AUSTRIA MAY DANGLE AUTONOMY AS BAIT FOR CZECHO-SLOVAKS

Germany Will Say Nothing While Austria Does "The Feeling Out." Arthur Brisbane Admits He Was Backed By New Jersey German Concern

Washington, Sept. 19.—A. Mitchell Palmer, the federal custodian of alien property, addressing the Pennsylvania state democratic committee at Harrisburg, Pa., last Saturday, declared that he had gathered proof that German brewers in the United States in association with the United States Brewers' association, furnished several hundred thousand dollars to buy a newspaper in one of the chief cities of the nation.

Instead, it is believed, Austria must do the feeling out with peace offers that have little hope of even serious consideration. Meanwhile, the Germans are spreading propaganda to create a rift in allied unity. They are insinuating that America is trying to prolong the war so as to leave Europe bankrupt hoping to gain economic advantage therefrom.

Entente diplomats are confident Germany is fast approaching desperation. But military men caution against hopes of a speedy end. Two year's fighting may be necessary, they say. But all are agreed that Germany sees the handwriting on the wall and that she is making desperate efforts to elude the fate that is pursuing her.

about the same as that of last year although several families have moved from the city during the summer a number of new ones have moved in and the enrollment on the first day is expected to be as large as usual.

Mrs. J. C. Uglow and children have returned from a short visit with relatives and friends in McMinville. J. H. Cagan, a prominent Perrydale resident was a Dallas business visitor Tuesday afternoon.

C. B. Sundberg, manager of the Dallas Telephone company was a Capital City business visitor the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Tracey were visitors in Salem, Monday.

C. C. Coad of Butte, Montana, is in the city a guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed F. Coad. Miss Alice Cobb, a teacher in the Suver schools was a Dallas visitor with relatives the first of the week.

POLICE NEWS.

Two arrests were made yesterday of men who failed to carry red lights on the rear of their automobiles, at a cost of $5 each. The contributors were William Ellis and Otto W. Hoffes.

G. A. McKay of Turner, who is now working with the Oregon state training school for boys, reported the theft of his Ford last night on Court street. It is a 1912 model, but as Fords are now becoming scarce, Mr. McKay is quite anxious to secure the return of his property.

Miss Bessie Schrank was driving an automobile a little too fast the other evening about 5 o'clock, according to the motorcycle cop. Miss Bessie is of the opinion that she was going along at a fair rate of speed, and then there might be a chance that the speed cop got the wrong automobile number. Hence when asked to plead this morning as to guilty or not guilty, she took the usual 24 hours to think it over.

is of the very best. The exhibits by the school children of the county far outclasses anything of its kind ever held at any of the previous fairs and shows that the teachers are doing their utmost to properly instruct the children in the various studies. One of the most interesting booths in the big pavilion at the fair is the Food Administration Exhibit. This booth is in charge of Miss Edna Mills, Polk county home demonstrator agent who explains the uses of the various substitutes as well as wider uses of dairy products and home preserved foods. No woman attending the fair should fail to call at the booth and obtain information on how to use substitutes to a good advantage.

Thursday, the last day of the fair all children will be admitted free. On this day the Industrial clubs composed of school children from every section of the county will hold away and pig judging contests and canning tests will be one of the big features during the afternoon. Achievement badges will be awarded as prizes in the contests. The amusement attractions at the fair this year are furnished by the Browning Amusement company and consists of the usual carnival attractions. Music is furnished by the Philip Pelz orchestra with Mrs. Pelz as vocal soloist.

Thursday is also Patriotic Day and all old soldiers, their wives and soldiers and sailors now on leave in the city are invited guests. Special patriotic music will be one of the big features of the day. All premiums awarded this year will be in Thrift Stamps unless otherwise requested. Immediately after the closing of the fair exhibits will be prepared for shipment to the state fair at Salem next week. Mrs. Braden will superintend the installation of the exhibit at the Capital City.

New Officers Named The resignation of Mrs. Winnie Braden as the number of officers held by the Commercial club and Polk County Fair Association has caused a number of vacancies and several of these have been chosen during the past few days. In the Council of National Defense for Polk county Mrs. Oscar Hayter has been named as county chairman and Miss Edna Mills as secretary and field director. Circuit Judge Harry H. Belt has been selected as secretary of the Council of Defense.

Attorney General To Investigate Scandal Over Paroles At Prison Attorney General Brown is going to investigate the parole scandal at the state penitentiary, but not until after he receives written assurance from Governor Withycombe that the convicts may talk freely to him without being in the least danger of being discriminated against by their keepers because of information which they may divulge.

Polk County's Annual Fair Is On This Week (Capital Journal Special Service) Dallas, Or., Sept. 19.—The seventh annual Polk County fair opened in Dallas yesterday with one of the biggest first days' attendances of any previous year. The exhibits this year are as large if not larger than those of previous years and the splendid collection of grains, grasses and other agricultural products shows that the county is still in the lead when it comes to growing things on the farms. The livestock exhibition is not as large this year as in times gone by but what stock is on exhibition
