Picnic Near Donald Was Pleasant Affair

(Capital Journal Special Service) Donald, June 28--The Woman's Benefit association's picnic held in Cone's grove near Donald on Saturday was a success. The program was opened by the beautiful flag service, given by the color bearers of the order, Mrs. Jess Johnston, Mrs. D. C. Walker, of which the colors of the nation were presented with the colors of the order; solo, Miss Rose McCormick of Woodburn; address, E. P. Morcom of Woodburn; solo, Miss Austria Roal of Portland; instrumental music, Mrs. Helen Kent of Woodburn; recitation, Ethel Evans, Donald; solo, Miss McCormick; closing by singing America. Dancing followed. Those who missed hearing these singers with their beautiful voices, missed a rare treat. Miss Roal of Portland has been presented by Mrs. Rose Courten Reid a number of times and her beautiful contralto voice is equal to the best. Miss McCormick with her beautiful lyric soprano, is certainly well worth hearing. These young ladies responded so graciously to a number of encores, which were greatly appreciated. The dance in the evening was well attended. The proceeds going to the patriotic fund of the order.

Atchinson of the Fargo M. E. church preached a powerful sermon from 6th verse of the 3d chapter of Acts, "Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee; in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth; rise up and walk." The music was inspiring, besides the congregational music. Miss Fern Rader sang a solo; Ralph Rader and mother, a duet; also solo by Mrs. Fred Fargo and a "touch of nature" which brought us all very near each other in the singing of the song "The Boys Over There," by a quartet, Ralph Rader, Fred Fargo, Mrs. Rader and Mr. Atchinson. A very good crowd in attendance, but we hope they will come again and the attendance be doubled next time.

A very interesting session of the Ladies Macabee lodge was held Thursday evening. The following ladies of Salem were present: Mrs. Reid, commander; Mrs. Miller, record keeper; Mrs. Sloper, Mrs. Smart, Mrs. Newton, Mrs. Rubles, Mrs. Lindsay, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Darr and Misses Pearl and Opal George, Mabel Canfield, Eudalia Lindsay and Bessie Gill. A social hour was spent afterwards, ice cream and cake were served.

M. and Mrs. M. W. Johnson spent Sunday in Vancouver, Wash., visiting their daughter, Mrs. F. L. Allen, and a niece of Mrs. Johnson's whom she had not seen for ten years. Mrs. Tumpkins, the niece, and family were on their way to Ocean Park for the summer and stopped over a couple of days to renew old associations.

Mrs. Chas. Radcliff of Butteville and Mrs. J. S. Vandlow of Aurora were guests of Mrs. Jess Johnston Saturday, taking in the picnic in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Quinn went to Portland Tuesday to meet a soldier boy cousin, from Kansas who was passing through on a train to Vancouver barracks.

Wednesday evening a very enjoyable surprise birthday party was given in Hoekins and DeStart hall for Idell and Harold Lamb, it being the occasion of Harold's 15th and Idell's 15th birthday. Mrs. Ben Quinn sponsored the party. Dancing was indulged in, punch was served and a general good time had by all, until the wee small hours, when all wishing them many happy returns, departed for their homes.

What Are GOOD CLOTHES? All Clothes are good in the advertisement; and they all look good when you first see them. Of course they do; nobody would buy them if they were not good looking. BUT "good" isn't the looks of 'em. It isn't style only; the style's part of it. It isn't fit only; the fit's part of it. Of course, if the clothes don't fit and stay fit, you don't have much style. "Good" isn't color or pattern, however good these look to you. The important part of good clothes is the part you don't see. Fruitland News (Capital Journal Special Service) Fruitland, Or., June 28--Saturday evening at the hall, a farewell reception and dance were given Oswald Fleigel another Fruitland young man who has responded to his country's call to duty. Wednesday he left for Salem, thence with other boys who will fill the ranks entrained for Camp Lewis. Our best wishes of course, go with these belated of liberty and democracy. I am told the price of hay baling will be $5.00 per ton as against $2.50 last season. If this is true we have another reason why hay is $30 a ton in Salem Monday. J. W. Belmont and Ben Bowen of Fruitland school district started on their drive for W. S. S. Our quota is $500. Taxable property in the district, $139,740. July 5th at a called meeting Fruitland Red Cross will reorganize as the school house. A full attendance is desired. Frank Egger of this place is among the number of Marion county young people who successfully gained prizes at the State Fair last fall and who are entitled to the short course at O. A. C. this summer. Al Graham is a contributor to the war fund paid over to the city recorder of Salem recently. A SHOWER Waconda, Or., June 26, 1918. Editor of the Journal: Invitations announced the miscellaneous shower, given June 21st, at Jonesmore, the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jones. The shower was given in honor of their third cousin, Miss Beatrice Thurman. At 2:30 Waconda arrived in neat attire, a Scotch Collo barking, told of their approach. The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Jones admitted the guests. Portland, McMinville and Salem were represented. Mrs. Jones, our hostess, being so well known by Salem society people as a popular entertainer, needs no special mention; further than to thank her and feel pleased, because Waconda was putting on metropolitan airs. The decorations were of the sweet briar effect, pink roses, beautified by their infrequency in the greenery. Miss Brackett of Salem took the difficult part of general entertainer for the large audience. Mrs. Frank Mathis was pianist. The bride-to-be was left alone to unwrap the hidden mysteries of her shower, the display was appreciated; she said, "words cannot express my gratitude and in years to come they will still be reminders of the happiness you have showered on me." The luncheon was delicious, Loganberry juice, as beverage, was served in abundance, Miss Brackett, gay in bright garb and wit, serving at the punch bowl. Among the most pleasing faces, I noticed Mrs. Huntington's and Rosalie and Altha Jones. The most beautiful young lady was Miss Beatrice Thurman, in whose honor the shower was given. Everything was lovely, and Miss Jones has won our gratitude. ELLA M. PINNEY.
