fighting at the Dardanelles. Mack got two shrapnel blows but neither he nor the colonel ever "put up" the wound stripes they were entitled to wear.

"What good do stripes do? Who gives a whoop good many times I have been wounded!" Capt Mack would ask when ever you called his attention to the bareness of his left cuff, where stripes are worn.

These two Philippine constables, Griffith and Mack, were as much responsible as any other two men for the great reputation achieved by their division. In the British army today the old soldier regards that division as the fightingest outfit that ever took a trench--even after the recent fight to the death by many other gallant units. If the British had ever taken the French custom of decorating the colors of collective units then that division would have had the Victoria Cross.

Stork and Cupid Cunning Plotters

Many a New Home will Have a Little Sunbeam to Brighten It.

Cupid and the stork are held up to veneration; they are noted as cunning plotters to herald the coming of the little sunbeams to gladden the hearts and brighten the homes of a host of happy families.

There is a most remarkable preparation, known as Mother's Friend, which has been used by women for ever half a century before the arrival of the stork. This is a penetrating external application for the ailments and aches. It helps comes they expand with ease and the pain and danger of the crisis is naturally less.

Then, too, the nerves are not torn and drawn with that usual wrenching strain, and many distresses, such as nervousness, nausea, bearing down and stretching pains, are caused by distention and dizziness. Experience women who have used Mother's Friend say they have entirely escaped by the application of this time-honored remedy.

Thousands of women have used Mother's Friend and know from experience that it is one of the greatest contributions to healthy, happy motherhood.

Write to the Bradford Regulator Co., Lancaster, Pa., for their "Mother's Friend." There is a wealth of instruction and comfort to be derived from reading this little book. It plainly writes just what every woman wants to know. Get a bottle of Mother's Friend from the drugist today, and thus fortify yourself against pain and discomfort.

A. N. Gilbert was about a year later than Mr. Albert, arriving in October of 1866. Having put in four years serving in the Civil war, Mr. Gilbert followed Horace Greeley's advice to one young man to go west. He walked and rode all the way from Grandview, Illinois to Salem.

Earl Race arrived in November of 1864 having served during the Civil war. He drove a yoke of oxen and a yoke of cows across the plains and will be 73 years old this August.

Alex LaFollette was a strapping youth when he came to town in 1861 by way of California. He cast his first vote for Abraham Lincoln's second term. Nicholas Bier, another old timer, had been here long enough to join the Odd Fellows, Chemekeeta Lodge No. 1, in 1870.

The Downings were born at Sublimity, A. L. Downing in 1858, W. H. Downing, a cousin, in the same year and R. E. Downing in 1864. R. A. Crossan crossed the plains from Iowa with a party that included the girl that afterwards became his wife. They arrived in Silverton in 1866 and were married in 1868.

Ben Taylor is the dean of the post office service, with a record of 32 continuous years. He came to Salem in 1869 from New York across the isthmus of Panama. J. B. Coleman's father crossed the plains in '47 and he came to Marion county in 1861. Walt S. Low has lived near here for 55 years.

Other old timers who can look backward on Salem for 50 years or more are Warren W. Johns, Marion Kightlinger, B. F. Ramp, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Garrison, Mrs. C. H. Walker, J. R. Coleman and wife, Mrs. Adam Smith Osmant, Mrs. R. C. Halley, Mrs. J. W. Cox, Mrs. for 60 years, Mrs. J. H. Haas, Oliver Jory, Abe LaFore and S. C. Rightlinger.

Mrs. Abbie Hatch Farrar came to Salem in 1861; Dr. W. H. Byrd was born here about 1855, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sellwood along in the '50's. There are a lot of the younger fellows, like John H. McNary, born 1869, Joseph H. Albert, born 1868, E. Cooke Patton born 1869, John H. Farrar, born 1872, L. H. McMahon, born 1866, who will at the Homecoming tomorrow appear as mere youths compared to the real pioneers who were old settlers here before the Civil war.

Rosedale Items

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Crozer have been here picking cherries on their ranch the early part of this week. Mrs. Alice Cook went to Washington to visit her sister. Floyd Bates and Chester Hadley went to Eugene yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Way motored to Monmouth Monday to visit John Palmer and family. Mr. and Mrs. Brown were here Saturday and Sunday looking after the prune ranch.

The war savings stamp drive is on to force a Hun retreat later on.
