Getting Ready For Evangelist Hayward

During the past few days workmen have been busy erecting a large tent for evangelist services on the vacant lot on Court street opposite the post office. The tent is the same one which Evangelist Hayward had with him last year and which he had pitched in Marion Square. But several important changes have been made in the personnel of the company. Associated with Mr. Hayward this year is Rev. L. K. Dickson, a prominent evangelist among the Seventh Day Adventists. And a pleasing singer. He will share with Mr. Hayward the burden of the speaking, and this, with some additional of the force of personal workers, makes the company much stronger than last year.

The evening service on next Sunday night will be a patriotic one of special music, flag ceremony, and patriotic address. The lectures of these men will continue every night for two weeks or more and will cover many interesting questions of the war and the prophecies, as well as doctrinal and revival subjects. And the strong demand which was made for the return of this company of popular Bible lecturers speaks for them a large hearing again this year.

The official committee prepared the following program. Forenoon, music, independence orchestra; American, and-ance, solo. Mrs. Claire Drake, independence reading; Declaration of Independence; chorus, Kings Valley; flag drill, Kings Valley children; oration of the day, Dr. H. C. Dunsmore, Independence. The afternoon was given over to foot racing, three legged races, hobble and old man's racing, tag races, pillow fighting and mail driving contests. A mock marriage ceremony and fortune telling added to the merriment of the day. Independence people found Kings Valley a beautiful little place nestled among the hills, a garden spot filled with overflowing with congenial and whole souled people. The celebration was under the auspices of the Independence Business Men's League and they will be glad to welcome another opportunity to shake hands with Kings Valley. Besides well filled dinner baskets, the Red Cross ladies of the Valley did much to make the day pleasant, dispensing their appetizing refreshments.

The Wells clan celebrated their annual reunion at the city park here this week. It was held at this time to celebrate the home coming of R. P. Wells, a lumberman from Modesto, Cal., who had been absent 18 years, and Elbert Wells, another lumberman from the Imperial Valley, also Clifford Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Wells of this city. He is a youthful airman stationed at Jersey City and made the trip across the continent to be present at the gathering. Mrs. Sara Wells, Collins of Dallas, age 63, enjoyed the distinction of being the oldest member of the family present. The youngest member of the connection present was Oshel Bevens, age 6. At dinner 47 gathered around the table to enjoy a meal before the war repast. The relatives present were: Mrs. Sara Wells Collins of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wells and children, Roy, Lawrence and Genevieve of Halsey and Elbert of Imperial Valley, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Wells and sons Perry and Marion, Mr. and Mrs. Estlin Bevens and daughter, Othel, Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Ground and son Roy, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Wells and daughters Alma and Etta and son Clifford of Jersey City, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wells and daughter Leona of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Wells, Jr., and daughters, Maudeline, Josephine and Mabel of Modesto, Cal. Among friends present were Mrs. Sara C. Young, Mrs. Clyde Echer, Mrs. Geo. Conkey, Mrs. V. A. Kearth, Mrs. J. H. Ingram, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. McLaughlin, Rev. and Mrs. Wall, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Neal of Buena Vista, Misses Ula Dickinson, Opal Hewitt and Dorothy Paddock.

Mrs. Ed Wunder is carrying mail on rural route No. 2 this week. She is the first woman here to fill a job like this but declares she likes it and finds the work pleasant. She is relieving her husband while he takes his annual vacation.

Miss Pearl Perival is here from Portland.

Lieutenant Ivan Laughery visited his home folks here this week.

Mark Hanna was visiting here from Portland this week.

Pay Dunsmore is home from Falls City.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wells returned to Portland this week.

Mrs. Dale Pomeroy and son of California.

mas, Wash., are visiting her mother, Mrs. S. E. Owen.

Frank Wells and family left this week for their home in Modesto, Cal.

Mrs. P. Gibson of Seattle is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Neely.

Mrs. D. Goodman of Portland is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Max Goldman.

Robert Dickson is in Independence this week. He has re-enlisted in the navy.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Krausier and family of Gaston spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Thomas.

R. R. DeArmand, former cashier of Independence National bank, came down from Vale this week to assist in the bank a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Wasserlock and children of San Francisco are visiting relatives in the city.

