Dean George H. Alden of Willamette university is home from a business trip of seven weeks in the interest of the university. He stopped at about 50 towns along the upper Columbia as far as Paseo and Walla Walla, and in the Palouse country. He also visited Yakima, Ellensburg, Wenatchee and Seattle. He reports that he found great interest in the students' army training corps everywhere and many young men spoke favorably of attending Willamette. Whitworth college at Spokane has been disbanded and a number of its students will come to Willamette.

Permits issued by County food administrator C. M. Lockwood are running strong this week. The number for the

Stores Will Close At 7 O'Clock This Evening On Account of Parade

During the Women's Patriotic Service parade this evening, beginning at 7 o'clock, all stores will close.

Already more than 200 women have signified their intentions of marching in the parade, and also a large number of children whose fathers are in the service.

Marchers will form at the court house square. The line of march is on Court street to Commercial, thence to State street and thence to Willson park.

The Cherrian band will lead the march and members of Oregon Guard companies E, F and G will stand as an honor guard.

Women whose husbands or brothers or fathers are in the service are to carry a service flag. All others are to carry the national emblem. All women whether they have relatives in the service or not, are asked to join in the parade. It begins promptly at 7 o'clock.

There will be a short program at Willson park with an address by George W. Caldwell of Portland.

Four days past are as follows: Monday, 164; Tuesday, 165; Wednesday, 186 and Thursday, 153.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Lindsey of 20th and Center streets is 100 per cent patriotic. Including the fourth loan, the family bought 17 bonds and now has three boys in the service.

Members of Company G, Oregon guard are ordered to report at the armory promptly at 7 o'clock. Captain Dyer expects every man on duty this evening to act as honor guards during the women's patriotic service parade.

The seed store of D. A. White & Sons was entered last evening and eight sacks of clover seed and several seamless sacks stolen. The thieves gained entrance by raising a window in the basement. They came properly prepared to carry away what they called for as it seems they traveled in an auto with Goodrich tires on the front wheels.

After serving 18 days as speed cop, W. D. Allbright resigned today and was succeeded by W. A. Chittick. Mr. Allbright feels he did some good work for the city but the salary wasn't quite attractive enough. He is now driving a taxi.

Chief J. A. Poland of the police department suffered a sprained ankle last evening while investigating the robbery of the D. A. White & Son store on State street.

Come on with your rattlesnake stories. Here's the first. O. F. Fry says that in the Eola hills four miles west of Salem a rattlesnake was killed that measured 38 inches and had five rattles and a button. To prove his story, he brought the snake to Salem.

The science hall of Willamette university is undergoing several repairs in anticipation of the large number of students who will enroll with the students' army training corps. The basement is being cemented this week and the other parts of the building prepared for mess halls and kitchen. No word has officially been received as to what the war department will do regarding barracks.

About one year ago the loyalty of every household was judged by the food administration card prominently displayed in a window facing the street. It has been suggested that the same will apply to a household as to whether it is showing one of the honor emblem fourth liberty loan cards. Every house in which there is some one who has subscribed for a fourth liberty loan bond is entitled to display one of these window cards. A house in which no one has subscribed will soon stand out rather prominent and likely to attract attention.

For the benefit of solicitors for Liberty loans, it may be said that where no money is paid, the subscriptions cannot be turned in on total amounts. Such subscriptions are merely handed to the bank and held for payments later. The only subscriptions that count are those on which a payment is made.

Miss Cordelia Marvin has been appointed to superintend the travelling library for the soldiers on the Mexican border. She is now at Yuma, Arizona and will leave in a few days for the Mexican border in Texas. In order to attend to this work, she is taking all of her regular annual vacation on the border and may extend it a few weeks.

LARVON—At the Salem hospital, Sept. 20, 1918, Charles Larvon, at the age of 36 years.

While working for the Silver Falls Lumber company last Thursday he fell under a moving engine and suffered an injury of the left leg. He was at once brought to Salem where it was found necessary to amputate the leg. He did not survive the operation.

A brother, A. Larvon, is in the city and will accompany the body to Portland where burial will take place Monday.

MOORE—In the city Sept. 19, 1918, William D. Moore at the age of 60 years.

His son from Corvallis is in the city and will accompany the body to Rosburg for burial.

REYNOLDS—At the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Reynolds, 960 Broadway, Saturday morning Sept. 21, 1918, Willis M. Reynolds, at the age of 26 years.

Besides his parents he is survived by three sisters and one brother: Mrs. Bert Dennis, formerly of Salem but now of Portland, Mrs. May Nichols of Portland, Mrs. Hallis Corwin of Lebanon and Dr. C. W. Reynolds of Berkeley, Cal.

The funeral services will be held at the chapel of Webb & Clough Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock and will be conducted by the Rev. A. F. Lacey of the Jason Lee Memorial church. Burial will be in the Beuna Vista cemetery. Mr. Reynolds had been in failing health for the past two years.

Tom C. Wood, who is attached to the battleship Connecticut, is home for a few days' vacation. He enlisted in the service May 17, 1917 and for the past year has been seeing service on the Connecticut in Atlantic waters. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Wood, 745 North Church street.

Mrs. E. E. Fisher announced at the Red Cross meeting that practically all auxiliaries in both counties had re-organized and were ready for the fall and winter campaign. Some time ago the Mt. Angel auxiliary announced that it would not re-organize, but it is understood this action has been reconsidered.
