SOCIETY

By CAROL S. DIBBLE.

SOcial activity in school circles was delightfully resumed Saturday afternoon at one of the most charming affairs of the early season, when Miss Mabel Robertson presided at a most artistically appointed tea, given at her residence on Center street to the teachers of the city, in honor of the new teachers of Salem. A very effective decorative scheme was obtained by an abundant use of the brilliant hued autumn foliage, in its two predominant shades of deep red and orange. The red color-note was emphasized in the living room, where the scarlet tones of the massive autumn leaves were vividly enhanced by lights softly shaded in red. The dining room was done in orange, candle shades of the same shade contributing a glowing touch of color to the table appointments. A handsome centerpiece decked the table consisting of a large basket of fruit, combined with a simple arrangement of the gorgeous autumn foliage.

Mrs. John Todd and Mrs. T. B. Sheldon poured during the early tea hours, while Mrs. John H. McNary and Mrs. W. H. Burghard, Jr., presided at the samovars during the latter part of the afternoon.

Assisting in the dining room were Miss Beatrice Hale, Miss Marie Churchhill, Miss Helena Willett, Miss May Rauch, Miss Henrietta Hoyster, Miss May Lick, Miss Christabelle Jewett, Miss Edith Sterling, Miss Margaret Cosper and Miss Bertha Byrd assisted about the rooms.

Mrs. George E. Schuneman has been entertaining her brother, Bernard J. McCarthy, of Camp Lewis over the week end. Mr. McCarthy enlisted in the service at Council Bluffs, Iowa, and has but recently been transferred from Camp Taylor, Iowa, to Camp Lewis. During his stay he was also the guest of his brother, F. V. McCarthy and family. Mr. and Mrs. Schuneman accompanied him as far as Portland on his return to Camp Lewis yesterday.

Miss Nell Sykes left this morning for Bremerton, Washington, where she will engage in war work as manager of the hostess house at the Bremerton Navy yards. Miss Sykes expects to be called to service overseas, in the near future having successfully passed the Red Cross examinations for dietitian. Meantime she has been sent to Bremerton to take charge of the hostess house until she receives her orders to go to France.

Miss Sykes is well qualified to fill the position of dietitian, having had a large and varied experience in that line of work. She is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college and for the last three years has been head of the Home Economics department in the Salem high school. At one time and another she has successfully conducted cafeteria dinners for various patriotic causes, as the need arose. She was also actively connected with the girls honor guard in Salem at the time of its organization a few years ago.

Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson received a letter today from her son, Lt. Carl Gabrielson, who recently sailed from San Francisco with the twenty seventh infantry for Siberia, that he had arrived safely and was temporarily stationed at Vladivostok, the principal port of Siberia. Lieutenant Gabrielson, in common with the rest of the men now entering upon service in Siberia, deems it to be considerable of a privilege to have a part in the making of history in a country as new and so full of varied possibilities as Siberia now is. It takes less than a month for letters from there to reach the United States, the one received by Mrs. Gabrielson this morning having been only eighteen days on the way, which fact naturally tends to lessen the idea of extreme distance between this country and Siberia. Lieutenant Gabrielson was stationed at Camp Fremont during the early spring and summer.

Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding returned last night from Newberg, where she has been visiting her son, H. B. Spaulding, and family for the past week.

Charming hospitality was shared by a few friends of Miss Lillian Root, who were bidden informally to tea last evening at the attractive country home of the hostess south of Salem. Miss Root frequently entertains a coterie of guests in this manner, the tea table last night being circled by Miss Margaret Cosper, Miss Florence Cleveland, Miss Robinson and Miss Carol Dibble.

Mrs. Bert Jones and small son, Herbert, of Joseph, Oregon, returned home yesterday after a visit in Salem as the guests of the R. L. Jones, 417 North Commercial street. Miss Alta Jones accompanied the visitors home for a month's stay.

Salem may well lay proud claim to such a gifted and popular musician as Miss Ada Miller, who appeared at the opening recital of the season of the McDowell club last Tuesday in Portland. In yesterday's Oregonian, Joseph McQueen, musical editor, says in speaking of the concert:

"Miss Miller is an accomplished singer who has appeared professionally in music in the east, and she sings naturally, sweetly and easily."

