NEW SOCIAL LECTURE LEAGUE

"It reads like a Story Book," is the way one of America's most happily married society leaders opened the subject of her remarks on Hair Culture, at the first annual lecture of her newly inaugurated course on "Beauty Topics at her home on the Hudson just outside of New York City."

"I have been a great outdoor enthusiast all my life and I make it a rule to do without my hat whenever possible, both in the daytime as well as evening. Jack, my husband, some years ago remarked that I would have to probably give up my running about bareheaded now that I was getting a bit gray. But I am not to be outdone simply by a few or many gray hairs. I went right to the most reliable authority I could get on the subject. The result was I avoided putting a lot of harmful dyes on my hair and I began using a Hair Color Restorer called Q-Ban and in no time Jack had to confess he didn't understand how my hair got so beautiful. Was I dressing it different, or what?"

"You may rest assured I haven't told him anything about it, although he very often remarks my hair certainly does look fine. Q-Ban is our little secret."

ALLIED COUNTRIES SOLIDLY AGAINST PEACE CONFERENCE

Austria Germany's Fiddle And The Kaiser Does The Playing.

By John De Gandt
(United Press staff correspondent.)
Paris, Sept. 18.—An official of the ministry of foreign affairs, interviewed by the United Press today, declared the Austrian note was not unexpected, in consequence of the speeches of Von Solf and Von Payer and the Czerinin interview.

"Austria has been Germany's fiddle since the Spa conference, when the question of initiative was agreed upon between the two kaisers," he said.

"The recent meetings of Austrian and German statesmen and the presence of Austrian troops on the west front are also conclusive evidence.

"The first is the home viewpoint. They still want to make believe they are not responsible for continuation of the war. The second is the exterior viewpoint. They are trying to influence allied radicals and socialists and even officials.

"Although aiming at the contrary, Germany's attempt will more than ever fail to produce among the allies any idea of a separate peace."

NO PEACE CONFERENCE

By Arthur E. Mann
(United Press staff correspondent.)
London, Sept. 18.—There will be no peace conference in the ordinary, historic sense of the term—much less the kind of a conference proposed in the Austro-Hungarian note.

The United Press learned today that this is substantially the allied attitude toward the communication from Vienna. The major details of the allies' peace terms have already been formulated. Most of them have been stated. The more intricate and detailed questions, particularly with regard to Russia, the Balkans and Turkey, are now being studied in the allied foreign offices and their positions thereon are in the process of formation.

When the central forces yield to military and naval pressure and show reason to make a general conference worth while, the allied and American delegates will consider the Teutonic plans.

Italy Against It

Rome, Sept. 18.—The Corriere del Social issued a warning in connection with the Austrian proposal for peace discussions.

"It is necessary to offer resistance to the Austrian proposal because it is aimed at embroiling the belligerents in a decisive period," said the newspaper.

The Messaggero said: "The first condition of any discussion should be the general powers' acceptance of the independence for every nation."

Northcliffe's Opinion

London, Sept. 18.—President Wilson speaks for the allies," declared Lord Northcliffe, writing in the Evening News relative to the American reply to the Austrian peace proposal.

"The only question here is how the refusal should be couched. A small, timid minority fears a flat rejection will drive Austria back into the arms of Germany, but the fact is Austria has never left them."

London Papers' Stand

London, Sept. 18.—Without exception London's morning newspapers place emphasis on the allies' refusal to accept Austria's peace proposals as voiced by Foreign Secretary Balfour when he declared there would be no peace on such a foundation. Even the Daily News, which had urged consideration of the invitation of "unbiased peace" discussions, declared Balfour's attitude to be reasonable.

To Reply To-gather

London, Sept. 18.—The allies probably will make a concerted reply, refusing the Austrian proposal along the lines of President Wilson's note, it was learned from reliable sources here.

Weakens German Morale

With the American Armies in France Sept. 18.—The most significant thing about the Austrian proposal is the effect on the morale of the German soldier, who must carry on the war regardless.

