FIELD MARSHAL HAIG

Deep Wedge Driven
London, Oct. 9.—The combined attack of British, American and French forces between St. Quentin and Cambrai, already has driven a deep wedge into the German positions, menacing the enemy's hold in the Douai region to the north, as well as the Laon region, to the south.

Average progress of three miles in a front of more than 20 miles was reported in Field Marshal Haig's night communique, which stated that the fight was continuing. The villages of Brancourt, Premont, Beauregard, Serain, Malincourt, Villers-Outreaux, Lesdain, Esnes, Seranvillers, Nierngnes, Rouvoy and Fontaine-Uterto have been captured, with 100 prisoners.

Further to the north the British advanced on a front of about five miles from the Scarpe northward, occupying Neuville and Fresnes-Les-Montauban.

French and American troops advanced along the Arnes river, in the Champagne, carrying their lines nearly two miles north of St. Pierre. They also reached the outskirts of Lanoon, in the Argonne forest. Along the Suipe river the French repulsed several counter attacks.

German attacks against the Belgian position in the neighborhood of Nouors was broken up.

FORMING NEW LINE

By Frank J. Taylor
(United Press staff correspondent)
With the American First Army, Oct. 9.—The Germans are reported to be concentrating heavily behind Romagne which forms the center of the enemy front between the Meuse and the Argonne massif.

Their artillery is extremely dense there, and their machine guns are believed to average only a few yards apart. At the same time, a great movement of German artillery is reported under way toward the rear, indicating that this concentration may be preparation for a big rear guard action, covering a further withdrawal. Much of the artillery now going backward is being stationed in the vicinity of Grand Pre. This village guards the eastern entrance to the cut through the Argonne forest, along which the Montois-Apremont railway runs.

Artillery is active along the whole front. The Canal and Mota woods were drenched with drum fire all night. Brioules is still burning.

American "archies" shot down a German airplane and balloon yesterday.

Two Fokker battle planes attacked an American observation plane. Within five minutes both enemy machines had been shot down.

NO THRILLS FOR VOTERS IN THE CITY ELECTION

Big Issue Is That Of The Proposed Bonding City For All Improvements.

Voting for candidates for city offices in Salem on November 5th will be a commonplace affair and there will be no thrills, except possibly in wards three and seven where there are opposing candidates.

In regard to primary elections, the law is that where a candidate receives a majority of all votes cast, he is elected and other candidates in the contest cannot come before the voters at the final election.

Hence, for mayor, there will appear on the official ballot the name of C. E. Albin. He was officially elected at the primaries.

The same is true of Earl Race, candidate for city recorder, and C. O. Rice for city treasurer. They are already elected but their names of course will go on the ballot.

For chief of police the race is between Percy M. Varney and J. E. Wright. At the primaries three candidates were in the field and no one received a majority of all votes cast. Hence Mr. Wright and Mr. Varney who received the largest number of votes at the primaries, become the candidates at the November 5th election.

In ward 1, there is no contest for alderman. All that people living in that ward may do is to place a mark after the name of R. W. Simmeral and Fred J. Smith. Two aldermen are to be elected in each ward.

Ward 2 presents no contest. All that voters need do is to place the check mark in front of the names of D. Floyd L. Utter and H. H. Vandervort.

In ward 3, Otto J. Wilson was elected for the long term. For the short term there is a contest between J. S. Austin and B. E. Edwards.

Everything is lovely in ward 4. Paul V. Johnson was elected at the primaries for the long term and A. H. Moore for the short term.

In ward 5 it looked for a few days before the primaries that no patriot would offer to be candidate for alderman. However, business picked up and on the day of the election, resulted in the nomination of Edward Schunke and Merlin Harding. There is no contest.

Ward 6 will be represented in the council to take its seat next January by the two men who are now the ward's representatives, W. A. West and James McClelland. No contest.

Ward 7 presents something worth while to the voters. Ralph Thompson was elected at the primaries and is safe. But there was a close vote between H. L. Clark and Dr. O. L. Scott at the primaries and this will have to be decided at the November 5 election. According to general rumor, the contest will be most interesting.

Like Banquo's ghost, there is another proposition that will not down in Salem and that is what is known as the Richardson initiative bill to be voted on at the coming election. This is the proposition of bonding the city of Salem for all street improvements and that these improvements shall be paid from an annual levy. This idea of bonding the city for all street improvements was once turned down by the voters.

AMERICANS FREED CITY OF RHEIMS BY SMASHING LINE

Story Is Told Of Exploits Of One Famous Yankee Division At Front.

By Fred S. Ferguson
(United Press staff correspondent)
Rheims, Oct. 8.—(Night)—The stately towers of the Rheims cathedral stood out proudly, despite their scars, against the myriad-colored autumn sky this evening—free once more.

To the eastward the Americans and French still awaited amidst the dust and toil of battle in one of the most dramatic movements of the war, which has liberated the martyr city. The task assigned to a famous American second division aided by a brigade of marines and the 23rd infantry meant a blow which even the allies viewed as extremely difficult.

American's arm was swung back. The blow fell and the line crumbled.

