under heavy bombardment. Aren't you proud of your oldest son now? You see it all helps. The papers you send are very interesting. I even read Dr. Stone's medical advertisements. So Salem had a carnival. Don't suppose it was very lively with all the young fellows gone to war. Just wait until we come back and then they have a carnival. Wow!

My captain complimented me on some of my drawing pictures. I wished at the time I had some of my drawings of the Clarion to show him. I am going to do some drawing for the "Stars and Stripes", our official paper, as soon as I get supplies from southern France. If I get any pictures published I will send you a copy of the paper. Must close now and call the guard for the prison. Inclosed is a snap shot of me. Isn't it good!

July 18th: I am in the hospital am having some trouble with my tonsils. It isn't so bad to be sick after all. I would just as soon stay here for the duration of the war. I have my pay and it is possible to get fresh apricots and peaches. We are also allowed to eat a little French pastry today. Am on a light diet, but have all I care to eat. The doctors and orderlies of the ward are very good and are always willing to be of service to us. Everything is as neat as a pin and we have clean sheets and Red Cross pajamas to sleep in. Now don't you dare worry for I am O. K.

From Your Loving Son.

LARGEST CROWD AT NEWPORT LAST WEEK

All Accommodations of Coast Resort Taxed To Their Utmost.

By Ethel Toose.

Newport, Ore., Aug. 13.—Last week end witnessed one of the largest crowds that Newport has ever boasted of. Every available sleeping quarter was taken and many were forced to resort to the most humble and pioneer equipment to secure rest for the night. At one of the local hotels, every table in the sample room was turned into a temporary bed.

Saturday evening Professor Robert Krohn, physical director of the spruce camps in this district, staged a second boxing match at the Sailors and Soldiers club. Several professionals were brought down from Vancouver barracks and in addition to these, main events, some of the local enlisted men, took part in several bouts, which were not of an amateurish nature as one might expect, since the boys keep in good condition and practice, sparring with each other almost every evening during the leisure hour. This recreational work, sponsored by Mr. Krohn, has become an almost indispensable part of the day's routine in camps and has done much toward driving away the blues, which are so frequently found among the men so far away from home.

The officers ball, Wednesday evening, was as usual one of the most brilliant and enjoyable social events of the week. These military hops are given every two weeks by the officers of the Yaquina Bay district.

The Belgian flag day was observed here both Saturday and Sunday, with such success that Miss Flora Mason, of Albany, who engineered the event, felt amply repaid for her efforts. Over $300 was raised, the men in the spruce camps which was visited by two Miss Mason's workers, cleared $80 on 300 button knives. Automobile tags, sold for 50c decorated all of the machines. There was no escape for the man with an auto. Every machine, steaming out of the garage, was stopped before it had gone a block by girls, who stood in the direct path of the driver and it was up to him to buy or run over his oppressor.

A wedding, which will be of interest to Salem people, who are Newport visitors, was that of Miss Mary Minthorn to William S. Strench, which took place Thursday afternoon at Newport. This wedding, which came as a complete surprise to the many friends of the bride here, was the result of an Alaskan romance. Miss Minthorn, who is a daughter of Dr. H. J. Minthorn who conducted the Salt Sea baths at Newport for many years, went to Ketchikan, Alaska, last year to teach domestic science and art in the high school there. Mr. Strench was at the head of the United States emigration department at Ketchikan.

The wedding was a very simple but impressive affair, taking place at the local Presbyterian parish home. Rev. Geo. Pratt, of that church, officiating. Mrs. Strench wore a lovely white georgette gown, with trimming of real lace. The quaint little house was tastefully decorated with Dorothy Perkins roses and ferns. Mrs. Pratt played the Mendelssohn Spring Song during the ceremony. After a brief honeymoon trip to Portland and Seattle, the wedding party will leave for Ketchikan, their future home.

"I suffered for 10 years with stomach trouble and doctoring away a lot of money before I found a medicine that was a real benefit to me. Since taking one dose of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy 14 weeks ago, I have had more real joy of living than I had in 10 years before." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. J. C. Perry, Capital Drug Store and druggists everywhere.
