AUTOCRATIC POWER

Reported anti-kaiser demonstrations in Germany, plus imminent trouble from Poles and Slavics to the east, are big factors in the peace situation.

Diplomatic circles are receiving indications that distinct movements are afoot in Poland, Bohemia and Moravia, looking to throwing off the German and Austrian yoke.

Concerted action between Poland and the Czechoslovak states may force an early elimination of Austria and the creation of a grave situation in the east for Germany.

The Czech-Slovaks in Moravia and Bohemia have completed their political organizations and have been waiting a favorable opportunity to declare their independence.

Former Stayton Publisher Dies At Junction City

(Capital Journal Special Service.)

Stayton, Ore., Oct. 15.—W. C. Parry, who in 1911-12 was one of the publishers of the Stayton Mail, died suddenly at his home in Junction City, Thursday afternoon, of pneumonia. He was born in Altoona, Pa., May 7, 1889, coming from there to Berkeley, Calif. with his parents.

Mr. Parry leased the paper and took up work on the Oregonian in Junction City.

Owing to the poor health of the lessee of the paper, he was obliged to retain to Junction City and resume its publication.

The funeral service was held in the chapel of the undertaking parlors, conducted by Rev. Moore of the Methodist church, and by the Masonic order, of which he was a member.

There was a large attendance of sympathizing friends and many beautiful flowers. His mother died about a year ago. He leaves beside his wife, and son Dixon, three years old, his father W. L. Parry, of Berkeley, a brother D. H., of Seattle, and a brother, Edgar, now in France.

His father, brother, and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander were present at the funeral and the two former accompanied the body to Portland for cremation. He had many friends in Stayton and vicinity, who will sorrow at his passing.

Roy Myers and wife, and C. P. Philley and wife, of Portland, visited at the A. Rieger and Ben Gehlen homes Sunday.

Ed. Rieger was home from Camp Lewis, Sunday, for a visit with relatives.

Dr. C. H. Brower and Dr. H. A. Beauchamp were both called by the government for duty at Helena, Mont., last week, and left for that place Thursday.

Dr. E. H. Hobson is at present here, but how long he will be allowed to remain is uncertain, and in case he is

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without gripping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

called this territory will be left without a physician. The territory covered by Stayton physicians is about 20 by 30 miles square and is too large to be left without medical service.

Steps are being taken to have one of the doctors returned or another sent here in case Dr. Hobson is called to leave.

Soldiers Endorse Reply

With the American Armies in France Oct. 16.—President Wilson's reply to the German peace appeal was received by the army with enthusiasm. It exactly sustained the American fighters views on peace.

The fighters feel they are on the verge of scoring a knockout and they don't wish the boche to slip out from the defeat unscathed.

The president's policy of leaving the question of an armistice to Foch and the military advisers was approved by the doughboys.

Thoma will also attend.

Mrs. Paul Felten went to Portland last week to visit her daughter, Margaret, who had been ill, but is now completely recovered.

Miss Rose Beck left the last of the past week for a visit in Portland.

Word from Portland has been received that Mrs. G. F. Korinek, who has been quite sick, is nearly recovered. Her sister, Miss Maryann Alexander, was also sick with the la grippe, but in a milder form, and is convalescent.

Separate Co. A had planned to visit Mill City last night, but on account of weather and prevailing epidemic, did not go.

There are a few cases of colds in town, but no gripe cases of any consequence are reported.