"Miss Miller may be classed as a dramatic mezzo-soprano of high range, but every note of her sparkling voice has been carefully trained and is even and agreeable. She sings with fine taste and style, and stands before her audience—far away from the piano keys—and is always the cultivated concert singer when it is a pleasure to hear. Her songs were of different

Now Is the Time

To select your New Fall and Winter garments from our complete stock of

Suits, Coats, Dresses, Waists

The assortment is large. We planned it to meet every requirement of women who demand up-to-the-minute styles combined with undeniable quality—who seek service rather than displays. As such, ours is a thoroughly representative stock, from which no worthy style-thought has been omitted.

We insisted on cloth-quality and erected exceptional workmanship. Styles were abundant—but real old fashioned values were scarce. Fortunately makers with whom we have dealt for years were abundantly able to meet all our demands. These makers had provided by advance orders for nearly adequate supplies for this season. With goods in stock they were able to undersell many of their rivals. Thus it happens that many prices are quite close to the old values which you must have thought were gone forever.

schools, the Sibella, Saint Sacas, Delebes, and Mac Fadyen numbers being exceptionally notable for stellar excellence. She was cordially welcomed and had to respond to extra numbers.

Mr. Doone's piano accompaniments were a treat.

Miss Miller will be director of the choir at the Salem Presbyterian church this winter and will also have her regular classes in vocal at her residence studio, 660 North High street.

Mrs. A. L. Baker of Oak Point, Washington, is being entertained as the guest of her father, D. A. Harris of West Salem.

The Woman's Republican Study club is planning a special patriotic program for this evening, which will be open to all men and women who are interested. Ronald Glover and Mayor Walter Keyes will be the speakers of the evening. The meeting will be held at the Salem Bank of Commerce building, 128 South Liberty street, and will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Browning Machine Gun Proves Its Worth

Washington, Oct. 7.—The Browning machine gun, claimed by its admirers to be the greatest weapon of its type once, has won the praise of our French and British allies, according to Brigadier General Samuel McRoberts, just returned from a two months inspection trip abroad.

The gun has been the subject of much bitter congressional discussion and investigation. Certain factions have maintained that much delay was caused while waiting for the Browning machine gun to be manufactured in quantity. Admirers of the gun declare it was so much superior to any similar weapon that it was well worth waiting for.

General McRoberts says the British and French are so pleased with the gun that they have asked for all we may be able to supply them.

You Can't Rub It Away; Rheumatism is in the Blood

Liniments Will Never Cure. If you are afflicted with Rheumatism, why waste time with liniments, lotions and other local applications that never did cure Rheumatism, and never will?

Do not try to rub the pain away, for you will never succeed. Try the sensible plan of finding the cause of the pain, and go after that. Remove the cause, and there can be no pain. You will never be rid of Rheumatism until you cleanse your blood of the germs that cause the disease.

S. S. S. has never had an equal as a blood purifier and scores of sufferers say that it has cleansed their blood of Rheumatism, and removed all trace of the disease from their system.

Get a bottle of S. S. S. at your drug store, and get on the right treatment to-day. If you want special medical advice, you can obtain it free by addressing Medical Director, 23 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

SENATORS OPPOSED

terms," said Senator McCumber. "There is no word in them of reparation, yet Lloyd-George and Clemenceau have time and again insisted there must be reparation."

"The president has never said," replied Hitchcock, "that these are complete terms, or the only terms. For instance we have no right to dictate to the German people who her rulers shall be. But we have a right to say whether we'll enter into a contract with those rulers if they are the Hohenzollerns. I believe we should add to the peace terms, that we'll make no peace contract unless representatives of the German people are empowered to contract with us."

Senator Borah declared President Wilson in his speech of September 27th 1918, said that we cannot negotiate with the present rulers of Germany, "because they do not speak our language."

"Therefore the suggestion of Senator Hitchcock is already one of durable peace terms," said Borah.

Even the armchair strategists will admit that General Foch is doing a nice piece of work over there, and that he's getting the best kind of support from Yanks and others concerned.
