a meeting of the general staff to be held in Portland Tuesday, August 20. Besides other matters that will come up for a definite decision, the advisability of recruiting a machine gun company in Salem will be discussed and a decision made that will be final and definite. There has been considerable discussion in the city as to whether it was possible to raise more than one machine gun company for the regiment of Oregon National Guard to be organized by Sept. 1, and whether this one company was to be organized in Portland or in Salem. It is to finally dispose of the matter that a meeting of the general staff has been called for next Tuesday. As the machine gun company, wherever organized, is to be part of the state organization, there will be no appeal from the decision of the general staff.

Some crank or crook or foolish boy is responsible for marking with a pencil the letter "C" on residences on the block from 1510 to 1620 on State street and one or two on North Winter according to the opinion of the police. A trick like this was tried about a year or so ago but after a day or so the excitement died down and it was found there was nothing to it.

The Fair Price Board met yesterday afternoon at the commercial club and outlined its work. Meetings will be held Tuesday afternoons of each week. This board is to agree on a fair whole sale price for foodstuffs and from this price agree on a fair retail price. It is working under the direction of the State Food Administration.

Mrs. Mark Huckestein and mother Mrs. J. E. Reid are in the city visiting at the home of August Huckestein. They are on their way from Tacoma to Mrs. Reid's home at San Jose, California. Mark Huckestein is now a sergeant in the infantry stationed at Ft. Seefield, Hawaiian Islands. Charles Huckestein is also in the service with a machine gun squad, stationed at Ft. Schafter, about a mile from the city of Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands.

At a meeting last evening of the trustees of Willamette University, E. T. Buckles was elected professor of economics and sociology, to succeed Prof. J. O. Hall who goes to Washington, D. C. Mr. Buckles is a past graduate of Leland-Stanford and has had 12 years experience as a teacher. He is 38 years old and not married. Others who were officially elected last evening include Dr. Chas. R. Fisher, as head of the nurse department of the University and his wife, who will teach violin and voice. Miss Alice May Roberts, 30 years of age, was also officially elected as Dean of Women. She received her Master's degree from Columbia University.

The Home Service section of the Red Cross 125 North Liberty streets, is ready during office hours 10 until 12 in the morning and 1 until 5 o'clock in the afternoon, to assist in investigating and adjusting allotments for the families of soldiers which have been delayed beyond the usual time. Miss Elizabeth Lord and Mrs. Leona Peterson who have been giving their time to the work, are now on a vacation. Miss Mildred Bradbury is helping in the work during their absence.

While it is not probable that the allotment of sugar may be cut for September, the fact is that Oregon has been given a certain allowance for the three months of July, August and September and whatever is left from the first two months will be the quota for September. At a meeting of the executive committee of the trustees of Willamette University last evening, President Donay was authorized to make arrangements with the board of directors of the Salem public schools by which Willamette University students may have the advantage of attending the metal working department of the high school. Some time ago directors Chauncey Bishop and Harley O. White were given authority to confer with the University on this subject. It is probable that before the opening of the fall term the proper amount that the University students should pay for their instruction and use of the metal working department will be satisfactorily arranged.

Peter J. Schotland, supreme chief ranger of the Foresters of America addressed the lodge last evening, telling its members of what had been accomplished the past years and of the aims of the lodge. He said that of the 294, in the service and claimed that the percentage was larger than for any other fraternal organization. He also stated that the supreme court of the lodge had invested $50,000 in Liberty bonds and War Savings stamps. In Oregon the Foresters number 5,000 with 160 in the Salem lodge, Camp No. 19. Addresses were also made by Grand Chief Hadden of Portland and sub-chief ranger Struck of Portland and Grand Secretary Jas. R. Bain.

ASKS MARION COUNTY TO SUPPLY NURSES

Fifteen Is Quota Assigned To This County By Federal Officials.

Within the next year, 50,000 nurses will be needed to care for the sick and wounded, and the quota for Marion county is 15, according to an announcement made by Mrs. E. F. Carleton, who has charge of the registering of the nurses from Marion county.

According to all information to be had on the subject, there will be a preliminary term of four months, a probationary period, a junior year of eight months, an intermediate year of 12 months and a senior year of 12 months. After the preliminary course of four months, the young nurse will be put into active service at some of the army base hospitals while completing her additional training.

No tuition is required. Students will be provided with board and lodging and text books. After the four months, they will be obliged to provide themselves with their own uniforms. A monthly allowance of $15 is given during the course of study.

Credits of nine months will be given to graduates of accredited colleges. Three months' credits will be given to students who have had two or more years of college or in an approved technical school that included prescribed courses in the sciences.

Upon completion of the course, students will become members of the regular army nurse corps in the order of vacancies. The age restrictions are from 21 to 35 years. Graduates will also be eligible for membership in the American Nurses association, the National Organization for Public Health Nursing and enrollment in the American Red Cross nursing service.

According to information sent out, within four months, the nurse will be started in on practical work in connection with some hospital army base and be given actual work and service while completing the course.

JAMES' CONDITION UNCHANGED

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 17.—Authorities at the Johns Hopkins hospital here where Senator Ollie James, Kentucky, has been a patient for the past several months, declared today that the rumors to the effect that the senator's condition suddenly changed for the worse were absolutely untrue.

While his condition is still regarded as serious, there is nothing alarming at present, it was asserted.

on the balance remaining from our total allowance for the three months July August and September after the certificates issued in July and August are deducted." The city as well as the county today was on the card system, by which grocers keep the cards of each family and a record made of each purchase. This was made necessary because a lot of people were dishonest and not complying with the instructions of the food administration limiting purchases of sugar to two pounds a month for each person in the household.

Just now the regular duties of the Commercial club representing the county food administration, is that of issuing permits for sugar to be used in canning. Yesterday permits to the number of 58 were issued, each for 25 pounds of sugar. It seems the mere issuing of 58 permits is no great amount of labor but as a rule there is a vast amount of conversation necessary to explain to people just why no more than 25 pounds are allowed at a time and also that if the 25 pounds for canning purposes only are not used, that the unused portion must be returned.

northwest. The conference has been called to discuss with the military men just what is expected of the colleges in the military training that is to be included in the course of study in all colleges in the northwest where there is an assurance of an attendance of 100 male students. He will leave Tuesday of next week, stopping Wednesday evening to deliver an address at Ashland.

Lieutenant J. A. Gallagher will speak at the Oregon theatre Sunday afternoon and evening and again Monday afternoon. He will tell of his experiences in Canadian army life beginning with the time he enlisted at Calgary in the mounted troops. Later he was assigned to a tunneling company and his talk will be of just what a tunneling company is like. It was while on duty in France that he was given a commission as lieutenant. He was at Ypres and the heavy fighting at the Somme and it was there that he was gassed. Returning to England after this experience he was on the English hospital ship Lanfranc when it was torpedoed. While recovering from being gassed and also concussion, he was given his honorable discharge and since January has been in this country speaking before patriotic organizations.

'The Society for Devastated France' is finding the women of Salem and vicinity quite liberal in their donations of hosiery and underwear to be made into garments for children. A meeting was held yesterday afternoon at the library when it was decided to give out patterns and to continue with the work in order to have garments ready for the Sept. 15 shipment from Portland. Those who are working with this society are asked to bring garments to the city library not later than Sept. 10. Patterns will be given to all who wish to work for the children of France, and those who have hosiery or undergarments to spare for this cause may leave them at the city library.
