will be converted to war work when their present supply of malt is used without waiting for December 1, Otto Stifel, president of the St. Louis Brewers association, declared today. The recent restrictive order of the fuel administration has closed two St. Louis breweries and will force others to the same action within the next month, Stifel said.

Will Not Oppose

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 7.—Brewers here expect their beer stocks to be exhausted by February 1, two months after the federal order prohibiting the manufacture of beer after December 1 goes into effect. W. H. Austin, attorney for the Milwaukee Brewers association, said today there was no talk of opposing the order.

Silverton Boy "Missing" May Be War Prisoner

Silverton, Ore., Sept. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Reeves of this city have received official notice that their son, Delbert, has been missing since July 19th. Mr. Reeves enlisted from Silverton and friends are grieved to hear of his unfortunate fate, but are assured that "Del" was a true patriot who dared and would do anything for the service of his country. The last letter received from him by his parents was dated July 9th. He spoke of capturing twelve prisoners single-handed and said: "When I get 50 more boches I am going to rest for awhile." His mother says she believes he undertook to capture more men and was himself taken prisoner.

Summary: Two base hits, Mann and Pick; sacrifice hits, Hollocher. Double plays: Hollocher to Merkle; Vaughn to Merkle. Left on bases, Boston 4; Chicago 3. Stolen bases, Whiteman, Schang and Pick. Struck out by Mays 4; by Vaughn 5. Bases on balls, off Mays. Passed ball, Schang. Hit by pitched ball, Whiteman. Time of game 1 hour and 55 minutes.

Game By Innings.

Ball one. Ball two. Strike one. Hooper singled over third. It was a Texas leaguer just out of Hollocher's reach. Shean up. Foul, strike one. Ball one. Ball two. Shean flew to Mann. It was a high fly, Strunk up. Strike one, called. Strunk lined to Hollocher, who doubled Hooper off first, to Merkle. No runs, one hit no errors.

Chicago: Flack up. Ball one, ball two, ball three. Flack walked. Hollocher up. Strike one, called. Hollocher sacrificed. Schang to McInnis. Flack going to second. Mann up. Ball one. Mann flew to Hooper. Mays did considerable stalling while Flack was on second. He made several motions to throw to second. Paskert up. Strike one, called. Ball one. Strike two, foul. Ball two. Ball three. Paskert fanned. No runs no hits, no errors.

A sprinkling of rain fell while Paskert was at bat, but the cloud that dropped it was swiftly passing by.

Second inning—Boston: Whiteman up. Strike one called. Ball one. Ball two. Whiteman singled to left. The rain began to come down hard chasing the crowd from the boxes. McInnis up. Foul, strike one. Strike two. McInnis out, bunting third strike. He bunted a pop fly down the first base line. Schang up. Schang fanned as Whiteman stole second. It was the first stolen base of the series. Scott safe on Hollocher's error. Thomas up. Thomas flew to Flack. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Chicago: Merkle up. Strike one, swung. Ball one. Ball two. Ball three. Strike two, called. Merkle flew to Hooper. It was a hard drive, which Hooper took easily. Pick up. Ball one. Strike one, called. Foul, strike two. Pick popped to Shean. It was a high easy chance. Deal up. Strike one called. Strike two, swung. Deal out, Thomas to McInnis. No run, no hits, no errors.

Third Inning—Boston: Mays up. Ball one. Strike one called. Foul, strike two. Mays out, Hollocher to Merkle. Hooper out, Merkle to Vaughn. Shean up. Shean out, Vaughn to Merkle. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Chicago: Killifer up. Strike one, swung. Killifer out, Shean to McInnis. Vaughn up. Vaughn out Shean to McInnis. Flack up. Strike one, called. Flack out, to McInnis unassisted. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Flack made a nice drive down the first base line, but McInnis was right in front of it and he was an easy out.

Fourth Inning—Boston: Strunk up. Strike one, called. Strike two, called. Strunk fanned. Whiteman up. Ball one. Strike one, called. Whiteman was hit by a pitched ball. The ball struck him in the ribs. He went to first holding his side. McInnis up. Foul, strike one. Strike two, swung. McInnis singled to left, Whiteman went to second. The pair had tried a hit and run on every ball pitched. Schang up. Ball one. Schang singled to center Whiteman scoring and sending McInnis to third. It was a clean liner directly over second base. Whiteman scored easily. Scott up. Scott was safe on an infield hit. McInnis scoring and Schang going to second. It was a squeeze play. The bunt bounded high in front of Vaughn. Thomas up. Strike one, called. Ball one. Ball two. Thomas singled to right and Schang was out at the plate, Flack to Killifer. Scott went to third and Thomas to second on the throw. Mays up. Ball one, Strike one, swung. Ball two. Strike two, swung. Ball three. Mays lined to Paskert. Two runs, four hits no errors.

Chicago: Hollocher up. Strike one, called. Ball one. Hollocher flew to Hooper, who did not have to move to get the ball. Mann up. Mann doubled to right. It was a fast grounder down the first base line and was the first hit of the Cubs. Paskert up. Ball one. Paskert flew to Whiteman. Whiteman took the ball with his back against the left field bleachers. It was a long drive. Merkle up. Foul, strike one. Ball one. Ball two. Foul, strike two. Merkle out. Scott to McInnis. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Scott made a dazzling play to get Merkle. He got the ball with his glove hand over second.

