"FUNDLESS" FAIRS ARE PLANNED BY INDUSTRIAL CLUBS

Honor Ribbons Will Be Awarded Instead of Cash Premiums

"Fundless" club fairs will be held at several places in the county this fall by the Boys' and Girls' Industrial clubs of Marion county, is the announcement made by W. H. Smith, county school superintendent, and W. C. Hoppes, emergency county club leader.

The fairs are "fundless" from the fact that the awards are to be honor ribbons instead of real money but according to Mr. Hoppes, these honor awards are prized more highly than a few dollars by the energetic boys and girls in the county who are the live ones in the various districts.

At each fair, the boy or girl may bring or exhibit their specialty. There is keen competition among the boys of the pig and corn clubs of the districts and also the other activities of the boys, even in the raising of Belgian hares. Among the girls the competition is mostly along the making of war bread, although they are not forgetting that awards are in store for those who excel in sewing, and other domestic arts.

The winner at each school fair of any particular prize will be awarded the honor ribbon with the wording "Standard Exhibit" printed thereon. The winners of the second and third prizes will receive ribbons of blue, white or red with printing thereon indicating the grade of award. The boy or girl who receives the highest award at any of these "fundless" fairs, will be entitled to show their exhibit at the next state fair.

The fairs will be held under the auspices of the local board of the Boys' and Girls' Industrial club and dates are as follows: St. Paul Sept. 18; Butteville, Sept. 18; Gervais, Sept. 19; Woodburn, Sept. 19; Silverton, Sept. 20; Scotts Mills, Sept. 20; Liberty, Sept. 20; and Sublimity, Sept. 20.

RULER OF TURKEY REPORTED DEAD

Mohammed V Died at Constantinople On Wednesday Morning

Amsterdam, July 4.—The Sultan of Turkey is dead, according to a dispatch received from Constantinople via Vienna today. The message declared he died at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning. He had been suffering recently from influenza.

The sultan, Mohammed V, was born November 3, 1844. He was the son of Sultan Abdul Medjid. He succeeded to the throne on the deposition of his elder brother, Abdul Hamid II, on April 27, 1909.

Mohammed V was the thirty-sixth in the male descent of the House of Osman, founder of the Turkish empire, and the twenty-ninth sultan since the capture of Constantinople.

The heir apparent to the throne of Turkey is Wahided-Din Effendi, younger brother of Mohammed V, who was born January 12, 1861.

FRUSTRATE PLOT FOR GERMAN RULE

Russian Socialists Deny That They Are Backing Grand Duke Michael

By Joseph Shapiro (United Press staff correspondent) Stockholm, July 4.—Frustration of a plot by Germans to proclaim a dictator of Poland who would be subservient to the Kaiser, is reported by anti-German Polish newspapers received here today.

The pro-German activist party was behind the conspiracy which centered at Warsaw. It was planned to arrest the Polish council of regents, the immediate governing body of Poland, and to place in their stead a dictator who would be the tool of Germany.

The plot indicates Germany is seeking to destroy even such mild aspirations towards self government in Poland as are represented by the Bourgeois council of regents.

Denial that Russian socialists are aiding Grand Duke Michael in his counter-revolutionary movement was made in a statement to the United Press today by Vassili Suchomlin, of Tomsk, who was one of the representatives of the members of the right in the constituent assembly.

"According to private messages received from Moscow," said Suchomlin, "the bolsheviks are spreading a deliberate slander against the Russian socialists, accusing them with a compact with Michael. I deny this insinuation. I have just received an official report from the central executive committee of my party in Russia stating that the movement in Siberia, the Urals and the Volga region is a popular one in which workmen and peasants have formed a mighty opposition to the bolshevik regime of anarchy, treachery and terror. The monarchist groups haven't the slightest basis for claiming any part in this movement."

"The power of the constituent assembly is being re-established everywhere in these regions, in which general amnesty has been offered all revolutionaries fighting the bolsheviks. Clearly, this is the propaganda to discredit the opposition."

"If the manifesto credited to the grand duke really was issued it can call only a few. I don't think the grand duke is foolish enough to issue such a statement."

"There is no doubt that certain reactionary groups in Russia, and outside of Russia, are working for restoration of the monarchy. The Russian people will never stand for it."

STATE'S HOSPITAL AT SALEM FULL

Patients From Multnomah County Will Hereafter Go to Pendleton Branch

With the Oregon state hospital practically filled to capacity, the state board of control has made an order that all future commitments from Multnomah county, until further notice, must be made to the Eastern Oregon hospital at Pendleton.

More commitments have been made to the hospital for the insane in the last few months than ever before. Superintendent Steiner told the board of control. He attributed this to the effect of the war upon nervous people and to the fact that the Multnomah county court has been sending dope fiends and morally degenerate women from Kelly Butte to the asylum, when they do not belong at that institution. He said he had to watch the court to keep it from imposing upon the state.

As the population of his institution has reached 1701, he suggested that the next 50 persons committed from Multnomah county be sent to the Eastern Oregon hospital, and the board passed the order that all commitments from that county go to Pendleton until further notice.

