HER IMPROVEMENT AMAZES FRIENDS

Looking After 62-Room House No Task To Mrs. La Plant Now.

"All my friends know and can tell you that for a long time I was almost a nervous wreck, and this Tanlar has made such a wonderful change in my condition that they are simply amazed at my improvement," said Mrs. Ella La Plant, who conducts a large rooming house at 412 Puyallup avenue, Tacoma, Washington, the other day.

"For the last twelve years," she continued, "I had been in a terribly rundown condition and during that whole time, hardly a day passed that I didn't suffer from awful headaches. I had no appetite at all and what little I forced down would ferment in my stomach and distress me for hours. My kidneys were out of order and worried me night and day and my nerves were so unstrung that, after going to bed, any little sound, even the rustling of a newspaper, would wake me with a start and it would be some time before I could drop off to sleep again. I had a very large house to look after, and I was so weak and miserable that a couple of hours' work would exhaust me so that I'd just have to quit for the rest of the day. The fact is: loss of sleep and lack of nourishment had undermined my nervous system and I was just wearing myself out.

"I spent all the money I had on medicines and treatment that did me no good, and I had about given up hope of ever getting well, when I began to read about the good Tanlar was doing others and I thought I might as well try it. Well sir, the way I began to pick up right after starting on it, surprised even me, for after experience with other medicines I did not expect such quick results. My appetite is just fine—too fine, the way prices are now—for I feel hungry most all the time. My kidneys don't worry me at all now, and I am rid of that terrible backache at last. Those awful headaches are all gone, too, which is a great relief, besides, I sleep all night like a child and feel so strong and rested when I get up in the mornings that I don't mind at all the work I have to do in looking after a sixty-two room house full of people. My father is now taking Tanlar and says he is just feeling fine.

Tanlar is sold in Hubbard by Hubbard Drug Co., in Mt. Angel by Ben Gosh, in Gervais by John Kelly, in Turner by H. P. Cornelius, in Woodburn by Lyman H. Shorey, in Salem by Dr. S. C. Stone, in Silverton by Geo. A. Steinhilber, in Gates by Mrs. J. P. McCurdy and in Stayton by C. A. Beauchamp.

War Summary of United Press

1480th Day of the War; 36th Day of Counter Offensive

Pleasant front.—The British today enlarged their fighting front to a stretch of twenty miles between Cajal river and Chaulnes. Additional gains were reported this morning at several points.

The French are attacking along a forty-mile front, from Roye southward to the vicinity of Soissons. The fighting here has continued without cessation since Wednesday morning.

Two German counter attacks north of Albert were repulsed last night.

Flanders front.—British troops advanced slightly in three sectors—east from Goldendale, Wash.

Mrs. E. E. Olson gave a stag party for her husband this evening, the occasion being the anniversary of his birth, also his marriage.

Mrs. Henry Dahl left yesterday to join her husband at San Pedro, Cal.

Miss Frances Bernum, who has been living at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mosher, for the past year, has returned to her home in Los Angeles.

REMOVES WRINKLES AND REFRESHES TIRED FACES

As the skin tends to expand in warm weather causing wrinkles to form, a good astringent tonic lotion should be used these days. Dissolve an ounce of pure powdered saxolite in a half pint of witch hazel. Bathe the face in this and see how quickly the wrinkles and furrows will disappear—and how much younger you will look! There's nothing better for sagging cheeks or double chin, or for enlarged pores.

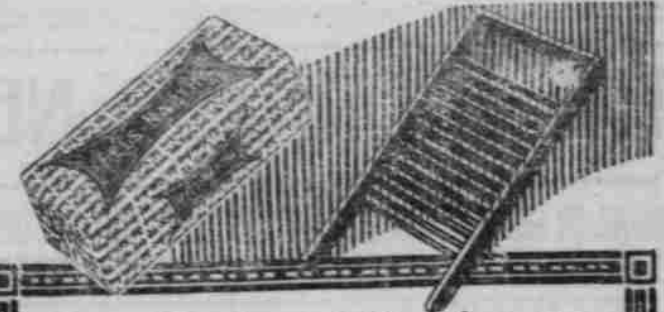

Use this simple lotion during the heat of the day and you will find it wonderfully refreshing. You will lose that wilted, tired look. The ingredients of course are perfectly harmless. Be sure to ask the druggist for powdered saxolite.

WAR CORRESPONDENT TO DELIVER LECTURES

Intimates It Will Be a Big Task To Drive Enemy Over The Rhine.

An Atlantic Port, Aug. 23.—With his left eye bandaged and his left arm in a sling, as the result of contact with a German machine gun, Floyd Gibbons, correspondent in France for the Chicago Tribune, arrived here today aboard a French liner. He said he had heard nothing about a croix de guerre, which cable dispatches a few days ago said he had been awarded him by the French government.

The correspondent, brought a message from Marshal Foch to the American people but it will not be published for a short time. He came back to this country, he said, to make a lecture tour for the United States intelligence department. He will write his experiences during the war and attempt to show the people of this country just how big a task he believes it will be to drive the boches across the Rhine.

He sounded a warning against too great optimism but at the same time urged the people not to be downhearted. After declaring Marshal Foch is im-

CHICAGO MOURNS CHIEF

Chicago, Aug. 23.—Police and fire stations here were draped in black today in memory of Forman F. Schuetzler, "Chicago's greatest policeman." Chief Schuetzler died late yesterday following a long illness.

Schuetzler joined the force in 1883 as patrolman. His bulk, strength and courage won rapid advancement. Noted psychologists have written on his seemingly occult power in controlling prisoners. He was one of the heroes of the Haymarket riots.

DEATH TOLL THIRTY

Tyler, Minn., Aug. 23.—Thirty identified dead and three missing was the toll of the Tyler cyclone of Wednesday night, according to the coroner's official count early today. After a day and two nights of horror and sorrow, unsleeping crowds were still searching the ruins of buildings today for bodies. State guards are now on duty and a temporary morgue has been established at the town hall—just off the storm's path.

COAST STRIKE ENDED

London, Aug. 23.—The Yorkshire coal strike came to an end Thursday night, it was announced today, when the employers granted the demands of the miners, who returned to work.

menhly pleased so with what the army has accomplished so far, Gibbons gave some of his personal experiences with American troops in action.

"The French and British have been instilled with the unconquerable spirit of the American fighting man," he said. "The terror of rushing shells soon fades away after you have been near the front for a time, and you cease to worry about them. That is why they are so cheery under such adverse conditions. The French and British have begun to absorb this spirit."

Gibbons cited an example of the American fighting spirit as he told of the fighting around Chateau-Thierry when American troops acquitted themselves so well.

"American troops were sent ahead of the main body of troops by their French commanders when it was known that the Germans intended to launch an attack," he said. "They were told to hold a section of line about two miles and a half ahead for ten hours, then fall back where the heavier bodies of troops would relieve them. The ten hours passed and when the third day passed and still the Americans had not returned, the French officers could do nothing but send troops to relieve them. They found the Americans holding firmly. A French officer told me after that he believed the privates, after all, would have to win the war."
