In order that Salem may be given a final opportunity to pledge its quota to the fourth liberty loan, all banks in the city will remain open Saturday evening from 6 o'clock until 8 o'clock. The executive committee and workers who have been in charge of the campaign hope that many who have been negligent will take this last opportunity to help in raising the $20,000 or more necessary to bring Salem over the top. Saturday has been set by the government as the final date on which the loan must be subscribed.

France is the county the Women's clubs throughout the state are mostly interested in. At the state library book on France has been called for by the clubs and according to the custodian in sending to these clubs in the state, the books will be out until next June. After books on France, the big demand is for those on agriculture and on county life. These books are sent to county librarians and to clubs and really become local circulating libraries.

The death is announced in New York last week of Homer Davenport, son of the famous cartoonist who is buried at Silverton. He died at his home in New York at the age of 23 years from illness brought on by the Spanish influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Dalrymple Buried Today At McCleay

Two days after the death of her husband, A. G. Dalrymple died of pneumonia at the Willamette sanatorium, Mrs. Alice Dalrymple, age 28, died also of pneumonia at their home at McCleay. The funeral services for both were held this morning at the Bigdon chapel with burial in the McCleay cemetery. The services were conducted by the Rev. G. L. Lovell of the United Evangelical church.

A twin brother of Mrs. Dalrymple who died yesterday was also attacked with the same illness and today was brought to the Salem hospital. The three Dalrymple children, ages one, two and three years are also ill but were said this morning to be slightly improving.

Mrs. Dalrymple was born at Yoncalia and was the daughter of Walter Williams.

Your Eyes

May or may not be alike. You may and you may not need glasses. The only way to find out is to have them Carefully examined. Then if you need glasses buy them; If you don't you'll be frankly told so. In any event you will be fairly treated.
