Today and tomorrow are the last two days of the picture being shown under the auspices of the 2d Battalion, Oregon guard, at the Liberty theater. The picture is entitled 'My Own United States' and tells the tale not of the present war, but of the earlier days during the time of Aaron Burr and of the war of 1812.
William Moll, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Moll, was seriously injured Tuesday afternoon while working with an iron cable at Falls City. He was taken to the Dallas hospital and this morning was reported as unconscious. He suffered a severe wound on the head besides having the left arm broken. He was formerly president of the Washington junior high school student body and is well known among students of that school.
Private David A. Swaggerty, step son of R. J. Brown, 1495 South Liberty street, was injured in France during the latter part of July, according to a telegram received yesterday from the war department. No details were given. He enlisted in Salem with Company M at the age of 18. He was formerly a high school student.
Now comes word from the hop yards south of Salem that there is a great scarcity of labor, notwithstanding the hops are easier picking now than for many a year. Near Leoui and Independence several yards are said to have had trouble in getting sufficient pickers, and in places the situation is becoming critical.
The executive committee of the fourth liberty loan met yesterday at the Commercial club to further complete plans for the biggest drive of all, the amount being twice that of the last loan. Several committees were appointed and by Sept. 23, everything will be in working order for the big drive.
While the record for the low stage of the river is now being broken, the high temperature record for the first week in September of this year will break another record. No old timer in the valley can remember when the first week in September had such high temperatures as the first six days of this month with a maximum, beginning with

Y. M. C. A. CAMPAIGN OPENS NEXT MONDAY
Annual Deficiency In Operating Expenses Sought By Subscriptions.
Salem Young Men's Christian Association will launch its annual campaign for funds next Monday, September 9.

it was decided to adopt a new plan for raising the funds of the Association. Each member of the board agreed to act as a captain of a team which is to consist of at least five men. Each team is to receive lists of names which will be selected by a special committee appointed for that purpose. This method will obviate the usual custom of reading names each day at the luncheon table.

Carl Gabrielson Arrives In Siberia
Word was received from Carl Gabrielson, who is now first lieutenant, that he had arrived safely in Siberia with the forces of General Graves.

Born
Roth—To Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Roth, 925 D street, Friday noon, Sept. 6, 1918, a daughter.
She has been named Frances Evelyn. There are now four children in the family and this is the only daughter.

Word was received from Carl Gabrielson, who is now first lieutenant, that he had arrived safely in Siberia with the forces of General Graves. It was one year ago this August, that Mr. Gabrielson attended the officers training school at the Presidio, San Francisco, and at the closing of the course of study was commissioned first lieutenant of infantry. From the Presidio he was sent by the war department to Fort Sill in Oklahoma for special training in the hand grenade division. Having completed this course, he was ordered to Camp Lewis as instructor in hand grenade throwing and later was stationed at Camp Fremont, Cal., with the 8th infantry.
With the forces of General Graves, 16 lieutenants were taken from Camp Fremont, Lieutenant Gabrielson being one of the five to be placed in charge of a command. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson of this city and a brother of Mrs. Channey Bishop.
A friend suggests that war gardens are particularly well named when neighbors fight over division of crops.

Now comes word from the hop yards south of Salem that there is a great scarcity of labor, notwithstanding the hops are easier picking now than for many a year. Near Leoui and Independence several yards are said to have had trouble in getting sufficient pickers, and in places the situation is becoming critical.
