County to Buy Uniforms

Stayton members of Company I, Ore-m guard, and all of the leading citisons of Stayton have petitioned Judge Pushey asking that the county court supply the company with uniforms. It seems that the Stayton company was not organised soon enough to got in-inder the state appropriation for uni-orms and that in this case, it will be bliged to depend on the county. In lany counties of the state the Oregon ty counts in recognition of their patri-otic efforts. It is understood that Judge Bushey looks with favor on the atriotic efforts of those at home. In fact, the judge was one of the first officials in the county to appreciate the advantage of military training and as county judge years ago aided in se-curing the money for the Salem armory as well as the one at Woodburn.
