STAYTON NEWS

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Stayton, Ore., Oct. 9.--Edward Forette, who is with the colors at Camp Lewis, arrived home for a short furlough.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McKinney, of Salem, visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland, of Medford are visiting in town. Mrs. Cleveland is the mother of Mr. F. I. Jones.

Leo Frank, who is with the colors at Camp Lewis, came home and spent Sunday with his mother and other relatives.

Miss Marie Henkel and Clinton Parker, of Redne, were married at Albany on Thursday of last week, springing a surprise on their numerous friends. Mrs. Parker is well known and has many friends in Stayton, where she resided for many years, and for some time was employed in one of the stores. She has the past few months been conducting a store for Potter & Hill at Redne, a station on the C. & E. at Detroit, and has also been acting as postmistress. They will make their home at that place, where her husband is also employed. Congratulations.

Mrs. J. R. Miller and sister, Mrs. Thompson, are visiting their brother John Smith, at Silverton.

Andrew Duman, wife and daughter of Idaho, are visiting with P. A. Duce and other friends on Fern Ridge. Mr. Duman formerly resided here.

Mr. and Mrs. Mikelbach, of Walla Walla, visited several days last week with the Matthew and Neibert families.

Mr. and Mrs. Weis, of Mt. Angel visited at John Kerber's the first of the week.

Nairn Sigmund, who is one of Uncle Sam's employes, in the lumber industry at Astoria, spent Sunday with his parents on Fern Ridge.

Bernard Klecker has gone for a visit with his daughter, at Diamond Bluff. Wis. It is some time since Mr. Klecker has been in that portion of the country.

Friday night some marauder entered the home of Leo Rock in the west part of town by cutting a screen and opening a window. As nothing was taken it is suspected that he heard some of the people in the home moving about and left.

OLD HOTEL CLERK FOOLED

A western senator who loves a good joke a few days ago stated to some of his personal friends at the capital an amusing incident that happened recently in his own family.

"Shortly after we came to Washington my wife's hair began to turn gray," the senator said. "I never saw anyone so distressed as Helen was. She fretted every time she looked into a mirror, and the more she fretted the grayer she grew.

"She took it so to heart that I suggested that she dye her hair, but she wouldn't listen to that. I suggested a wig, but that wouldn't do either. "When we went west for the summer, someone told her about a preparation called Q-Ban Color Restorer. When she was convinced it wasn't a dye, she tried it, and sure enough the gray hairs began gradually to disappear. By the time we were ready to return to Washington, she actually looked 20 years younger.

"We went to the hotel where we frequently stop, and my wife happened to walk up to the desk with me. The clerk was an old friend of mine, and he nearly knocked my breath away when he said: 'Senator, would you like a connecting room for your daughter?'"

Jim Harding Wants To Hear From Some of His Friends

J. R. Harding of Co. 19, B. B. C. camp Kearney, Calif., writes that he would like to hear from some of his friends in this part of the world. He says he is now waiting for his transfer into the wireless division of the signal corps and hopes that he will be sent overseas.

Referring to several acquaintances, he writes: "I have had several letters from Earl Hendrick. He is in France seeing it all and likes it fine. Milton Turner, of Salem, is in Guam, and also very well satisfied with navy life. Let me rather be in France. Charles Kavanaugh is in Fort Gibson, Alaska, and is getting very pooped at the quiet of northern life.

"So you see we are all rather widely separated but at nighting for the same cause. This is some camp, quite a bit different from the old home life. Ever dry we see aeroplanes overhead doing all kinds of stunts practicing up for the Huns. I would appreciate very much if some of my old friends would drop me a line as we sure look forward to the coming of the mails."

CHILD'S TONGUE BECOMES COATED IF CONSTIPATED

When Cross, Feverish And Sick Give "California Syrup Of Figs"

Children love this "fruit laxative" and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half sick, feverish, can't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, stomachache or diarrhoea. Listen. Most of us if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs," because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

"Ask your druggist for a bottle of 'California Syrup of Figs,' which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of cheap, inferior sold here. Get the genuine, made by 'California Fig Syrup Company.' Refuse any other kind with contempt."
