advice of their field commanders with regard to the wisdom of granting an armistice, and the terms under which hostilities may be temporarily suspended.

Any armistice, it is agreed, must be on terms under which it would be absolutely impossible for the Germans to imperil the allied armies after the armistice ended.

YANKEE SOLDIERS DECLARE IN FAVOR KEEPING WAR GOING

Now That Kaiser's Men Are On Run, They Want To Keep Them Running

London, Oct. 15.—"We want a chance to lick Germany to a finish," "We don't want an armistice the minute we've got 'em running." "We don't want to listen to them yelling 'enough' the minute they realize a wallowing is due them."
These were the replies of many American soldiers and sailors from all parts of the United States when they were interviewed on the Strand, at the American Y. M. C. A. eagle hut, C. R. Carlson and James Twyny, fresh from the Rheims battle field, declared the allies ought not to quit before invading Germany and giving it a taste of its own medicine.

Corporal W. H. Hottinger of Oakland Cal., editor of a camp paper at an aviation entonement, said:
"For the love of Mike, let's fight it to a finish and put out the kaiser. We can't trust the Germans. We ought to dictate the peace terms."
"It's a good thing, of course, to save American lives; but I'd like to give Germany a good dose of her own medicine," declared J. W. Meister of Detroit.
"I'd like a showdown for an armistice," said Sergeant A. Creeder of Indianapolis.
"I wouldn't be surprised if Germany were licked already," was the opinion of R. H. Grower of Chicago.

Spain Takes 6 German Ships
Madrid, Oct. 15.—The Spanish government requisitioned seven German ships totalling 21,500 tons to replace those lost through submarine operations since September 14.
