Ernest Feller son of James Feller was arrested this morning at Bend, charged with larceny by bailment. It seems he had some trouble with his wife and had started for California in an automobile with his small son. There was a mortgage on the auto and the warrant was sworn out mainly to keep the boy in Oregon.

Dr. A. Slaughter's office will be closed during August.

Owing to the ever increasing price in provisions, we are forced to change our price from 30c to 35c after August 5, for our regular dinners and suppers. We will continue to serve short orders from 6 to 8:30 a. m. Our Sunday chicken dinners from 12 to 2:30 at 40c. Cherry City Restaurant, 186 South High.

Private Michael O'Rourke, who will lecture this evening at the armory as a 2d battalion benefit, was a private secretary who travels with him. And besides the private secretary, he has an advance man. The lecture this evening, according to all reports will be one of the most interesting direct from the front talks that has ever been delivered in Salem.

According to the police, it isn't the old offenders that cause most of the trouble in the world, but the young boys from 17 to 20 years of age. Sunday afternoon two Portland youngsters (Claude Ryan, 19, and Stanley Kareus, 18, were arrested in Salem, charged with stealing an automobile. This morning they were turned over to Portland officers. Kareus had formerly served in the reform school.

Pascal L. Taglio, backed his car into another car in front of Vick Bros. this morning, and according to the police, didn't take the trouble to find out what damage was done. The man whose car was backed into got Taglio's car number and complained to the police. After a little conversation with an officer, Mr. Taglio gave an order to Vick's to have the damaged car repaired.

'Mill run' is the latest thing in the feed market and purchasers who have been accustomed to calling for either bran or shorts will now find it necessary to call for 'mill run.' Hereafter mills will run together bran and shorts and middling and the combination feed is the new feed. The new price established on flour will become effective in Salem within a few days.

Lee L. Gilbert, distributor for the Elgin Six announces that he has just established a Simonizing station for the re-finishing of machines. This is a patent process that Mr. Gilbert says will bring back the lustre and original color and that it protects the paint and varnish rather than injuring it.

The police are after a lot of boys living on the fair grounds road near Summer and Highland streets who have been throwing stones and gravel at passing automobiles. Last evening after dark, several boys were engaged in throwing stones and parties were hit and the windshield of a Dodge automobile broken. As there has been many complaints especially about the boys in that neighborhood the police intend to break up this stone throwing habit, even if it is necessary to send some of the youngsters to the reform school.

Another patriotic organization has been formed to be known as 'The American Commission for Devastated France,' of which Miss Cornelia Marvin state librarian, has been appointed chairman of the educational committee. Although there is no local organization, many people in Salem have been contributing garments. The Women's Relief Corps has been piecing quilts to be forwarded to France and the Ladies of Isabella have been making and forwarding children's garments. The shipment from the northwest will be forwarded September 15, from Portland.

Max Solof was arrested yesterday afternoon charged with purchasing junk from persons under the age of 21 years. According to the city ordinances, it is unlawful to purchase from minors unless the youth is properly vouched for by his parents. In this case, Solof, according to the records which he is obliged to make out every day, was careless in putting-down the age of the young man who sold the junk. The young man said he was from Albany and the report of the purchase it is alleged gave his age 21 years when he was really younger. The case will come up for trial Tuesday morning before City Recorder Race.

Ambulance Transport Sunk By Submarine

London, Aug. 5.—The ambulance transport Warrilla was torpedoed and sunk Saturday while homeward bound and 116 persons are missing, the admiralty announced this afternoon. The missing include one American soldier and seven members of the transport's crew.

Many Inquiries From Other States About Salem

Frank J. Chapman, manager of the Salem Commercial club, says he is receiving quite a number of letters from all parts of the United States wherein inquiries are made for farming lands. Today letters were received from parties living at Miami, Florida, Bellingham, Wa., Monrovia, Calif., Emporia, Kansas and Salt Lake City. As Mr. Chapman is familiar with the farms in this section, he is not only sending to each inquiry the regulation printed literature, but also writing a letter to each address giving information that the average home-seeker is after. Many inquiries are made regarding road conditions as most of the prospective buyers expect to drive into the Willamette valley to investigate farming possibilities.

Federal Judge Landis Rules Against Defense

Chicago, Aug. 5.—Federal Judge Landis today ruled against the defense I. W. W. trial in its attempt to submit as evidence the thirteen volume report of the industrial relations commission. This ruling it is said will materially shorten the case.

Francis Miller of Providence, R. I., a member of the executive committee of the organization testified the aim of the I. W. W. is to eliminate all non-producers. On cross-examination he said he is opposed to all war.

G. F. Blain, an attorney of Seattle, testified he was approached by the governor of Washington to investigate the I. W. W. in that state and that he had interviewed hundreds of them, in jail and out of jail. He found, he said, that few had failed to register under the draft. In his testimony he gave them a clean bill of health.

SIBERIANS PLEASED WITH ALLIED PLAN

Independent Government Promises Fullest Co-Operation Possible

Washington, Aug. 5.—Inspired by the announced intention of America and Japan to aid the cause of Russia, the independent government of Siberia has declared that its intention of re-establishing a well-disciplined Russian army to cooperate with the allies in rebuilding a battle front against Germany, it was reported here today. The Siberian government's assurances were contained in a statement issued by the Russian embassy here today which holds out the hope of a unified Russia under a central all-Russian authority which will be generally recognized.

