PRUSSIAN PATRIOTS

British was one of the leading lights of the bolshevik government. He came to Petrograd immediately after the revolution from Copenhagen when he was in the employ of Parvus, the German majority socialist who became a millionaire during the war as a result of trade privileges accorded him by the German government. Parvus is openly accused by European socialists of being a German agent. British acted as chief of police and his rule has been characterized as the blackest in the history of the police department of Petrograd.

He and his red guards were charged with the duty of dissolving the constituent assembly last January, if it should prove necessary.

Peasants Again Rebel

Stockholm, Sept. 4.—The uprising of Ukrainian peasants against German rule has broken out again with renewed violence, according to Russian newspapers. The Crasow Journal prints a Kiev dispatch stating that the rebellion is increasing daily and is spreading rapidly from district to district. Fighting between armed peasants and Austro-German forces is almost constant, especially along the left bank of the Dnieper river. The most serious revolts are declared to have taken place in the Belz, Kerkoff, Taraschshat, Casoff and Berditcheff districts. The Ukraine railway strike is still unsettled.

SOCIETY

By MABEL GARRETT

Women in general and college women in particular are looking forward to the thrift stamp tea which will be held in the Young Women's Christian association parlors on the afternoon of Thursday, September 12. This affair is to raise money for the women's building of the University of Oregon and is one of a series to be given in the thirty largest cities in the state. Successful sales have already been accomplished in Dallas and Portland, under the leadership of Mrs. George T. Gerlinger and Miss Dorothy Fiegel, respectively.

For the afternoon a program has been arranged and tea will be served. The local committee consists of the Misses Ethel McGilchrist, Alice Welch, Constance Cartwright, Doris Churchill and Mrs. Frank Spears.

Tomorrow Miss Sylvia Mary Reil and Miss Jessie May Gregory will leave for Boise, Idaho. The Misses Gregory and Reil for the past year have had charge of the H. D. Roberts farm on the Wallace road. The girls are former teachers and have done this work as an experiment and change from their regular vocation. Miss Gregory is a southern girl having taught at Johnson City, Tennessee, for several years, and Miss Reil formerly taught in Michigan. Before coming west they did post graduate work at Columbia University, New York, where it was they met each other and formed this unique plan. After a year's work of this country life they are now expecting to go on with their teaching. Miss Gregory will teach English in the high school at Star, which is a suburb of Boise. For a few months Miss Reil plans to study with Mrs. Anna Rogers Fish, who left Salem recently to open a studio in Boise.

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Legge on the Jefferson road, was the scene of a delightful dinner party recently when Mrs. Legge and Mrs. Vandervort entertained some of their friends.

Summer flowers were used effectively on the table and unique place cards with clever quotations marked the individual places. The Misses Margaret Legge and Jennelle Vandervort had charge of the serving.

The guests were Dr. and Mrs. R. N. Avison, President and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Mrs. Martha W. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. John Todd, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Carrier, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Vandervort and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Legge.

Tomorrow night Salem's music lovers will gather to hear the concert of Mrs. Lois Lucile Junk at First Methodist church. Mrs. Junk is well known in Salem because of her appearance in many musical programs during the past years. She will sing songs of her own composition including the cycle entitled "The Butterfly," and also the group, "Love's Ransy."

Mrs. Junk has lived for the past ten years in California, where she has a studio and has enjoyed the association with artistic people. Mrs. Junk's voice is clear and pleasing and Salem people are anticipating with pleasure her appearance tomorrow night.

After spending a week visiting at the home of Mrs. Ruth E. Sayre and other relatives, Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Stone of Healdsburg, California, left for their home Monday evening. They also attended the G. A. B. convention. En route they plan to visit at Shasta Springs and Sacramento fair a few days.

The P. E. O. club met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. G. W. Lasier, 1190 South Liberty street, when a very interesting program was enjoyed. Mrs. Gerald Volk read a paper entitled "Over the top, P. E. O. in 1919," and Mrs. W. W. Moore responded with a pleasing piano solo. The members answered to roll call with quotations about music.

A party of Salem girls accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Farnum of Portland, left for Seaside Monday morning where they will be domiciled at the Buena Vista cottage for about two weeks. The party included the Misses Margaret Goodin, Helen Lovall and Gladys Bartholomew.

After enjoying a fortnight's vacation on a camping trip at Pacific City, Mr. and Mrs. Guy O. Smith and children, Lawrence and Robert, have returned home.

Mrs. Emily Fargo, who has been spending the past two months with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Fargo, 1085 North Church left yesterday for Portland. She was accompanied by Mrs. Laura Moore Knott from New York. Mrs. Knott is spending the summer in the west and for the past week has also been the guest of Mrs. Fargo. They will spend a week in Portland and will then journey on to Mrs. Fargo's home in Spokane.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Pridoux and son, Harry, have left after visiting Mrs. Pridoux's aunt, Mrs. H. Smith, 749 North Liberty street, for several days.

Miss Florence Cleveland returned Sunday morning after spending a delightful vacation at Crater Lake.

SPAIN AND GERMANY.

Amsterdam, Sept. 3.—The question of relations between Spain and Germany is admitted grave. This will be one of the principal matters discussed by Admiral Von Hintze, German foreign minister, when he confers with Austrian officials at Vienna today.