The Eastern Oregon hospital now has a population of 472. At the meeting of the board, superintendents of the various institutions said they could not make at this time an accurate estimate of whether their appropriations will last during the balance of the year. The penitentiary is the only institution which is now practically out of funds, and the emergency board will meet tomorrow to consider its claims.

Dr. Steiner reported that he had $98,000 remaining in his appropriation, and about $51,298 worth of supplies in his commissary.

If his commissary is kept well filled, he will need considerable more funds before the end of the year, but if it is allowed to run low his institution will come very near to getting through the biennium without a deficit. Supplies for the next six months will cost on an average of 40 per cent more than they cost for the last six months.

British Steamship Submarine Victim

An Atlantic Port, July 4.—The British steamship Orissa was torpedoed last week off the Scotch coast by a submarine which suddenly appeared in a convoyed fleet of steamships and launched a torpedo, according to passengers aboard a British liner reaching here today. Destroyers attacked the U-boat, which, however, disappeared. Depth bombs were thrown overboard, but the effect is unknown.

When the Orissa was sunk the passengers were unable to state as to the other ships sped away.

Chautauqua Brings "An Evening in Hawaii"

Singers and Players from the Islands with Mildred Leo Clemens, Travel Lecturer

The last night of Chautauqua will be truly "An Evening in Hawaii," with a travel lecture by Mildred Leo Clemens, accompanied by moving pictures of this land of enchantment and a concert by the Royal Hawaiian Quintet. No better group of Hawaiian singers and players has been presented in this country than this Quintet, including as one of its members Keliuku, originator of the steel method of guitar playing. They will bring to you the same plaintive, haunting melodies that are sung, string-picked, crooned and chanted in the native huts of Hawaii.

GERMAN MORALE SEEMS DECLINING

Recent Heavy Captures of Prisoners Suggestive of Breaking Down

By J. W. T. Mason, (United Press Staff Correspondent.) New York, July 4.—A decline in the morale of the German troops is strongly suggested by the large number of prisoners that are falling into the hands of the allies as the result of minor operations.

The French captured more than 2000 prisoners in last night's attack east of Compiègne, the Americans took more than 500 prisoners at Vaux, and the British captured over 400 Germans a week ago east of Nieppe forest. In addition, there have been a number of very recent bags of 100 to 200 captives. It is now usual in fact for the allies to pick up prisoners almost at will.

The Germans are showing less powers of resistance by these surrenders than at any time since Von Hindenburg's spring offensive began. This does not mean that General Foch would be justified at the present moment in engaging in a major offensive, before America is fully prepared to participate. The growing tendency to cry "kamerad" on the part of the Germans, however, is a good augury for the future. It indicates that in defensive warfare the newer units of Hindenburg's army are not standing up with the same stubbornness as did the older divisions.

War weariness seems to be creeping into the German ranks. This would be a natural result of the failure of Von Hindenburg to gain any decisive objective following the ferocious exposure of his troops to slaughter.

Von Kuechmann's recent utterances that peace cannot be won on the battle field may very well also be responsible for the decline in the German morale. The surrender of Germans by the hundreds in local operations means beyond all doubt that once the allies begin their own offensive on a major scale, the Germans' capitulations will grow to an unprecedented scale.

It has always been the belief of students of German psychology that once the German army became convinced it could not win the war, its fighting efficiency would sink under the despondency of the defensive combats. There is reason to believe the army has begun to suspect Von Hindenburg's failure.

MIDDLEGROVE PIG CLUB AMBITIOUS

Members Are Determined to Standardize Their Organization

This is a pig story. The Middlegrove school house boys and girls' pig club held a meeting a few evenings ago and decided to make their club a standard club, according to the rules and requirements of the National Department of Agriculture, and when they do, this will be the first Boys and Girls' standard pig club in the state of Oregon.

Among the requirements of a Standard Pig club are that the boys and girls must hold a local fair and give demonstrations and make at least 70 per cent of final reports to the Oregon Agricultural College. When this is done satisfactory to the O. A. C., the club will receive a charter from the United States Department of Agriculture, signed by Secretary Houston.

There are now about 15 members of the Middlegrove school house club and they own about 40 pigs, mostly Poland Chinas. The fact that so far there is no standard club in the state is stimulating the Middlegrove pig club to special efforts. The school house is on the road from Salem to Silverton, about four miles north of the city, the first school house to the right, traveling towards Silverton.

The officers of the club are: Eric Bartruff, president; Ruth Bartruff, secretary, with the president of the club as general adviser. The members of the club are Eric Bartruff, Theresa Bartruff, Ruth Bartruff, Lillie Bartruff, Edward Bartruff, Maynard Colton, Edwina Colton, Irene Hoppe, Walter Scheffe, Frederick Scheffe, Vera Otjen, Virginia Van Cleave and Kenneth Van Cleave.

The pupils of this district, not satisfied with having ambitious of becoming a Standard club, also have organized a Belgian hare club with the following members: Harry Brunkal, Raymond Brunkal, Harlon McLaine, Clarence Bush and Doris McLaine.

The Middlegrove school house club and