Fifth Inning—Boston: Hooper up. Ball one; strike one, called; foul, strike two; foul; ball two, ball three. Hooper walked. Shean up. Strike one, swung; ball one, ball two. Shean lined to Vaughn who doubled Hooper off first to Merkle. It was a hit and run play and Hooper was almost to second when Vaughn caught the smash. Strunk up. Strike one, called; ball one; foul, strike two; strike three, swung. Strunk fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

It was the second time during the game that Strunk had been fanned by Vaughn. Hitting left handed, he showed little liking for the Cup port side's curves.

Fifth Inning—Chicago: Pick up. Ball one, ball two; strike one, called. Pick doubled past short. Deal up. Foul, strike one; foul, strike two. Deal flew to Whiteman. Pick's hit was very fluky. It was a grounder that went through Scott's legs. Killifer up. Strike one, swung. Killifer singled off Scott's shin scoring Pick. The ball bounded into left field. Killifer was held at first. Vaughn up. Strike one, called; ball one; foul, strike two; ball two, strike three. Vaughn fanned. Flack up. Ball one, ball two, strike one, called; ball three. Killifer out stealing, Schang to Scott. One run, two hits, no errors.

Schang's throw to get Killifer was low, but the Cub catcher was too slow to take advantage of it.

Sixth Inning—Boston: Whiteman up. Ball one, ball two; strike one, called. Whiteman lined to Merkle. The crack of the bat and the ball hitting the glove were practically simultaneous sounds. McInnis up. Strike one, swung. McInnis popped to Deal. He caught the ball at the pitcher's box. Schang up. Strike one, swung; ball two, strike two. Schang fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Vaughn had regained his effectiveness and was pitching with much confidence. He got Schang with a fast one on the side. Schang never budged. It was the second time he had struck out.

Sixth Inning—Chicago: Flack up. Ball one, strike one, called. Flack fouled to Schang who made a great catch of a low spinning foul back of the plate. Hollocher up. Ball one. Hollocher out, Scott to McInnis. Scott made a fast play on a slow hopper. Mann up. Ball one. Mann singled to right. It was his second hit of the day. Paskert up. Strike one, called; strike two, called. Paskert singled to center. Mann going to second. An aeroplane went over the stands just clearing it; by twenty feet. Paskert hit. Merkle up. Ball one, ball two; foul, strike one; ball three; foul, strike two, strike three. Merkle fanned. No runs, two hits, no errors.

The crowd was rooting wildly for a run when Merkle was up but Mays worked him nicely. He didn't get a good one to swing at.

Seventh Inning—Boston: Scott up. Foul, strike one; ball one. Scott fouled to Flack, who made a nice catch after a long run. Thomas up. Ball one, strike one, called; strike two, called. Thomas out, Merkle to Vaughn. Mays made a nice play of a slow ground ball down the first base line. Mays up. Mays out, Vaughn to Merkle. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Eighth Inning—Chicago: Pick up. Strike one, ball one. Pick out, Scott to McInnis. Deal up. Strike one, called, foul, strike two. Deal beat out an infield hit to third. Thomas knocked the ball down. Killifer up. Foul, strike one. Killifer out, Mays to McInnis. Deal going to second. Vaughn up. Strike one called; strike two, swung. Vaughn flew to Whiteman. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Ninth Inning—Boston: Harper up. Ball one, ball two, strike one, called, foul, strike two. Hooper fanned. Shean up. Shean popped to Merkle. Strunk up. Strike one, called; ball one. Strunk flew to Flack. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Tenth Inning—Chicago: Flack up. Foul, strike one; ball one. Flack flew to Strunk. Hollocher up. Ball one, ball two; strike one, called; strike two, swung. Hollocher fanned. Mann up. Ball one, ball two; foul, strike one; ball three. Mann out, Scott to McInnis. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Eleventh Inning—Boston: Whiteman up. Whiteman out, Deal to Merkle. McInnis up. McInnis out, Hollocher to Merkle. Schang up. Strike one, called. Schang singled to right. Scott up. Ball one. Schang safe at second when Hollocher dropped Killifer's throw. The official scorer gave Schang a stolen base. Ball one, foul, strike one; foul, strike two; strike three. Scott fanned. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Twelfth Inning—Chicago: Paskert up. Strike one, called; strike two, called;

TWEEDIE-KUNZE.
The marriage of Miss Ruth Kunze, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Kunze, to John H. Tweedie, of Elliott Prairie, took place Saturday afternoon, August 24, in the Presbyterian parsonage at Oregon City, Rev. Speman officiating. The ring ceremony was used, only the immediate relatives attended.
Both young people are well known in the social circles of Elliott Prairie and surrounding country. Miss Kunze is one of Elliott Prairie's charming and talented girls and has spent nearly her entire life in that place. Mr. Tweedie is well known in musical circles, having been a member of the Hubbard band and several orchestras.
After a week's visit in Portland with friends and relatives, they returned home where Mrs. Tweedie will make her home with her parents, while her husband serves in the army. He left for Camp Lewis Tuesday.—Woodburn Independent.
