CENTRAL HOWELL

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Central Howell, Or., Oct. 7 .- About two weeks ago Mr. Plunkett of Portland

two weeks ago Mr. Plankett of Portland and Miss Lena Steffen were married at the home of the bride's narents Mr. and Mrs. Peter Steffen. A inrge concurse of relatives and friends were present to wish them happiness, contentment and prosperity through their matrimonial journey. Mr. Plankett is in the shipyards at Portland. The writer extends them the best wishes for a long and happy life.

Tuesday before the fair a car stopped before the Baggett's place of business and a lady got out and came in and grabbed J. W. by the hand and commenced to talk and laugh. At first he was astonished, then he recognized in his visitor an old Kansas friend and reciphor. His better half hearing the commotion rushed in to find the esuse and found a friend, of her girlhood days. Then, looking in the car Mr. Baggett discovered an old time business friend in the lady's husband, Mr. Charley Whitman, they having moved to Leba non, Oregon. Mrs. Whitman is superintendent of the hospital at Lebanon. The cause of the old friendship being renew ed was the sign board J. W. had put up this summer. Mr. and Mrs. Whitman were on their way to visit their daughter who lives between Central Howell.
