CARD OF THANKS We wish to express our gratitude to our friends for their kindness and sympathy and for the beautiful floral offerings sent in our time of bereavement. Mrs. H. Marsh, Fred Carl, A. G. Carl, H. G. Carl.

For the past week, this part of the Willamette valley has been treated to some genuine summer weather. The thermometer Thursday afternoon recorded 92 above, equal to the warmest day of the season experienced last Monday when the maximum was 92. Yesterday Portland registered 89, Phoenix 108, Sacramento 104 and Walla Walla 88. Government thermometers are generally in nice secluded spots or on the top of high buildings and the average for the street in the afternoon is from three to five degrees higher than the official report.

Evangelist A. A. Yerkes will speak on 'I will shake the heavens and the earth,' in Moose hall at 2:30 p. m.; at 7:30 p. m. in the same hall, Evangelist F. L. Parsons of Portland will deliver a lecture on 'The land of beginning again.' Both lectures free. No collection. Sept. 1st Moose hall, cor. Court and High Sts. Strangers especially invited. 8-31

Died

BURLEY—In the city, August 29, 1918 N. H. Burley, at the age of 83 years. He was a retired farmer and had lived in this locality for about 40 years. His last wife was a daughter of Captain Howard. As yet no funeral arrangements have been announced.

HURLBURT—At the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rollin K. Page, August 29, 1918, Mrs. Jane A. Hurlburt, at the age of 69 years. Death was due to apoplexy. Mrs. Hurlburt was born in Toronto, Canada, and with Mr. Hurlburt has been making her home with her daughter. She was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

The funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock from St. Paul's Episcopal church and will be conducted by the Rev. R. S. Gill. The body will be taken to Portland for cremation.

Lloyd Rigdon, who was sent to Camp Fremont August 18, writes that the California drinking water cannot be compared to that he found at Camp Lewis. In order to make it safe to drink the California kind, he writes that it is necessary to put a chemical in it. At Camp Fremont, the boys are living in tents. Mr. Rigdon is now with Company M, 62d Infantry, Camp Fremont, about 30 miles from San Francisco.

PERSONALS Everyone has his troubles and just now G. E. Wilcox, manager of the Salem Fruit company is having his Tuesday afternoon of this week a car of cantaloupes and vegetables was billed to the company at Salem from Portland. Since then he has not heard of the car and there was no chance of its arriving today as there is but one freight train from Portland to Salem daily. Fred Lamport who is now in the navy was in the city on a short furlough yesterday. He leaves today for Tacoma. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Baker drove to Newport this morning accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelley of Derry, Pa.