Mrs. Geo. Parker of Fort Sill, Okla., who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cooper, received a message Tuesday from her husband, Major Parker, saying he had been ordered overseas. Mrs. Parker left at once for Fort Sill. She will accompany her husband to the port of embarkation and then return to Independence to spend a while with relatives.

Abe Becker went to Portland this week and enlisted in the naval reserves.

Mrs. John Walton, who has been visiting her niece, Mrs. Jeter Virgin, left Wednesday for her home in Minnesota.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Skinner motored to Newport this week.

J. W. Richardson has moved to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dunigan have gone to Camas, Wash., where they will make their home.

Miss Madeline Kreamer visited relatives in Portland this week.

E. Brady and family have moved here from San Francisco. He is employed by the Standard Oil Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Green and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Green of Cottage Grove visited here this week.

CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS

Is It Right for a Christian To Go To War?

Sunday night to be the opening of the Hayward-Dickson meetings in the big tent on Court street opposite the post office.

Great interest is being manifested in the announcement of the opening of the Hayward-Dickson meetings in the big tent on Court street. The opening subject is one which every citizen is interested in. So much has been made of "Conscientious Objection" by certain classes who want all the benefits of a good government without assuming any responsibility for its maintenance that Evangelists Hayward and Dickson feel that the church ought to go on record in a very emphatic way in this matter.

Those who heard Mr. Hayward in his lectures in Marion square last summer know that he will handle this subject without gloves, and that he may be depended upon to arouse his audience to the nation at this time. German intrigue, the Hunnish frightfulness have swept away the last reasonable objection which any right thinking person could possibly have, and the large array of facts which Mr. Hayward will present in this lecture will make it well worth the while of every person to hear it.

It will be remembered that last year hundreds of people had to stand up on the opening night of Mr. Hayward's lectures, and many others were turned away, so those who plan to attend ought to come as early as possible in order to be assured of a good seat.

These lectures will continue every night beginning Sunday night, July 7, and are free to the public.

HOROR TALES ARE

the outbreak of the war the Austrian government found it necessary to assure the people that only 14 per cent of Italian soldiers had been killed. This percentage has increased at a high rate. In defiance of the law classes which could not be called up in other sections of Austria were called in this district. Even the women were mobilized and sent to work in the trenches, where many of them were killed. More than 100,000 of our people, a third of the population, have been interned.

At Aldena, a village in the Lagarina valley, the major in command was in the habit of making the women who had remained pass in line across the square. He chose the one that pleased him best and if she did not submit she was given twenty five lashes and then interned.

Damiano Chiosa, an old school mate of mine sentenced to death, was placed in front of a firing squad and tortured for ten minutes while the command to fire was withheld.

"Wounded and discharged soldiers are interned and the separation allowances are not paid their families."

"It is our conviction that unless we smash Austria the strongest claim of a dominant race to the right of tyrannizing over the world will be made good."

Good Races Yesterday

at State Fair Grounds

Captain Mack, owned and driven by Fred Woodcock, of Forest Grove, won at the Independence Day races at the state fair track yesterday afternoon, when he captured the free-for-all pace.

Captain Mack was climbing against such steppers as Frances J., Helen Mistle toe and Daisy D., and he made the two heats in 2:10½ and 2:09¾. This is good time for the first race of the year. The track was in the fastest shape yet, however, and the weather was perfect for some real racing.

One feature was the celebration by A. Grant of his 74th birthday, driving his own horse, Frances J., in the free-for-all pace.

H. Glerman's Guy Light, from Portland, took the 2:15 pace, but he had to go the whole three heats to beat Teddy Ham and the Maid. Complete, owned by Tom Howitt, also of Portland, took the free-for-all trot in straight heats, making them both in 2:19¼.

T. L. Davidson, driving his own little Salem colt, Bonaray, copped off the 2:18 trot, Lena Bond taking second money and Ora Bond third money. In the free-for-all trot Woodcock piloted Howitt's Complete to victory.

All of the nags competing yesterday were scheduled to step the Pacific Northwest circuit this fall, and splendid finishes indicated much better form than is usually shown at this stage in the season.

The summary follows:

- | | |
|---|-------|
