

Old Soldier Fiddlers Rousing Chautauqua Attraction

Fiddling Old Tunes As They Did in Civil War Days

Four veterans of the Civil War—two former wearers of the blue and two ex-confederates, and a young soldier in khaki—constitute the feature patriotic attraction which opens the Chautauqua this year.

"We don't read any music," says Col. John A. Pattee, spokesman for the Old Soldier Fiddlers—"we simply saw away at the old tunes and our general average isn't very bad. We start in together and we manage to finish together, which is pretty good for old fellows like us. We favor the old tunes, the ones that folks hummed and whistled before and during the Civil War."

The four old soldiers saw active service, and three of them were wounded during the war. The youngest of the veterans is 73 and the oldest over 80 years young. The Chautauqua committee and Ellison-White management invite all G. A. R. veterans, their wives and widows to attend this program free of charge.

CHAUTAUQUA WEEK
JULY 21 TO 27, 1918

"LIMITLESS LIFE" LECTURES.

Dr. A. S. Lucas, the noted lecturer and psycho-analyst of Portland will again speak in Salem.

He is coming to the Grand theatre July 8, 9, and 10, and will give three celebrated lectures about the "Limitless Life." On July 8th he will speak on "The Regeneration of the Physical Body," July 9, "The Revitalization of the Mental Body," and on July 10 "The Soul: Its Function and How to Awaken It." These lectures positively will be the most inspiring and beneficial ever delivered in Salem. "To be five that your body, your mind and your soul," says Dr. Lucas, "will simultaneously evolve daily into health, peace and joy, respectively, is to live a life where one can overcome a lingering, agonizing death."

ing, agonizing death."

America needs at all times, vital, successful and happy citizens in their natural vocation and parents owe not only the right of a child to be well understood and "placed" in their right vocation," says Dr. Lucas.

Parents, teachers and independent thinkers are cordially invited. The admission is free.

I. W. W. Anarchists Say Mail Tampered With

Chicago, July 4.—Allegations by I. W. W. members of mistreatment and tampering with their mail caused Federal Judge Landis to announce yesterday he will investigate the charges.

John Hedstrom, Minneapolis, testifying for the defense in the sedition trial of 100 I. W. W. organizers, asserted his mail had been tampered with in Omaha last year when the government was running down evidence in the case. Hedstrom is not a defendant.

Defendant John Avilla testified he had been hanged by the neck for two minutes, strangling while blood vessels in his head had burst. The attack, he said, occurred in 1917 when he was attempting to organize miners at Franklin, N. J. When cut down, he said he was thrown into jail and held incommunicado for three weeks. Judge Landis asked the name of the judge who sentenced him, but Avilla could not recall it.

Avilla claimed the I. W. W. organization is loyal and asserted he would help down German militarism if it were not for his family.

Archib Sinclair, Minneapolis, unarraigned Englishman, admitted writing Secretary Haywood from Sioux City in 1916 that "this burg needs a good dose of 'ab-cats'." In defense he claimed he knew I. W. W.'s jailed in connection with some rioting, could not get a square deal. The "ab-cats" he said, were to overflow the jail and compel authorities to release all prisoners.

SOCIETY

By MABEL GARRETT

Owing to the fact that Salem is passing the Fourth without any patriotic pageant or community celebration, every family has planned its own individual amusement. The day is one of vacation for many, so it has been enjoyed in restful recreation. While many have chosen to spend the time in a quiet way at home, others have celebrated by interesting motor trips, picnics and informal gatherings. Among the delightful trips planned was the one composed of a crowd of Salem folk, who drove to Silver Creek Falls last evening in order to spend a whole day vacation in the woods. Those who enjoyed this pleasant outing are Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Durbin, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Harold Olinger, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner and W. H. Dancy.

The Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet in the church parlors, Friday July 5th, at two thirty. The subject for the afternoon is "America's Melting Pot." Mrs. Robert Eakin and Mrs. D. A. Hodge will be the leaders. The hostesses for this meeting are Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Mattie Thompson.

Floyd McIntyre, a student at Willamette University during the past year, has enlisted in the United States marine corps. He leaves Friday evening for San Francisco where he will go for training at Mare Island. For the last two months he has been employed at Meier and Frank's store in Portland.

Mrs. Woodward of Olympia, Mrs. Crawford and Mr. and Mrs. Taylor of Tacoma left Wednesday after a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kay at their home on 266 North Capitol street. Mrs. Woodward is an aunt of Mrs. Kay.

Mrs. Walter E. Downing left Salem Wednesday to spend a few days in Portland. While there she plans to visit relatives and friends.

Mrs. S. M. Miles has been in Salem for several days visiting her father, Judge F. A. Moore. Her home is in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Mayhew of Portland are the house guests of Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Robertson for several days.

Master Harold Olinger, son of Dr. H. H. Olinger, 897 Mill street, has returned from a ten days visit in Harborsburg, Oregon. He was visiting Mrs. Gertrude Shider who graduated from Willamette university in June.

Home To Be Provided For Newspaper Workers

New York, July 4.—A home for newspaper men will stand as a memorial to James Gordon Bennett, late owner of the New York Herald and the New York Evening Telegram, according to the terms of the will made public today. The home will be built on Manhattan Island.