The Germans hurled in fresh divisions, violently counter attacking the Americans on the right and left flanks.

But the doughboys held, the German powerful positions straggling, remained flanked, and the battle was won.

The Hun's dragged their defeated armies backward.

The story of the American's part in the battle is one of clear sighted, inspiring leadership and undying fighting by the best American blood. Congratulations continue to pour into the Second division which already had made history at Chateau-Thierry and Soissons. In a general order as the men went into battle the commander, after calling attention to the greatest battles in history and their effect in world's progress, said:

"Owing to its world wide reputation for skill and valor, the division has been selected by the commander in chief of the allies as his special reserve. The hour to move forward has now come. I am confident our division will pierce the enemy's line and again gloriously defeat the Hun."

The division more than fulfilled expectations. After smashing the boche positions, an entire crack German reg-

CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE

Corvallis, Or., Oct. 9.—The Oregon conference of Congregational churches, which was holding its annual meeting in this city this week, had its proceedings interrupted and the session adjourned sine die because of an order from the city health officer closing all public gatherings to prevent the spread of influenza.

They were permitted to elect officers for the year as follows: Moderator, Dean Clark of Pacific university; assistant moderator, Rev. Edwin Constant, Highland Congregational church, Portland; permanent secretary, Dr. J. J. Staub, of Sunnyside Congregational church, Portland; registrar and treasurer, Rev. Daniel Staver.

THANKS LADY WHO GAVE INFORMATION

Overhears Conversation That Leads To His Recovery—Gains 18 Pounds.

"I have already gotten back about eighteen pounds of the weight I lost while sick, and now my health seems to be just perfect," said Harry V. Horlocher in a recent conversation at the Matthews Hotel, 204 Columbia street, Portland, regarding the benefits he has derived from the use of Tanlac. Mr. Horlocher is a well known carpenter and is employed by the Standifer Construction company, of Vancouver, Washington.

"On the 20th day of last March," explained Mr. Horlocher, "I was taken down with an attack of stomach poisoning—ptomaine poisoning. I believe they call it—which almost carried me away, and since that time, until I got Tanlac, nothing I would eat agreed with me. What little I did manage to eat would soon sour, causing gas and terrible pain and misery. I lost my appetite almost entirely, and often just the smell of anything, cooking would make me dreadfully sick at my stomach. My food evidently did me no good, as I fell off from one hundred and eighty pounds to one hundred and fifty. I just had to lay off from my work, as I felt too weak and exhausted for several weeks to even attempt to do anything. Just climbing up the stairs to my room would exhaust me and take all of my energy. I was constipated all the time, had headaches, and noticed that my nerves were going all to pieces; as I couldn't get a good night's sleep, nothing did me any good, and I had become uneasy and worried about my condition.

"One day while in the Owl Drug Store I happened to overhear a lady who was buying a bottle of Tanlac, tell the man who was waiting on her, that she had been suffering from stomach trouble for years, and that Tanlac was the only medicine she had ever taken that did her any good. Well, she didn't know it, but just that little remark of hers sold me a bottle of Tanlac right then and there and if I only knew her name I would like to thank her for putting me onto the thing that has given me back my health and strength. My stomach feels now like it is in just as good shape as it ever was. And such an appetite as I do have! I believe I could eat five meals a day without suffering a particle afterwards. By using the Tanlac Tablets in connection with Tanlac I have been relieved of constipation, and I'm never bothered any more with headache. I now feel a hundred per cent strong and well, and am putting in full time at my work and I certainly do think Tanlac is a great medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Hubbard by Hubbard Drug Co., in Mt. Angel by Jen Gooch, in Corvallis by John Kelly, in Turner by H. P. Cornelius, in Woodburn by Lyman H. Shorey, in Salem by Dr. B. C. Stone, in Silverton by Geo. Steelhammer, in Gates by Mrs. J. P. McCurdy and in Stayton by U. A. Beauchamp, in Aurora by Aurora Drug Store.

ment was captured. One boche division was chewed up and a second, known as the "Kaiser Wilhelm Grosser Mecklenbergs," was thrown in disorder.

The Americans fought day and night without sleep. Officers said they scarcely understood how men could go farther, but when they were called to attack after two days of almost ceaseless fighting, they leaped forward.

A corporal brought in eight prisoners after the line was established near St. Etienne.

Machine guns on the flank poured an enfilading fire into the American positions that caused considerable trouble. A lieutenant whose clothes

TURKISH GOVERNOR WOULD DISCUSS PEACE

Ruler Of Province Of Smyrna Tires Of Disastrous War With Allies.

London, Oct. 9.—A dispatch from Athens, dated September 26, stated that Rahmi Bey, governor of the Turkish province of Smyrna, was expected to arrive in Athens that night to discuss peace.

Defection of Smyrna, the most important Turkish province in Asia Minor, it is believed, would completely undermine Turkish resistance in that territory, permitting the armies of General Allenby and General Marshall to move practically at will to the southern gateway of Constantinople.

London, Oct. 9.—Sixty-five thousand Bulgarian soldiers have surrendered to the allies west of Uskub, in accordance with the provisions of the armistice, it was officially announced in a dispatch from Salonika today.
