

The Wonderful Call
When Baby Comes

Like the Blast of Heavenly Trumpet
When Call of Motherhood is Felt.

Of all the most vital times in a woman's life the coming of baby is fraught with the greatest meaning. Care should be exercised to insure that the crisis is passed in safety. Apprehension is avoided by the timely use of Mother's Friend, a preparation of penetrating oils and medicinal ingredients, which renders the muscles, cords, tendons and ligaments pliable, and thus tension is avoided. The usual nervousness, nausea, heart-beating and stretching pains are counteracted and the period is one of calm repose. The broad, flat abdominal muscles relax with ease, and when baby comes the time of the crisis is less and pain and danger is avoided. Thousands of women for half a century have used this penetrating external application, prepared especially for expectant mothers, and every woman awaiting the crisis should give nature a helping hand. Write the Bradford Regulator Company, Dept. F, Lamar Building, Atlanta, Georgia, for their Mother's Friend, of great value to all women, and obtain a bottle of Mother's Friend from the druggist and begin its application regularly night and morning.

WILSON IS BETTER

Tom B. Wilson, federal estate agent for the district of Oregon, who has been confined to his home in Portland for some time with an attack of pneumonia, is reported to be out of danger and on the road to convalescence.

Mr. Wilson is well known throughout Multnomah county and the state, having served as bookkeeper at the penitentiary during the administration of Governor Chamberlain and Governor West. Soon after the enactment of the federal income tax law he resigned to enter the service of the internal revenue department and for some time past has had charge of the estate tax department of the internal revenue office.

Oh, the English and the Irish, and the 'owlin' Scotlins, too,
The Canucks, and Austryleuns, and the 'airy French Polle—
The only thing that bothered us a year before we knew
Was 'ow in 'ell the Yanks 'ud look, an' 'ot in 'ell they'd do.

They 'adn't 'ad no tryncin', they didn't know the gyne,
They 'adn't never marched it much—their shootin' was the yunc,
An' the only thing that bothered us that day in laws'd July
Was 'ow in 'ell the Line 'ud 'old if they should run aw'y.

Them leggy, nosey new 'uns, just come across th' sea—
We couldn't 'elp but wonder 'ow in 'ell their guts 'ud be.
An' the only thing that bothered us in all our staggerin' ranks,
Was wot in 'ell 'ed 'appen w'en the 'Uns 'ad 'it the 'Yanks.

My word! it 'appened sudden w'en the drive 'ad first begun;
We seed the Yanks a-runnin'—Gawd blim! 'ow they run!
But the only thing that bothered us that seed the chase begin,
Was 'ow in 'ell to stop 'em 'fore they got into Berlin.

They didn't have no tactics but the bloody manuel,
They 'adn't learned no 'orders, but: "Ooray!" an' "Give 'em 'ell!"
But the only thing that bothered us about them leggy lads
Was 'ow in 'ell to get the 'chow to feed their 'Kamerads!

So we're standin' all together in a stiffish firin' line,
If anyone should ask you, you can say we're doin' fine.
But the only thing that bothers us—an' that don't bother much—
Is 'ow in 'ell to get the dirt to bury all the Dutch.

Gawd's trow! it's rotten fightin' that all our troops 'as seen,
The 'Uns a dirty p'yer, becos 'e's al ways been;
Both the only thing that bothers us in 'andin' 'im our thanks
Is 'ow in 'ell we'd done if it weren't, fer the Yanks.

Oh, the English an' the Irish, an' the 'owlin' Scotlins, too,
The Canucks and Austryleuns, an' the 'airy Polle.
The only thing that bothered us don't bother us no more;
It's why in 'ell we didn't know the Yankee boys before!

Mobs Are Rioting
In Berlin Again

Amsterdam, Oct. 21.—A hundred window panes in the imperial palace in Berlin were smashed by a rioting mob during a peace demonstration Wednesday, according to reports received here. The police were routed, the advices said. There upon the crowd rushed to the palace and did considerable damage before being dispersed. At the recent election to select a successor to Kaempf, the independent socialist, paraded, carrying placards with the slogan: "If the war lasts another year the kaiser will make his exit like the czar did."

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

If there be any persons under the delusion that the life of a Y. M. C. A. secretary in France is just one prayer after another in a nice, cool room, here is a letter from a Blue Triangle girl at a base hospital somewhere 'over there' which should go a long way toward correcting the idea.
"This morning a convoy came in, mostly stretcher cases, and the ambulance worked steadily from 6 until 8. Poor chaps—many of them couldn't feed themselves, and yet, wounded as they were, they made merry over my awkward attempts to help them out.

SPECIAL ACCREDITED AGENTS

Breakfast over, I wrote letters for those who wanted to send a cheery word for reassurance to someone at home.

Everyone here worked at top speed and I sometimes wonder how the nurses move so swiftly and easily among the men in the surgical ward, where there are so many fractures, amputated arms and wounded legs that I am constantly in fear of bumping into some poor man. "One lad from Maine looked sort of lonesome. I learned from the head-nurse it was his 18th birthday. I rushed out to the nearest Y. M. C. A. and bought him a cake of chocolate for a present. I wish whoever made that chocolate could have seen the way it disappeared."

And then the nurses. They worked so hard and were so tired it seemed as though something should be done to give them a bit of relaxation. Our shell of a house didn't seem to promise much, but I heated a kettle of water and dragged out a packing box for a table.

Soon I had a jolly collection of tea, cheese and nut sandwiches, and cakes. The girls could run down for only five or ten minutes, but they vowed it was good as two hours' rest."

Wherever a steady line of stretchers pass through the doors of convent, chalet, or portable shed, there one sees a Y. M. C. A. hut, one of those frail affairs which come in sections and in an amazingly short while are transformed into sturdy shelters enlivened by pictures and the homelike cheer of chimneys and brewing tea.

When a Y. M. C. A. secretary isn't playing hostess, she is making herself generally useful. There is always opportunity for bringing comfort to wounded men. It is no uncommon sight to see blue Triangle girls passing among the beds, distributing flowers or exchanging a jest.

The best time to save in clothes is when you buy them and the best way to save is to buy good clothes.

Look closer at the goods than at the price; be more particular about what you get than what you pay. Good clothes are higher priced than they were, but not higher priced than they're worth.

The clothes we sell are good clothes; made to give you long wear and service.