It has been shown throughout the summer, and the American offensive has doubly emphasized the fact, that the boche morale has reached a stage where when he is hit hard he prefers surrender to fighting.

American in the Ludwigan region encountered Prussians of the highest morale but the Germans completely broke down in the St. Mihiel battle the boche morale crumbled completely, undressed, surrendering without a semblance of resistance.

With the Canadians

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 18.—The following Americans are mentioned in the latest casualty lists:

Killed in action: K. S. Kemp, San Diego, Cal.

Wounded: T. L. Kemp, San Diego, Cal.; L. G. Cline, St. Bernard, Cal.; W. G. Gerrie, Los Angeles; E. L. Crook, ant, Spokane, Wash.; R. H. Eaton, Chula Vista, Cal.; J. R. Lee, Portland, Or.; L. A. McIntyre, San Francisco; J. G. Denam, Portland, Or.; A. Drummond, Pasadena, Cal.; V. M. Campbell, Eureka, Cal.

Gassed: D. A. Stewart, Los Angeles.

Died of Wounds: J. Thistle, Lomita, Cal.

Ill: L. E. Perkins, Franzer, Idaho.

The rain has put the kibosh on the forest fires again and probably for the last time this season.

MAN BURIED ALIVE FOR THREE HOURS

Attributes Poor Health to Horrible Occurrence—Tells Of Experience.

Only once in a great while do we hear of some one being buried alive, and P. B. Slominski, of 508 East 26th street, Tacoma, Washington is one of a very limited number who have ever undergone this terrible experience and lived to tell the story. Mr. Slominski attributes his long period of suffering and ill health, from which he says he was never able to find relief until he began the use of Tanlac, to this tragic occurrence. But, we will let him tell his own story, which is as follows:

"Being buried alive is a horrible experience, but that is what happened to me in a mine explosion ten years ago. We were pinned in for three hours, before the rescuers could get to us, with hardly enough air to keep soul and body together. I was the luckiest man of the lot, as two of the men had their ears blown off, and one poor fellow had his eyes blown out. I was unconscious for five days after they got me home, and I have never gotten over the effects of it till now.

"I think my stomach must have been poisoned by the fire damp, as it has been in a very bad condition ever since. My food would not digest properly, but would ferment and cause gas to form which gave me a great deal of pain. I had a pain in my back all the time, and suffered with headaches and dizzy spells. I was very nervous, and when I did manage to get off to sleep the slightest noise would wake me. I made special request of my sons to make no noise on coming in at night as I wanted to try to get a little sleep. My appetite was very poor, and I got so weak I could hardly walk. I didn't seem to have one bit of strength.

"Tanlac is the only thing I have ever been able to get to help me, and it certainly has done me a world of good. My appetite is fine, and my stomach is in good condition, and I can eat anything without suffering a bit from gas and indigestion. My boys can make all the noise they please now, it don't bother me at all, and I can sleep thru anything. The pain is gone out of my back, my head don't ache any more, and I sent word to the Tanlac man the other day that I had strengthened up until I could run and jump a fence as good as I ever could. I come home after a hard day's work, and after a few minutes rest feel fine and ready to go anywhere. I have gained several pounds and feel better than I have in years, and it's all due to Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Hubbard by Hubbard Drug Co., in Mt. Angel by Ben Good, in Gervais by John Kelly, in Turner by H. P. Cornelius, in Woodburn by Lyman H. Shorey, in Salem by Dr. S. C. Stone, in Silverton by Geo. A. Steinhilber, in Gates by Mrs. J. P. McCurdy, and in Stayton by C. A. Beauchamp, in Aurora by Aurora Drug Store. (Adv.)

Austrian Army Is Still Strong Force Says Italian King

Paris, Sept. 18.—King Victor Emmanuel of Italy in an interview with a correspondent of the Matin, declared that while the civilian population of Austro-Hungary may be suffering, its army is still "a very strong force."

"It cannot be said that the front and rear have the same solidarity in Austro-Hungary as in our own united democratic nations," the king is quoted as saying. "There is a real barrier between the front and the country which the soldiers do not know about. How can they be expected to share in the political passions of the emperor?"

