Short Polk Railroad Quits Business For Good

(Capital Journal Special Service) Dallas, Or., Sept. 7.--The Independence & Monmouth railroad which has been operated between the two Polk county towns for a number of years was sold this week to D. Samuels of Salem and D. Brunston of Portland and a force of men will be put to work within the next few days junking the outfit.

Operation on the line which is said to be the shortest line in the state ceased last Saturday. The line was owned by H. Hirschberg of Independence who had the distinction of being president, board of directors and in fact the sole managing head of the only line in this county. The rolling stock of the line consisted of three locomotives and three coaches and the rails are of 45 and 50 pound weight. Mr. Hirschberg is said to have received something like $20,000 for the sale of the property. The Independence & Monmouth line formerly ran several trains a day into Dallas but since the Southern Pacific extended their traffic to take in the normal town the trains have been discontinued and trips were made only to and from Independence and Monmouth. An automobile stage line will probably be established between the two towns to take care of the passenger traffic.

Polk Brush Fires Threaten. Brush fires in Western Polk county near Pedee in western Polk county threatened to do serious damage to property in that locality the first of the week and it was only after strenuous efforts had been made by ranchers and fire patrolmen that the flames were gotten under control, not however, until several files of fences on the properties of Frank Kall and the McSherry ranch had been destroyed. The fire entered the green timber at one point but little damage was done. The extreme dry weather of the past few weeks has greatly extended the danger of forest fires and a sharp lookout is being kept by Fire Warden Fuller and men for any flames in the big timber belt in western Polk.

two years has been the only practicing osteopathic physician in this city will leave shortly for Kansas City, Missouri to take a course in medicine. Dr. Virgil closed his office in the Uglow building at the corner of Main and Mill streets Saturday night. Mrs. Virgil will join her husband in the middle western city after a short visit with relatives and friends in this city and Portland.

Dallas Man Honored by Mail Carriers Milt Grant, the popular mail carrier of rural route No. 2 was honored by the mail carriers of the state at their recent convention in Portland by being elected to the office of vice president. Mr. Grant and Frank Morrison the rural mail carriers out of this city were both present at the convention and made a plea for the next meeting of the carriers to be held in Dallas. The matter was left in the hands of the executive committee with power to choose the next meeting place.

H. V. Gates, lessee of the Dallas Water System has been in the city this week looking after business interests.

D. M. Metzger a former Dallas resident and a teacher in the old Dallas College was in Dallas this week for a short time. Mr. Metzger is now connected with an Evangelical College at LeMars, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Black and Mrs. F. V. Brown and little son returned the first of the week from a short trip to Seattle and Camp Lewis.

Mrs. John Cosper of Seattle is in the city visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Neis.

J. D. Smith who enlisted in the navy several weeks ago received orders this week to report for training and will leave Saturday for the training camp on Lake Washington near Seattle.

Ernest McCallion who has been working in Astoria for the summer is home again and will attend Dallas high school the coming school year.

WACONDA NEWS (Capital Journal Special Service) Wacanda, Ore., Sept. 7.--Miss Lovorne Palmer returned from Salem, Wednesday after having her tonsils removed, and is getting along nicely.

A few Wacondaites have gone to Whelan Brothers prune orchard and are helping to harvest the crop. Among them are Miles Russell, Carlton and Glenn Savage. The Simons family are also picking in that vicinity.

Miss Violet Pelton was a Salem visitor on Thursday.

Thrashing is about over in this community.

People are still busy picking evergreen blackberries, and other kinds of fruit. Wacanda is also quite a shipping center for peaches, and many are being sent from here now.

Miss Alice Palmer visited at the home of her parents one day this week.

Mrs. J. C. Savage who has been at the hospital for the past three weeks, is very much improved and expects to be home in a few days.

Henry Lamb was drafted into the army and left Thursday for Camp Lewis. Walter Nusom has returned from there, being rejected on account of physical disability.

Mrs. Eugene Manning has been in Salem a few days, having her tonsils removed. She returned to her home today.

New Books Received At The Public Library

"Covered with mud and glory"; a machine gun company in action, told by Georges LeFond, with splendid tribute to the soldiers of France.

"Winged warfare" experiences in the air as related by the British ace, Major W. A. Bishop. Major Bishop is now on leave, and reported in Vancouver this week.

"Germany at bay"; an interesting and well thought out discussion by Haldane MacFall. It explains the tactics of the allies, by which the Germans were suffering real defeat in apparent victory. It proves the disaster of the world of accepting any unripe peace offers which Germany will advance.

"Productive swine husbandry" one of the useful farm manuals put out by Lippincott, written by C. E. Day. It is comprehensive and well-recommended.

"Sheep farming in North America"; a thorough discussion of the different breeds of sheep, their management and care, and the diseases to which they are subject, by J. A. Craig.

"Amazing interlude" a new novel by Mary Roberts Rinehart, in which an American girl goes to the war zone for Canteen work.
