Silverton Boy Died At Noon Thursday

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Silverton, Ore., Oct. 18.—Donald Wolfard, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Wolfard, died at the family home about noon Thursday. Donald was born in Silverton and lived here all his life. He finished high school with the class of 1918. For a number of years he was employed as a clerk in the J. Wolfard & Co. store. During the past six or eight months he has been in very poor health and unable to continue his duties at the store. Cancer of the stomach is said to be the cause of his early departure.

Elmer Ringstad, aged 30 years, died on the train between Portland and Clackamas Tuesday afternoon. He had been living in Eastern Oregon for some time and his father, Ed. Ringstad, was bringing him home. The Ringstads live between Silverton and Seely's Mills. Mrs. Ida M. Johnston, wife of Conductor Johnston, died at her home in this city Monday morning and was buried here Tuesday.

Ernie Miller, son of I. W. Miller, who arrived here with his wife and three children a couple of weeks ago from Foreston, Ill., died at the home of his father at two o'clock Saturday morning. Mr. Miller contracted a severe cold on his way to Oregon which developed into pneumonia, causing his death. Ernie Miller was twenty-five years old and leaves a wife and three children. He spent his boyhood days in Silverton, attended the Silverton school, and was very well known, especially among the young people of this city. His funeral was held here on Monday afternoon. This is the fourth death for Silverton in less than a week's time.

Little Bobbie and Chester Smith came near to being two very sick boys a few nights ago and had it not been for the timely arrival of a doctor they might have lost their lives. It seems that Mrs. Smith had fixed some arsenic and sugar for ant poison and thought she had safely hidden it while she went down town. When she returned home, the poison had disappeared entirely. Upon asking the little fellows about it they informed their mother that they had just finished eating the preparation. It is easy to imagine the mother's anxiety until the doctor arrived. Fortunately he came in time to prevent any serious results.

DONALD DOINGS

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Donald, Oct. 18.—Mrs. O. Freeman was the guest of Mrs. Chas. Hoskins in Portland from Friday until Monday. A joint surprise birthday party was given by Mrs. Hoskins for Mrs. Freeman and Mr. John Swan (Mrs. Hoskins's brother) on Friday evening. The party was made up of former friends and acquaintances who had moved to Portland from Donald—a happy reunion; as it were, of Donaldite—as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Pitoeck, Mr. and Mrs. John Swan, Mr. and Mrs. Southwick, Mrs. J. Reesbeck, Miss Margaret Wilson, Mr. Tomlinson, Mrs. Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Hoskins, Misses Helen Hoskins and Ollie Wilson served light refreshments. Five hundred was the pastime for the evening. The guests of honor, Mrs. Freeman and Mr. Swan, received some beautiful remembrances of the occasion.

J. J. Roberts of Hopedale, A. J. Purvise of Salem, Chas. E. Brentano, Lawrence Brentano and Ambrose Conner of St. Paul were in Donald and vicinity Tuesday, looking over the hop situation with a view of buying. Mr. and Mrs. Goode of Donald spent Monday and Tuesday in Salem, driving over with team. Mr. Goode will not teach this winter as he has his usual custom. Herbert N. Cokerline of Albany, general agent of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Co., was soliciting patronage in Donald on Tuesday. R. E. Morden of Salem and M. Egan of Portland, representing the Portland Clearing Mill Co., were in Donald Tuesday, soliciting agents for the Olympic flour.

M. W. Johnson & Co. have handled their flour before coming to Donald, and will carry it from now on in Donald as they can recommend it as good. Mrs. L. A. Keayon of Butteville, Mrs. G. P. Keyon of California, Mrs. W. R. Schur and Miss Norma Geisey of Butteville took the train for Portland on Monday.

Monday Mrs. Dayton Walker has been in Salem since last Friday, visiting her mother. Mrs. Brown also having work there at the moment. Mr. Jno. Keller was called to Georgia last week to adjust a fire insurance case there. The fellow really (give us number) of Tillamook, Ore., spent Friday and Saturday at the J. E. Feller home. They are old friends. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Johnson of Portland returned out to Donald on Sunday by train and the day with Mr. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson accompanied them in their return, taking a drive to Newburg and the beautiful prairie and walnut orchards on the Dundee Hills. The prairie crop had been about cleaned up, but walnut harvest is just beginning. There seems to be a bountiful crop of both. One could not imagine a more beautiful drive than among those hills and along the highway to Portland this time of the year, everything green as at spring time, not even pumpkin, tomatoes and vines touched with frost. The green mingled with the autumn tints makes a picture as beautiful as paint.

