

How to get more wear from fine waists and lingerie

IN these days of war prices, it's a necessary, yet simple, economy to make dainty fabrics wear longer. You couldn't replace your fine clothes today at anything like the prices you've paid for them.

All clothes—and especially fine fabrics—wear much longer when washed with Fels-Naptha. Because Fels-Naptha makes unnecessary the use of boiling water—so destructive to delicate fabrics.

And—it almost entirely does away with the rubbing that does more to wear out clothes than actual wear on the street.

AMERICANS AID

By William Philip Simms (United Press staff correspondent) With the British Armies in France—July 4.—(Night)—The battle east of Amiens this morning is destined to occupy a niche in history, although it may be considered a small engagement.

There the Australians, aided by American detachments, fell upon Wilhelm of Hohenzollern's men and signally defeated them in a surprise attack at daybreak, taking 1500 prisoners. All objectives were attained and the allied losses were slight.

The attack began without artillery preparations. Two minutes before the troops went over, British guns began a bombardment. A smoke screen quickly checked the battle front from the Amiens to the Luce (a front of about 12 miles, extending north and south of the Somme).

Suddenly, a great number of tanks, which had been brought up secretly during the night emerged from the smoke cloud in the center before the terrified Hun. The latter resisted only weakly, holding up their hands, and crying "kammerad."

Behind the tanks came the infantry, moving steadily and occupying Hamel village and Vairo and Hamel woods.

Counter Attack Fails

London, July 5.—A German counter attack on Hamel captured by Australian and American troops yesterday morning was repulsed last night, Field Marshal Haig reported today.

"Prisoners taken in yesterday's advance along the Somme now exceed 1300," the statement said. "A German field gun, 100 machine guns and a number of trench mortars were captured."

"A hostile attack on Hamel last night was repulsed."

"A successful raid was carried out by us in the Beaumont-Hamel sector (five miles north of Albert)."

"An attempted hostile raid in the neighborhood of Strazeele (Flanders front) was repulsed."

Ten Planes Brought Down

London, July 5.—Ten German airplanes were accounted for by British airmen Wednesday, according to the official aviation communique. During the day and night 16 tons of bombs were dropped on enemy targets.

"On July 3 the weather was cloudy and enemy activity was slight," the statement said.

"Our machines carried out a number of reconnaissances. Six hostile machines were destroyed and four were driven down out of control. During the day and the following night we dropped 16 tons of bombs on the railway junctions at Lille and Courtrai."

Is a Merry Widow

"Soon after my husband's death 9 years ago I was taken with typhoid fever. Since then have suffered from stomach and liver trouble and constipation. I have doctored a great deal without benefit. Since taking Mayr's Wonderful Remedy three months ago my bowels have moved regularly and I am feeling well again. I am now a happy woman." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and always the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rosenquest have left Salem after spending several weeks here. They were delighted with the wonderful roses and cherries of the Capital city and regretted that they had to leave so soon for their home in Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Rosenquest have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rosenquest of 465 North Commercial street. Lawrence Rosenquest is a nephew of Frank Rosenquest.

Mrs. P. J. Hibler, accompanied by her house guests, has left for a short visit in Portland. While there Mrs. E. R. Ringo, a former resident of Salem, will entertain Mrs. Hibler. The party who motored up included Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. R. Davis of Medford and Mrs. Hibler.

SOCIETY

By MABEL GARRETT

Mrs. E. D. Bennett is entertaining as her guest at her country home near Salem, Mrs. M. A. Rawson and grandchild, Donald. Mrs. Rawson's home is now in California, but the Bennett and Rawson families were formerly of Wisconsin. Mrs. Rawson expects to be here until the middle of July.

Pellets are being showered upon Mr. and Mrs. Royal A. Nadon because of the birth of a little son yesterday at the Sklenka hospital. Before her marriage Mrs. Nadon was Miss Leonidie Eckerlin of Salem. Formerly Mr. Nadon was employed at the P. L. Stiff store in Salem, but he has lately been working in Portland for the Standard Oly company. Mrs. Nadon has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Eckerlin of 605 North Liberty.