The publisher, who died in France, left several annuities, among them one of $50,000 for the widow, Maud, in lieu of her dower rights. After annuities have been provided for the residue of the estate shall go to the fund for the erection of the home, and the incomes from the Herald, Telegram and the Paris edition of the Herald shall go to provide for the home.

To enter the home it will be necessary to have worked ten years on a New York newspaper. Publishers of the papers will nominate those who seek to enter the home.

Included in the will was a bequest of $2,000 to Mrs. Carrie Wright, formerly Miss Carrie May; a beautiful Maryland girl, to whom the publisher was once engaged. Bennett and he girl's brother fought a duel after the engagement had been broken by the girl, in which May missed and Bennett then fired in the air. Both principals fled after the duel to avoid arrest.

If the telephone companies consolidate, will it make talk any cheaper?

Are You One of Them?

There are a great many people who would be very much benefited by taking Chamberlain's Tablets for a weak or disordered stomach. Are you one of them? Mrs. M. R. Searl, Baldwinville, N. Y., relates her experience in the use of these tablets: "I had a bad spell with my stomach about six months ago, and was troubled for two or three weeks with gas and severe pains in the pit of my stomach. One druggist advised me to take Chamberlain's Tablets. I took a bottle home and the first dose relieved me wonderfully, and I kept on taking them until I was cured." These tablets do not relieve pain, but after the pain has been relieved may prevent its recurrence.

Doing Good

Few medicines have met with more favor or accomplished more good than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. John F. Janssen, Delmar, Sask., says of it: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy myself and in my family, and can recommend it as being an exceptionally fine preparation."

BRITISH TAKE

Villers-Bretonneux and the Somme, the British advanced an average depth of nearly a mile and a half, capturing the village of Hamel, Field Marshal Haig reported today. The attack took place this morning.

"Between Villers-Bretonneux and the Somme we captured the village of Hamel and advanced our line an average depth of 2000 yards," the statement said.

Hamel is about midway between Villers-Bretonneux and the Somme and five miles directly east of Amiens. American troops have been in action at Hamel-Bretonneux, three miles south of Villers-Bretonneux.

FREE KINDERGARTEN NOT PROVING SUCCESS

An Average of Only Five Children Daily Are Cared For

The free kindergarten furnished by the Surgical Dressing department of the Red Cross is not proving a very successful experiment as there has been hardly an average of five children a day to care for and Wednesday there was none.

In order to secure the help of mothers who have small children, this department made arrangements whereby children should be given kindergarten work free from the hours of 9:30 to noon and from 1:30 to 4:30 in the afternoon. The mothers were to bring their children to the postoffice where an automobile would convey them to the Garfield school. Unless there are more who wish to take advantage of this offer, the free kindergarten will be discontinued.

According to Mrs. M. L. Meyers in charge of the surgical dressing work, the working girls who have been giving two evenings a week have proven to be enthusiastic patriots and have done especially good work the past two weeks helping to get out the special quota of army dressings. Within a week or so, as soon as this special work has been cared for, the women who are giving their time to this patriotic work will devote their time to sphagnum moss.

While there is a lot of work for additional workers, Mrs. Meyers says the women of Salem are to be commended for the interest taken in the surgical dressing department and the way in which they have responded to the call from time to time when headquarters has asked that the quota be largely increased.

Case of Despondency

Despondency is often caused by indigestion and constipation, and quickly disappears when Chamberlain's Tablets are taken. These tablets strengthen the digestion and move the bowels.

Four Citizenship Applicants Failed

Four applicants for citizenship failed of acceptance yesterday in the court of Judge Bingham before the federal officers sent from Portland to question applicants.

William Francis Wall was rejected as he had not properly made out his declaration of intention, believing that a residence of a certain number of years made it unnecessary. The law regarding citizenship was changed a few years ago and he had not been informed.

In answer to the question as to why he had delayed his citizenship, Thomas H. Clark, born in England, said that he thought that as his father had taken out citizenship papers, it was not necessary for him to do so. His application for citizenship was continued.

Efidio Belli, born in Italy, was not present as he happens to be serving at Camp Lewis. He will probably be allowed his citizenship if so recommended by his superior officers.

Germans and Austrians are not permitted to take out final papers and for this reason Herman J. F. Koehring, born in Germany and Frank Chabba, born in Austria, were not granted the rights of an American citizen. Their petitions will be continued until after the war.

HANG NEGRO SOLDIERS.

Camp Dodge, Iowa, July 4.—Three negro soldiers convicted of assaulting a white girl in the Hunnaker division here will be hanged tomorrow morning, it was officially announced today.

SALEM, Nov. 23, 1798.

the water for the government during the present emergency, a 4,700-ton vessel, which was constructed at a Gulf coast yard. Contracts for a considerable number of new ships to be built of Southern pine have just been awarded Gulf and Atlantic yards, where an average of four ships a week are now being launched. Shipbuilding in the South is declared by a government official to be proceeding with "amazing" speed. It is announced by the Southern Pine Association that all yards are now fully stocked with Southern pine timbers.

It is interesting to note that, judging by the length of timbers wanted for the keel, the Salem frigate was little more than 150 feet in length. Wooden freight-carrying vessels now building are more than twice that size.
