Will Confer With Army Officials Over Training of Students

Prof. Wm. A. Darden of the department of English in Willamette University and Dr. Carl Gregg-Doney, president, will represent the University at the conference to be held Friday and Saturday of this week at San Francisco between the war department and the colleges of the northwest in regard to the Students' Army Training Corps. Dr. Doney will leave this evening, stopping over at Ashland tomorrow night to deliver an address under the auspices of the Red Cross and the Y. M. C. A. On his return he will speak at Medford next Monday evening. The Council of Education of the War department has urged every college in the west to put up a special campaign to secure students this fall and enlist them in the Students' Army Training Corps. That students may know how the war department feels about young men entering colleges and universities for the purpose of taking special training, the Council of Defense states very plainly as follows: "The object is to prevent the premature enlistment for active service of these men who could by extending the period of their college training multiply manifold their value to the country." Young men who intend to register at any college or university this fall should make arrangements before the time of the general register with the local exemption board in order that in filling out their questionnaire it may be stated they are on inactive service in the Students Army Training Corps. The exemption board will then place them in Class 5-D. According to the plans as outlined for Willamette University young men in this Corps will be given six hours a week strict military training with four hours a week of collateral work that will be of value to the government when they are called into the service. Men for the officers' training corps will be selected from the colleges and universities.

Wants Water To Irrigate 58,000 Acres in Malheur

Applications have been filed with State Engineer Lewis by C. B. McConnell of Burns, representing the Harney Basin Development Company, for the appropriation of 160 second feet of water from the Blitzen River and 400 second feet of water from the Silivies River for the irrigation of the lands in the bed of Malheur Lake and lands adjoining. These applications are filed in connection with the application submitted some time ago to the State Land Board for the reclamation by drainage of the bed of Malheur Lake. The project, according to the applications filed, will involve an area of 58,000 acres, a large part of which now lies in the bed of Malheur Lake and must first be drained, and the remainder lies along the border of the lake, which will be irrigated through the construction of canals from the Blitzen and Silivies Rivers. The estimated cost of the irrigation features of the project is $25,000,000.

Young Lady Takes Man's Place In Simpson's Field

J. M. Simpson of near Airlie, who is the nominee on the Democratic ticket for county commissioner, owns a large farm on the Lackiamute and has been seriously hampered by the labor problem. Having time came and crops were ready to harvest, Mr. Simpson sought a hired man in vain. But his problems were in a measure solved by Miss Agnes Bevena, a young lady of the neighborhood, who came to his assistance and volunteered to do her bit for her country by taking a man's place in the field. She donned mittens and booted hand hay, shook grain and made herself useful wherever her services were required. She says she likes the work.

JAPANESE RICE RIOTS ABOUT UNDER CONTROL

Government Requisitions Rice Stores And Will Put Them On Sale.

Tokio, Aug. 16.—The rice riots have caused police in Tokio to exercise the utmost vigilance, although this city is comparatively free from disturbances. Lights in the main streets have been extinguished since Wednesday. The streets are deserted with the exception of rioters. Newspapers have been forbidden to publish news of the riots. The police have stopped the tramways, closed the motion picture theatres, the parks and other theatres. Geisha houses are closed. An imperial ordinance authorizes the government to requisition private rice stores for the market. In many cities the police have shown sympathy with the rioters and have not moved against them. The rioters are charging that the farmers are responsible for the rice shortage to a great extent, declaring that 130,000,000 bushels of grain are hoarded by the producers. The minister of marine has announced that the provincial governors report the disturbances subsiding.

MARION COUNTY HAS PLENTY OF TEACHERS FOR PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Claims It Puts Weapon In Hands Of Employer To Coerce All Labor.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The Thomas amendment to the man power bill provides that when any person is placed in a deferred classification, "for industrial reasons," he shall not be entitled to remain therein unless he shall be good faith continue, while he physically able to do so, to work and follow such occupation, employment or business, and if he fails to do so, he shall again become subject to the draft.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The Thomas work or fight amendment to the man power bill is an insult to labor, Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor charged before the house military affairs committee today. "We do not protest against men going into the army to fight, but we do protest against putting this weapon in the hands of unfair employers to brand the workers as slackers," Morrison said.

Morrison declared the amendment was nothing less than labor conscription and that it would be mandatory upon the president to enforce or prevent strikes citing the opinion of several attorneys who differed with Secretary of War Baker on this score.

"Senator Thomas, the author of this amendment, admits it is aimed at strikers," Morrison said. "The government is not exercised over the industrial situation, but some one is and he is hidden in the dark," Morrison continued. "Is the Colorado Fuel company and the steel trust behind this legislation? The men who urge this amendment urge it as a punishment, but the men know they would be better off in the trenches than if they were over worked and under paid in a steel mill. "Organized labor has kept faith and does not want the odium of slackism cast upon it. Drag out the influence behind labor conscription and you'll find the most prolific profiteers in the nation."

Morrison denied Senator Thomas' charge that war work had been held up by strikes, and the statement that miners were laying off two and three days a week, introducing statements from the fuel administration showing that fewer miners had produced more coal this year than last.

Morrison emphasized throughout his statement the charge that employers had asked deferred classification for employees and were now trying to hold military service over them to prevent organizing for better wages. Dr. C. R. Mann, chairman of the educational advisory board of the war department told the committee that drafting men below 21, would not wipe out education in the country, because it planned to put those young men thru an intensive course of instruction before and after they are in the army.

Several members of the committee pointed out that since boys of 18 would be the last to be drafted that they would in all probability make up the 18 divisions which are to be in this country on June 30, next year.

A. A. Hall are in Portland today attending a session of the general staff of Marion county schools make the acquaintance of an energetic youngster showing the trend of the coming generation. For instance, Beatrice Rather of the Grassy Pond school district, age 13, who is secretary of the local preparatory food club, writes that on account of picking blackberries her report was a few days slow. She made $40.18 during the berry season and writes that it will all be invested in War Savings Stamps and clothes.

Several teachers in the county have been referred to the Deschutes school district where a teacher is wanted out none have looked with favor on the proposition, although the salary offered is $90 a month. Board is figured at about $35 a month in that part of the state and the expense of traveling there and back rather took away the liberal salary offered which is somewhat larger than the average county district is offering from this part of the state.