"If Austria suffers hunger, her troops are well fed. The country may be short of leather, but the troops have good boots, while their armament is being constantly improved. The Austrian army is still a very strong force."

"We appreciate that the Czechs are fighting against the present organization of the Austro-Hungarian monarchy especially since Italy was not content with merely recognizing them as belligerents but made an agreement with them.

"Italy has given her children without count, her women, old men and children are working in the fields, even mending roads. The 1920 class has been in the line for months. We have mobilized our effectiveness without restriction."

4,800,000 Americans in France By July Next

Washington, Sept. 18.—Allowing for wastage and rejections, the American army in France by July next, will number 4,800,000, members of the house appropriations committee today declared they were told by General March.

To carry out this program, March was quoted as having said it will be necessary to spend the whole 1918-19 army appropriation, including the $7,000,000 deficiency estimates submitted yesterday.

BONDS UNTAXED

Washington, Sept. 18.—The senate today passed the bill exempting liberty bonds from income surtaxes and excess profits taxes. The house has already passed the measure, which is designed to help the sale of the fourth liberty loan bonds.

REMINGTON UMC

.22 Caliber Rifles and Cartridges for Shooting Right

"FIRST get the right rifle and ammunition—then shoot right," says the old sportsman. He loves shooting, will not tolerate "putting" around at tin cans, discing "range shooting" competitions that are not regular, and his advice rings true.

Remington UMC .22 Rifles are made in nine different models, from single shot to auto-loading repeater. Every one of them is made to shoot right with Remington UMC .22 Cartridges—some models are the favorites for shooting to win the Marksmen, Sharpshooter and Expert Rifleman U. S. Government decorations awarded to civilian and junior marksmen by the National Rifle Association at Washington.

100 Survivors From Torpedoed Steamer

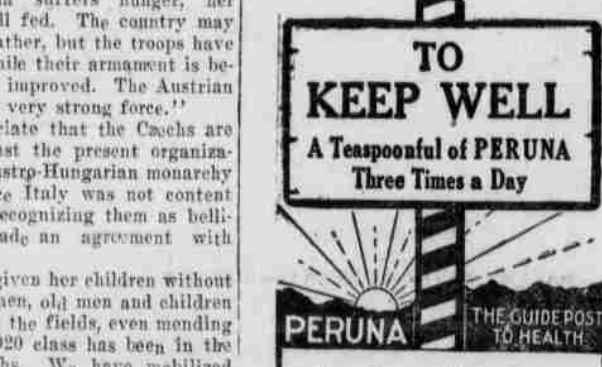

An Irish Port, Sept. 18.—One hundred survivors of the torpedoed American steamer Dora have arrived here aboard an American store ship.

The Dora was a steel screw steamship of 7037 tons, built in 1903 in Italy. She was one of the shipping board's fleet.

FOOD RIOTS IN AMSTERDAM

Amsterdam, Sept. 18.—Food riots broke out here Monday night and Tuesday in various parts of the city. Shops were pillaged. The police and infantry and cavalry detachments dispersed the mob. Four persons were injured.

TO KEEP WELL
A Teaspoonful of PERUNA Three Times a Day

PERUNA THE GUIDE POST TO HEALTH

Has Never Been Down Sick Since Taking PERUNA

Read this letter from Mr. Robt. Minnick, Grass Range, Montana.

"In 1900 I was out in Kansas running a threshing engine and the threshing crew had to sleep out of doors. One of the crew brought a Peruna Altmanne to the engine one day and I was feeling very ill from sleeping out. I decided to give Peruna a trial and sent for a bottle of Peruna and a box of Peruna Tablets, which straightened me out in a hurry.

"I have never been down sick since that time. I do not take any other medicine except Peruna. I always keep it on hand. If I get my feet wet, get a cold, feel chilly, or a little bad, I always take Peruna. People should not wait until they are down sick and then take it, but should keep it on hand like I do and when they feel bad, they should use it."

Recommended for Catarrhal inflammation of every description.
