

The Hun—His Mark!

There is a plain fact that every American business man must face. This war is not a dollar war. It is a war for justice, for truth, for right, and for human decency. Its financial aspects are minor aspects when measured against terms of human suffering and bloodshed.

But still the question must be asked and must be answered by American men: "Shall the German mark conquer the American dollar?"

What the Dollar Stands For

The American dollar stands for a business world of square dealing, of equal opportunity to all people, of free commercial intercourse all over the world.

You know what the German mark stands for—a commercial system as an active instrument of foul plotting, espionage, and Prussian propaganda.

Enlist Your Dollars

Every American dollar must be enlisted in the great army that is now being mobilized against the Potsdam autocracy—the great army of the Fourth Liberty Loan.

Enlist your dollars to win a world in which fair dealing and an equal opportunity for all shall be the guiding principles.

Buy all the Liberty Bonds you can. Every bond you buy safeguards your home, your business—all you possess, and all you hope to have.

If the Hun Wins

If the Hun wins this war what would your American dollar be worth? What would your property be worth?

You know what became of the Confederate money during our Civil war. You could buy a wagon load of Confederate dollars for 10 cents. Well this would also be the case if the Huns should win.

Our Last Dollar

We will lend the government our last dollar if need be, before we will let that blot fall upon this free and glorious land of ours.

Don't wait to be asked, but go to the Liberty Loan Headquarters and subscribe your limit to the Fourth Liberty Loan.

"In the course of fighting in which ascendancy was maintained by the French, we brought down 25 hostile machines and set fire to two captive balloons. Our bombarding squadrons dropped 26 tons of projectiles on enemy convoys."

Council Of Defense Suspends Its Order Closing All Stores

The resolution of the State Council of Defense closing all mercantile stores on Sunday and week days at 6 o'clock in the evening is meeting with a most vigorous protest in Salem. Under present conditions especially in Salem it is felt that there is no need of such a drastic law. Fred W. Stouloff, chairman of the Marion county Council of Defense, has received no notice of the resolution passed by the Portland men who wish to close all the stores in that city under the plea that manpower will be conserved.

According to the latest report from Portland, W. F. Woodward, chairman of the State Council of Defense, has agreed that the ruling shall be temporarily suspended until October 7. Hence stores in Salem may continue their usual hours of business until some action is taken, especially since there has been forwarded so strong a protest. W. F. Woodward is quoted as saying: "The act rests on no law whatever. You can disregard it or obey it as you will." However, he was emphatic in saying that the State Council of Defense would do all it could to bring its ruling into effect.

Will Issue Emergency Certificates To Teach To Supply Deficiency

The war is making such inroads upon the available supply of high school teachers that J. A. Churchill, superintendent of public instruction, has announced that next June he will issue emergency war certificates to applicants who do not come up to requirements heretofore prescribed for teachers in standard high schools.

This announcement was made in a letter written by Superintendent Churchill to H. D. Sheldon of the University of Oregon.

"Owing to scarcity of teachers this year," says Mr. Churchill, "I am led to believe that next year it will be almost impossible to secure teachers for the high schools of the state."

He then outlines the requirements for applicants for emergency war certificates. One of these requirements is that the applicant must have had at least two years of college work, and the applicant must have the recommendation of the head of the department of education in the school he has attended.

Whether the one-year emergency certificates shall be renewed, after the applicant has taught one year, will depend on whether the war continues and the urgency of the high schools for teachers, points out Mr. Churchill.

Albert Ward Belongs To Regiment Of Six Footers

Mrs. M. Ward, of 2378 Maple Ave., Salem, is in receipt of a letter from Albert Ward now stationed at Camp Meade. He tells of the hard drill given the boys by officers who have served in France and of the cold weather along the Atlantic coast.

Mr. Ward is one of the men who happen to be assigned to the famous 63rd regiment in which all are six footers. They went to Philadelphia to take part in a parade.

Military life is pretty strict at Camp Meade, he writes, as no man is permitted to leave camp without a pass and a pass is pretty hard to get.

estate of John W. Meredith presented his petition for a final settlement and discharge as administrator. The county court set October 4 as the date for the final hearing. The estate is valued at $12,796.60, and there are two heirs, Jeannette Lockhart and Frank Meredith.

W. J. Culver, Mark S. Skiff and J. H. Dunlap were appointed today by the county court as appraisers of the estate of Lai Yee Sun, deceased.

Walter Reynolds, administrator of the estate of Silas Reynolds, reported to the county court the sale of lots 5, 6, 12 and 13 of Sunnyside Fruit farms No. 8 to E. B. Carrier for a consideration of $8,250.00.

Bread will hereafter be 10c for a one pound and 15 cents for a one and one half pound loaf. This is according to the ruling of the federal food administration and becomes effective October 1. These figures are based on the estimate that the one-pound loaf will cost the dealer, 8 1/2c and the 1 1/2 pound loaf 12 1/2c. Thus, the grocer is entitled to 1 1/2c profit on a 1 pound loaf and 2 1/2c on the larger size.

WHAT MIGHT HAPPEN

A number of our exchanges have been speculating on what would happen if the government took over the newspapers. Well, the first thing the subscription price would be raised about 50 per cent and the sheriff would be kept busy chasing delinquents. The next step would be to raise wages about 25 per cent, and editors, who hadn't had a cent in six months they could call their own, would be placed on a salary. The merchants who fail to get in their ad copy until press day would be hauled up before the council of defense and our lists work and quit his job in a week would be sent to Leavenworth for about ten years as a deserter. It looks like a good proposition and we're for it.—The Fairbury (Neb.) News.
