Special Notice — On and after August 1, the retail business at Fry's drug store will be conducted on a cash basis. The scarcity of help, extra work required in keeping accounts and collecting same makes this change necessary. We will continue to give a 5 per cent rebate for cash on all goods handled by us, except paints and oils. Daniel J. Fry, 280 N. Commercial street.

Felix Kordina, formerly in the tailoring business in Salem is dead at Los Angeles as a result of walking out of a window in the sixth story of the Y. M. C. A. building while asleep. He was 25 years old. A few months ago he had been arrested as an enemy alien but was released.

A few things farmers who are intending to borrow money through the National Farm Loan association should remember:

- 1—Make your application for a loan three to six months before you want to use the money. 2—Keep an accurate account of your income and expenses. 3—See that your land and buildings are properly insured. 4—Remember we loan 50 per cent of the actual value of the land exclusive of the buildings and 20 per cent on the insurable value of the buildings.

When the Oregon Electric ware house at Waconda burned yesterday and oak lumber to the value of about $50000 was destroyed. It belonged to Paul Marnach and L. I. Evans and was partially insured. The oak timber had been cut at the Marnach and Evans mill near Fairfield and on account of no river traffic had been transferred to the Waconda warehouse.

The automobile stolen a few evenings ago from the Spaulding Logging company's office was found yesterday in the suburbs of Portland. The boy from the reform school, thought to be responsible for the theft, has not been found. The Ford stolen and recovered belonged to Elmer E. Stokes.

Yarn day at Red Cross headquarters for Red Cross workers living in Salem will hereafter be Tuesdays and Fridays of each week only. This change in the days of giving out yarns to the workers was found necessary in order that a proper record might be kept and to avoid the confusion of so many coming for yarn on one day.

E. Cooke Patton has been invited to bring along his magic art stuff and his slight of hand performances and such when he leaves tomorrow with his family for Newport. He is to appear and entertain the soldiers at that place giving entertainments similar to the one that was part of the Cherriam minstrel program.

Men who are interested in joining a machine gun company are asked to meet at the armory this evening to talk it over. Should a company be organized in Salem it would become a part of the Oregon National Guard and be subject to duty not only in this country but overseas as well.

For the ten days ending July 31, the army recruiting stations in the northwest division reported the following recruits for the U. S. regular army: Portland 16, Grants Pass, 5; Baker, 4; Eugene, 3; Astoria, 2; The Dalles, 2; Salem 1 and Aberdeen 1.

Tonight at the armory the Oregon Guard company which has been organized by Lieutenant A. B. Pool and others, will be mustered in by Lieutenant Colonel A. T. Woolpert. Members who are interested in this new company are requested to report promptly at 7:30 o'clock as there is considerable work to do.

Four men will be sent by the local exemption board to Tacoma July 14, leaving on the 3:45 p. m. Southern Pacific train. These men will enter a school of mechanical arts. The four will be chosen from the following names: Clarence R. English, Stayton; Lucerdelle Ball of Turner; Roy E. Marchland, Stayton, rural route 6; Herbert T. Staab, Stayton and Lester Ray Evans, Stayton, rural route 8.

S. H. Van Trump, county fruit inspector has returned from an inspection of crops and brings the report that spring grain in the hill country will not make much of a crop although it will come out all right in the prairie country. Winter grain however is showing up in good shape in the hilly country and in places will average 30 bushy and in places will average 30 bushy.

Bert Yates who was arrested and tried before Judge Webster's court yesterday charged with assault with intent to kill and placed under bonds of $1000 has been unable to secure bonds and is now held in the county jail awaiting the action of the grand jury. He has been living on a rented farm near Silverton. He tried to abduct his wife about 3 o'clock Thursday morning and she swore out the warrant for his arrest.

The style in Ford cars for the coming year will not be changed in any respect, says Vick Bros. In fact Vick Bros. have their doubts as to whether there will be any large amount of Fords shipped this year to the Pacific coast. Ordinarily by August 1 of each year, the contract and price is made on Fords for the following year. So far, there has been no contract entered into by Ford agents. The new Overland car which is supposed to take the place of Fords to some extent will not be received until October and the price will be close to $700.

The regulation Calcutta grain sack that for so many years sold at about 10 cents is feeling the effects of the war and is now quoted at 25 cents for absolutely new sacks, and at 20 cents for those that have been used once and rated as No. 1, seconds. The ordinary grain sack that has been used to some extent but has been properly patched is worth from nine to 15 cents, just double that of a couple years ago. A few of these grain sacks are made in Portland but the greater part come direct from Calcutta, India.

Fire completely destroyed the house of Joseph Barber at Hazleau station on the Oregon Electric just south of the city this morning at 6 o'clock. All the furniture and contents of the house were also burned. A call to the fire station for help was telephoned in but as there is no water connections there, it was useless for the company to send out its engines, and the department did not respond to the call. The fire caught from the cook stove while the family were out milking. The loss will be about $3000.

The Commercial club is now the owner of the 150 flags each 4 by 7 feet, used in decorating the bridge on the opening day last Tuesday. The flags were purchased from the Red Cross at the original cost price. Flags of this size, made as these flags are with each stripe sewed in separate, are now worth $6 each on the retail market, and hard to get at that. Paul Stege who was in charge of the bridge decorations says it was a pretty big job. He was assisted in the work by W. B. Clancey and Pr E. Fullerton and also by the Telephone company. The 150 flags are now stored at the Commercial club ready for any patriotic occasion.

LAWYERS COULDN'T SAVE HIM. Seattle, Wash., Aug. 2.—Although he had three lawyers to defend him Pierre P. Perry, wealthy lawyer and heavy property owner of Seattle, was found guilty of hoarding seven sacks of flour and fined $350 in federal court yesterday afternoon.

NEW SHIP RECORD. Raymond, Wash., Aug. 2.—Establishment of a new world shipbuilding record was announced today at the Sanderson & Porter yards. The frame of a Ferris type ship was put up in 37 hours and fifteen minutes after the keel was laid. The best record was 72 hours for a ship of this type. As a reward for their speed, the workers will choose the ship's sponsor.