According to a Berlin dispatch, Germany is persistently refusing to yield to Spanish demands that Madrid be authorized to seize interned German tonnage in compensation for Spanish ships submerged.

THIS MAN ABLE TO WORK NOW FIRST TIME IN TWO YEARS

Says Tanlac Gave His Biggest Surprise Of His Life—Gain 20 Pounds.

"Well, I have actually finished my third bottle of Tanlac, and do you know I had the surprise of my life the other day when I got on the scales and found I had actually gained twenty pounds already," said W. S. Hukill, a well known carpenter living at 7308 Park Ave., Tacoma, Wash., recently.

"I hadn't been able to hit a lick of work in two years, until now," he continued. "My appetite went square back on me, and what little I did manage to eat soured on my stomach, causing gas and intense suffering. My kidneys, bothered me something awful, and my back pained me so bad it was torture for me to have it rubbed. I was so nervous and miserable during those two years that I never knew what a good night's sleep was, and for seven months of that time I was flat on my back, hardly able to move. I, of course was under treatment, spent sometime in the hospital, and took all kinds of medicines, but with it all I kept getting worse."

"I kept dropping off in weight until I lost forty seven pounds, and was almost a living skeleton. When I left the hospital and decided to see what Tanlac would do for me, I weighed only ninety five pounds. But Tanlac has certainly made a wonderful change in me. I sleep fine, and really it's the first time in two years I have been able to sleep the night through. My back and kidneys don't bother me any more, and my stomach is in such a good condition, that I can eat just anything I want without suffering a particle afterwards. The way I am getting back my lost weight is astonishing. As I said, I have already gained twenty pounds, and I am still gaining. Not only that, I feel better than I have in years, and I am going back to my work as I feel strong and well in every way, and I just can't praise Tanlac enough for what it has done for me."

Tanlac is sold in Hubbard by Hubbard Drug Co., in Mt. Angel by Ben Goeb, in Gervais by John Kelly, in Turner by H. P. Correll, in Woodburn by Lyman H. Shorey, in Salem by Dr. S. G. Stone, in Silverton by Geo. A. Steelhammer, in Gates by Mrs. J. P. McCurdy and in Stayton by C. A. Beauchamp. (Advt.)

LETTERS INDICATE COOK'S OPINION OF BROADWAY OVER NIGHT

Cook Who Is Said To Have Killed Broadway, Gave Him Plenty Of Warning.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—The search for J. Norman Cook, in connection with the murder of William E. Bradley here, spread to St. Paul where theatrical acquaintances of Cook are said to have seen him Saturday.

Bradway died Friday night of a stab wound in a dining statement he charged that Cook was his assailant. Cook is alleged to have opposed Bradley's friendship with his 19 year old daughter, Norman.

Bradway's relatives told the police that Cook had written him threatening letters. The police intend to open Bradley's safety deposit box, which is said to hold the letters.

Letters said to have been written Bradley, who was about 50 years of age, by the girl, are in the hands of the police. Many of them were written in endearing terms. One was addressed to "my own darling Billy;" another to "my dearest, dearest Billy." The expressed adoring affection for Bradley.

Miss Cook remained at Columbus, Kan., with her mother.

Further search was being made for Cook at Indianapolis, where he was said to have gone with a theatrical company. Various reports that he still is in Chicago were being run down. His description was sent to practically every city in the country.

Bradway was well known in Chicago as a successful business man and club man. He was reported to be wealthy. He was the divorced husband of Charlotte Mae Smith, daughter of J. W. Smith, discoverer of the Goldfield, Nev., mines.

Though one has little inclination these days to be jumpy, one nevertheless feels it necessary to call to attention that Frank M. Upp of Klamath Falls and Alex Comming, of Vancouver, B. C., were in town today.

concern in a joint recess resolution allowing the house to get away until the senate has passed the bill and is ready to send it to conference.

House leaders declare that the call back to duty will come in about a month.

Privately, the understanding between the leaders of the two houses is that the house will not be asked to return to business until recess to election day and after that the bill will be tied up in conference for a week or more.

Leaders on both sides say there is no chance of getting the bill enacted before September 28 the date of the next liberty loan.

The recess, it is believed, are certain to encounter opposition in both bodies and there is a chance the president may have something to say.

Some members of the house are eager to stay on the job until the revenue bill is finally disposed of on the grounds that they will be in a stronger position if election if their work is cleaned up.

HOW TO AVOID BACKACHE AND NERVOUSNESS

Told by Mrs. Lynch From Own Experience.

Providence, R. I.—"I was all run down in health, was nervous, had headaches, my back ached all the time. I was tired and had no ambition for anything. I had taken a number of medicines which did me no good. One day I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it had done for women, so I tried it. My nervousness and backache and headaches disappeared. I gained in weight and feel fine, so I can honestly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to any woman who is suffering as I was."—Mrs. ADRIAN B. LYNCH, 100 Plain St., Providence, R. I.

Backache and nervousness are symptoms or nature's warnings, which indicate a functional disturbance or an unhealthy condition which often develops into a more serious ailment.

Women in this condition should not continue to drag along without help, but profit by Mrs. Lynch's experience, and try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and for special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co., Lynn, Mass.
