BARON BURIAN SAYS PEACE PROPAGANDA IS HURTING ALLIES

Intimates Prompt Response Was Caused By Fear Of His Offer's Effect.

Amsterdam, Sept. 24.—Baron Burian, Austrian foreign minister in a statement to Berlin news agency, declared he was not surprised at the allies' reception of the Austrian proposal, but that nothing had been neglected to bring peace nearer.

clearly, which is occasionally necessary," the Baron said.

"The rapidity with which President Wilson replied is remarkable. He clearly wanted to anticipate the other members. He always wanted to be the arbiter of the world. Even his neutrality was an assumed role, and he is now striving to keep up the role. I do not say he is insincere, but there are cases in American history in which America herself violates the fourteen points he formulates.

"Proof that the entente fears the effects of the proposal on the pacifists is shown by the speed with which Premier Clemenceau and Secretary Balfour spoke. It would serve no purpose to reply to their speeches.

"There was complete agreement between Germany and Austria-Hungary in regard to the dispatch of the note.

"The Hindenburg line will hold, but we must neglect nothing that will bring peace nearer."

A fellow, after answering all the questions on his questionnaire, has told just about everything he knows.

Palestine front—British troops have captured Acre and Haifa, on the Mediterranean coast northeast of Nazareth representing a total advance of 75 miles. They have also occupied Es Salt, ten miles east of the Jordan and are approaching Amman, on the Hedjaz railway. The number of prisoners is expected to exceed the 25,000 already announced.

Balkan front—The allies are advancing on a front of nearly 100 miles between Monastir and the Lake Doiran region. They have progressed about 30 miles north of the Serbian border, occupying the heights dominating the junction of the Vardar and Cerna rivers. They are within five miles of Philip. British troops have captured the town of Doiran.

Picardy front—British and German troops are still struggling for possession of the Hindenburg line between Cambrai and St. Quentin. The British made some progress east of Vermand and north of Moeuvres. They repulsed a German attack south of Gavrelle.

Flanders front—The British regained a portion of their old line southeast of Voormezele. A hostile raid was repulsed.

Metz front—Artillery bombardment of the rear areas of both armies continues. The Americans made a successful raid, taking some prisoners.

Oise-Aisne front—Artillery duels were fought last night.

Champagne front—French troops took forty prisoners in surprise attacks.

Secretary of State Lansing, who was fearful of Poole's safety. This fear was enhanced by rumor that the bolshevik general because it sheltered British and French refugees. Subsequent advices have tended to disprove this, but Poole's life was thought to be in danger anyway because of the bloodshed in Moscow.

LONE BANDIT GETS BIG HAUL FROM TRAIN

Search By Officials For Northern Highwayman So Far Proves Unavailing

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 24.—An all night search by police and deputy sheriffs of Snohomish and King counties have failed to turn up a single trace of the lone bandit who successfully held up Great Northern passenger train 355, two miles south of Mukilton, between Seattle and Everett, at 8:40 o'clock last night. Registered mail valued at $4000 was stolen. Bloodhounds attached to the sheriff's office, brought to the scene were placed on a trail at the point where the bandit was seen to enter the woods but failed to develop the scent. It is the opinion of Sheriff John Stringer that the robber may be heading in the direction of Snohomish and details of officers have been sent to intercept him. Officers have been detailed to patrol the water front between Seattle and Everett, and guard the roads and highways in a wide radius of the vicinity of the holdup.

The man who performed the daring and masterly holdup is stated by the engine crew to be not more than 25 years of age and is believed to be a southerner, speaking with a soft accent and drawl. His face was covered with lamp black or a similar substance, with which he menaced the engine crew and compelled the entire train of passengers to cower in their seats.

At the point of a gun he ordered engine and mail car uncoupled, and after packing registered mail in a suitcase, had the engine driven to a lonely spot two miles beyond the point where he stopped the train. There he dropped off and disappeared in the woods.