Harry Cone came back to Donald from Portland to again enter school here as the Portland schools closed just as they moved there. Mrs. Knuts resigned her position on the Donald school after having taught one month as there seemed to be no suitable place for her to board and she found it too much of an undertaking to go back and forth to Salem each day. We regret having to give Mrs. Knuts up as the school was starting off in fine shape. Mrs. John Miller filled the position until Wednesday when another teacher was secured. Mrs. Gribble opened her country home to the service of the Mason's last Saturday evening. A very enjoyable evening was spent, playing five hundred. Mrs. J. C. Moore was the prize winner. Those enjoying the hospitality were Mesdames Flynn, Fred Jergen L. Gorsey, P. Sextsmith, J. C. Moore, A. Anfrance, and J. Peller from the Donald community and a number from Aurora also attended. Refreshments were served.

Donald, Or., Oct. 18.—Mr. and Mrs. Ben Quinn came down from Portland Saturday. Mrs. Quinn to attend the Masonic lodge and Mrs. Quinn was called to Butteville to attend her mother and brother's family four members of which were down with the Spanish influenza. So far they have gotten along nicely according to last reports. Mr. J. C. Moore and son, Henry came out from St. John's to spend the day with the family and incidentally to sharpen about twenty plow shares which had been left there in the absence of the blacksmith. Regny Maty spent the week end at his home near Donald. The Masonic lodge had a fine meeting Saturday night, judging from the length of time they were in their hall. M. W. Johnson was turned out as a full-fledged Mason, after they got through with him. A banquet was served at the close.

The people of Donald rejoiced at the fine rain for more reason than one. For weeks the water has been so low in the Molalla river that our electric light service has been miserable—turned on from 7 to 12 p. m. and with the aid of lamps the stores managed to do business. But at best the lights were poor during the time. Usually we have no reason to complain as our service is good. Miss Kingsting of Bronckers, has been secured to teach the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades of the Donald school. Mrs. Walter Techow of Sacramento, Cal., is making an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. C. J. Espey. Joe Fowler returned Thursday morning from Dundee, where he, with his brother, have been running prune driers all fall.

Mrs. Scotten returned to Donald on Wednesday after spending several weeks at Dundee. Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Bard, who have lately moved to a farm near Donald were shopping here Saturday afternoon. We are glad to report Mrs. C. Collier able to be about again, after a serious illness with blood poison. She was able to take a trip to Hubbard to see the doctor on Monday. Mr. George Lamb spent the week end with his family in Donald. Mr. Lamb has been engaged in one of the government spruce camps for a number of months.

The pupils of Mrs. C. Collier's Sunday school class are to meet at her home on Saturday evening to organize their class. They are looking forward to a winter of usefulness along the line of Sunday school work. The Sunday school is beginning to get new life again after having to close for several weeks because of scarletina. Rev. Quist of Woodburn has charge of it until new officers are elected. Mike DeSart is busy these days painting a new bungalow built on the Frank Yeigen place. O. O. Preman is putting a new roof on the Pete Feller house. About 18 or 20 thousand shingles required to cover it.

Just to make it clear as to how letters should be addressed to soldiers, the following form is shown. This sample address is sent out by the Washington postal officials and approved by army authorities. Here is the form for the address and also the return address: From Mrs. John Doe, 78 Roe Street, Salem, Oregon. Sergeant John K. Doe, Co. D, 93d Infantry, American Expeditionary Force. Complaints are being received by postal authorities that letters have not been delivered to soldiers. If the writer would place the return address on the upper left hand corner of the envelope, then if the soldier cannot be located, the letter will be returned to the sender.

Lieutenants Allen and McCall went to Portland Wednesday to attend an encampment and training school for all officers of the Oregon National Guard. A large number of friends gathered at the O. J. Dahl home Sunday afternoon and enjoyed a social day.

Best Corn Eper Raised In Marion County To Be Shown The Fifth Annual Marion County Corn Show will be held at Salem the second week in December. Judging from the increased acreage and the splendid quality of corn grown this year the show will be the best ever held in the valley. Farmers are urged to exhibit in as many classes as possible in order to make the show what it is intended to be—an educational exhibit advertising what can be done in the Willamette valley with one of the best agricultural crops.

The premium list will be practically the same as last year—the entries, consisting of a single ear, ten-ear, and 100-ear lots of both white and yellow dent and 12-ear lot of popcorn and sweet corn. The best individual display will also receive a prize. Corn products, consisting of cooked and canned foods and homemade meal and hominy, will also be given a prominent place in the premium list.

The premium list will be published in the various papers of the county or they may be secured by writing to Lafayette J. Chapin, Salem.
