RUSSIAN POLICY (Continued from page one)

What Lydia E. Pinkham's of that nation's intricate administra bull moose leader, recently back from Pork, on foot ...

The plan will, of course, be laid be fore President Wilson and must be approved by him before it becomes operative. It is being formulated at his request and embraces the best available business jadgment of the country. It is unlikely that the protective force accompanying the mission will number more than between 50,000 and 109,000 soldiers.