Mrs. B. B. Cronk has been entertaining as her house guest Mrs. A. L. Bucktel and little daughter, Bernita. Mrs. Bucktel, who is a daughter of Mrs. Cronk's, will return Saturday to her home in Portland, after having spent a few days in Salem.

Among those leaving tomorrow for the coast is Mrs. Winifred Petryjohn. She goes to take a government position there to which she has been appointed. Helen and Lucile, her little daughters, will not go until fall. In the meantime they will stay with their grandfather, C. H. Cannon, at his country home.

MRS. ED. SHEEREN GAINS 23 POUNDS

Seattle Woman's Suffering of 12 Years Standing Is Now Ended

"I have had a long hard struggle with ill health, but by the help of Tanlac I have at last overcome my troubles, and have actually gained twenty three pounds in weight besides," was the interesting and remarkable statement made by Mrs. Ed Sheeren, of 3311 Fifth street West, Seattle, Wash., recently.

"Nearly twelve years ago," she continued, "I had a very severe spell of typhoid fever, which left my nerves all shattered, and my stomach in a awful condition. My food would not digest, but would just lay in my stomach and sour and ferment and make trouble for me. I would often get up in the mornings nauseated and was constantly belching up particles of undigested food. My nerves were so torn up that I could hardly sleep, and I suffered with headache night and day. I had a continual pain across my back and all down one side of my body, and was down in bed all last summer, unable to turn my hands to a thing. I suffered until I was almost distracted."

"I got down to where I weighed only one hundred and thirty four pounds and kept getting thinner and weaker all the time. I made up my mind from what I read in the papers about Tanlac to try it, and it has done me more good than I ever expected. My appetite is splendid now, and I can eat just anything I want without feeling a sign of indigestion or sour stomach. My nerves are strong and steady, I sleep like a child every night, and get up in the mornings feeling fine. I have not felt the pain in my back and side since shortly after I began taking Tanlac, and it has built me up until now I weigh one hundred and sixty seven pounds making an actual gain of twenty three pounds. I am of course thin Tanlac is the greatest medicine in the world. I have the best of reasons for praising it, and hope others will take it and find relief."

Here is another instance of the wonderful reconstructive powers of Tanlac, and Mrs. Sheeren is only one of many thousands who have taken it with the same gratifying results. Tanlac proved of great benefit to her simply because it contains certain medicinal properties which enrich the blood and promote a healthy appetite for nourishing food, thus helping to build up health and strength in the natural way. Tanlac has been very successful in overcoming nervousness and sleeplessness, not from a quieting effect on the nerves but by strengthening the nerves and the body and bringing back the normal state of health through its effect on the appetite and nutrition of the body.

Tanlac is sold in Hubbard by Hubbard Drug Co., in Mt. Angel by Ben Good, in Gervais by John Kelly, in Turner by H. P. Cornelius, in Woodburn by Lyman H. Shorey, in Salem by Dr. S. C. Stone, in Silverton by Geo. A. Stoelhammer, and in Gates by Mrs. J. P. McCurdy. (Adv.)

Four Minute Message From President Wilson

You are met, my fellow citizens, to commemorate the signing of that Declaration of Independence which marked the awakening of a new spirit in the lives of nations. Since the birth of our republic, we have seen this spirit grow. We have heard the demand and watched the struggle for self-government spread and triumph among many peoples. We have come to regard the right to political liberty as the common right of humankind. Year after year, within the security of our borders, we have continued to rejoice in the present increase of freedom and democracy throughout the world. And yet, now, suddenly, we are confronted with a menace which endangers everything that we have won and everything that the world has won.

In all its old insolence, with all its ancient cruelty and injustice, military autocracy has again aimed itself against the pacific hopes of men. Having suppressed self-government among its own