'Siberia, being an inseparable part of United Russia,' the statement said, 'the temporary government of Siberia believes it to be its first duty to safeguard in the territory of Siberia the interests of the whole of Russia and to recognize all of the international treaties and agreements of Russia with friendly nations which were in force until the 25th of October, 1917, the moment of the Bolshevik uprising. The Siberian government intends to establish good order in Siberia and to begin the reconstruction of a unified Russia and the creation of a central all-Russian authorized government which will be generally recognized.'

'To that end,' the statement says, 'it plans the convocation of the regional Siberian duma as well as the national representative assembly on the basis of universal suffrage. At the same time, it will reestablish the organs of local and municipal self-government and will enforce guarantees of individual liberty and the right of private property. The laws established during the Bolshevik domination have to be liquidated. The government will include representatives of the Bourgeoisie classes.'

Additional reports received by the embassy state that in the municipal election just completed in Vladivostok, 69 per cent of the votes were cast by the Bourgeoisie and moderate socialist parties. The Bolsheviks polled 31 per cent.

Everywhere the population belonging to the different classes and political groups has manifested great interest and sympathy in the organization of their army, which is intended to re-establish together with the allies a battle front against Germany.

WILL AID FARMERS TO PRODUCE CROPS

War Finance Corporation Has Greatly Broadened Scope Of Plans

Washington, Aug. 5.—The war finance corporation today broadened the scope of its plan to aid the farmers in war production. Following closely the announcement that financial aid would be extended to stock raising interests, it was learned today that the war finance corporation will make advances through federal reserve banks to aid in the movement of crops.

Heavy war drains upon rural financial institutions have handicapped the farmers in obtaining money to carry them through their harvesting and handling of grain. These needs have been communicated to the treasury department and the war finance corporation today authorized the federal reserve banks in San Francisco, Dallas, Minneapolis, Kansas City, St. Louis, Atlanta and Richmond to receive applications from all banks in their respective territories for loans for crop movement.

The war finance corporation through the federal reserve banks will advance up to 75 per cent of the amount of loans made to the farmers by the local banks. It will extend 100 per cent credit if 33 1/3 per cent additional collateral is provided by the local banks. The terms of the loan provide interest of six per cent and final payment in four months. The security must show that the loan actually is made for handling crops.

WINSTON CHURCHILL SAYS WAR NOT WON

Until That Time Comes There Must Be No Discussion Of Peace

London, Aug. 5.—'The war has got to be won and it is not won yet,' declared Winston Churchill, minister of munitions, in writing to Sir George Ritchie, chairman of the Dundee Liberal association, regarding Lord Lansdowne's 'peace' letter.

'These facts dominate every form of argument not arising from despondency or treason. Appearance of power is with the enemy; reality of power is with us. Peace now would for all time register and give upon the world an appearance of German power, taken at its culminating point. It would forever deny other nations the heritage of reality. Are we to doom our children to accept for all time the Germans as their own valuation? To do so would defraud and defile the destiny of mankind.'

'Why should we seek peace at the moment when the German is declining and America is beginning? That is what Lansdowne beseeches us to do.

'President Wilson has spoken the only words which in these days should be heard in the councils and camps of the allies: 'Force without stint; force without restraint; force to the utmost limit.' 'Two separate conditions are required of the Germans. First decisive defeat in the field and second they should of their own free will, definitely break with the system which led them into so many fearful and monstrous crimes. Not until then should they be allowed to enter the league of nations.'

Paper Mills Listed As Essential Industries

Washington, Aug. 5.—The war industries board today announced that paper mills have been listed as an essential industry under coal priority regulations and placed in class four.

A publishers' committee meeting with the pulp and paper section agreed, it was said, that newspapers should curtail newsprint space 15 per cent in daily

BOYD.—To Mr. and Mrs. Ford Boyd, 445 Turner street, Salem, August 3, 1918, a son.

The 25 per cent increase in freight rates on fresh and canned fruits and vegetables and fruit juices will be attacked by the public service commissions of Oregon, Washington and Idaho in a complaint which will be filed at once with the interstate commerce commission.

The Oregon commission today wired O. O. Calderhead, representative of the Washington commission who is at the national capital, authority to sign the complaint for this commission.

The Oregon commission also was asked to join with the other two states in attacking the 10 per cent increase in express rates, which it probably do, although the commission announced it was not so much interested in that case as it is in the freight rate increase.

Dr. W. H. Lytle, state veterinarian, today ordered the railroad stock yards at La Grande to be closed until they are cleaned and disinfected. He took this action because of the presence of sheep scab. He says he probably will go to LaGrande to personally inspect the yards.

Two inmates escaped from the Oregon state hospital last night, but one was retaken today. They are J. D. Peffy, committed from Jackson county, and Edwin Skog, committed from Multnomah. Skog was recaptured, Peffy was seen near Turner, according to reports received at the hospital. They made their escape by prying loose the bars to a window.

Articles of incorporation were filed today by the North Pacific Spike Company of Portland, which has a capital stock of $25,000. The incorporators are G. N. Verateg, and Eugene Brookings.

The Bowers Abstract Company of Baker also filed articles. The company has a capital stock of $30,000. The incorporators are W. S. Bowers, Nettie C. Bowers and V. E. Tribolet.

HARRY M. LEVY, a member of the local lodge of Elks, writes to his friends here from Camp Lewis as follows: 'I am now a full fledged soldier and can truthfully say I am glad of it and want to go. Saw Lloyd Rigdon Sunday but I am not allowed to look him up while I am in quarantine. The bunch I came with from Salem is all split up, with only about 25 in my company. I was agreeably surprised at the treatment accorded us. The officers show the utmost consideration.'
