Woman's Suffrage Defeat Is Certain

Washington, Sept. 28.—Defeat of woman suffrage, if the senate votes on it this session, was made certain today when Senator Benet, South Carolina, in his maiden speech came out against suffrage. Benet's stand astounded suffragists for all along he had been counted on as one of the thirty-one democrats who would support the resolution. As Benet delivered his speech suffragists were notified Senator Martin, Kentucky, appointed to succeed Senator James, also is wavering. The suffragists leaders in the senate, admitting defeat, expected word from Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, head of the suffrage organization to drop the whole question for the time being rather than submit it to a vote and defeat.
