Washington, Oct. 22.—Italian forces numbering nearly half a million men are in France. General Mangin, in a telegram of congratulations to the Italian minister of war, disclosed the fact that Italy has a full corps in the great battle in France.

The Italian embassy here today made public General Mangin's message to Rome, which was:

Will Bring Loyalty Cards Up To Date

Bringing the loyalty cards of the Commercial club up to date has been undertaken by the Young Women's Christian Association. At a meeting held today of the executive committee of the United War Fund drive to be put on Nov. 11, it was decided to ask the Y. W. C. A. to work on the cards especially in reference to those who had given for the various drives such as the Y. M. C. A., Salvation Army and the Y. W. C. A. in order that the solicitors may know how every citizen stands in addition to the Liberty loan pledges. The cards are pretty well up to date as far as the four Liberty loans are concerned as every citizen in Salem is listed on the loyalty cards. When the Y. W. C. A. completes its work, every person will be fully recorded as to what each has been doing for the various patriotic drives and also for the Liberty loans. This record will be used as a check for United War Fund campaign next month.

RICHARDSON BILL IS OPPOSED IN COUNCIL

Aldermen Are In Favor Of Fight Against Bill—Matron Troubles.

Troubles of a police matron and the proposed Richardson bill occupied the greater part of the time of the city fathers at the session held last evening. Eight aldermen were present giving the required majority to do business.

The police matron discussion was started when Mrs. S. J. Dorsey officially presented her resignation basing her reason for quitting on the grounds that when all members of the police force were being given an advance in pay, the council failed to do anything for the police matron. Her resignation was accepted.

Mayor Keyes was of the opinion that the city should have a police matron and that one should be elected. Frank Ward said that as chairman of the police committee, the police matron question had brought him a lot of grief, and that he was not quite sure whether the city needed a police matron. If there was one elected, he thought she would co-operate with the police and not serve mostly at the Oregon Electric station. Alderman McClelland thought Mrs. Dorsey did not get a square deal and that she should have a raise in salary. Frank Ward thought a police matron should give attention to keeping young girls from public dances and also keep them off the streets. It was finally agreed that the committee on police and health should fill the vacancy co-operating with the mayor and chief of police.

As the council was about to adjourn Alderman Wiest called attention to the Richardson bill and the activities of the council in fighting the bill. He thought the councilmen should refrain from taking any part either for or against the bill, although he did not say how he personally stood on the matter. Otto J. Wilson, Frank Ward, W. F. Buckner and N. D. Elliott were most emphatic in declaring that it was part of the alderman's business to look after the city's interest in fighting the proposed amendment to the city charter whereby the city should pay more than a million dollars for all paving done since 1905.

When it came to a vote, seven of the aldermen present were in favor of fighting the bill and one was against. It was stated in the discussion that the city had 36 miles of paving and that 75 miles of the city were unpaved and should the bill pass, property abutting on the 75 miles of unpaved street would partly pay for the portion already paved. Also that should the bill pass, taxes in the city would be about doubled. Alderman Elliott moved that the argument against the Richardson bill should be printed in the pamphlet and the motion was carried.

In the discussion, the assertion was made that those opposed to the bill were playing up to the church people but the opinion seemed to be that the church people were deeply interested in the bill even more than a lot of other folks.

Lord Northcliffe Says Only Attempt To Gain Time

London, Oct. 22.—Lord Northcliffe speaking at a luncheon in the American Officers' club here today, characterized the German reply as an attempt to gain time and confuse the issue.

"Unless we face resolutely and clearly minded the present peace offensive it may become more dangerous than the military offensive last spring," he said.

He declared his belief that President Wilson will handle the German note as it deserves.

French Women Care For Our Soldier Graves

Washington, Oct. 22.—A little cemetery near Paris, where 250 American heroes rest, bears mute witness that the women of France do not forget, Red Cross cables show.

President And Cabinet Meet To Discuss Note

Washington, Oct. 22.—The official text of the German note has been received by the Swiss legislation and is now being decoded. It will be delivered to Secretary Lansing shortly.

President Wilson this afternoon discussed the situation with his cabinet. Great puzzlement is reflected everywhere as to how much reliance may be placed upon the note.

The cabinet meeting broke up at 4:30 p. m.

It was stated at the state department at five o'clock that the official German note would not be delivered tonight. No explanation was given for the delay.

There were indications this afternoon that the note, as unofficially received here, fell short of meeting requirements demanded by this government. It appears at this hour that exchanges between the United States and allied nations are going forward rapidly.

The Brunswick

ALL PHONOGRAPHS IN ONE

The Super Phonograph

At last comes the ultimate phonograph—the NEW BRUNSWICK.

After years of phonographic development, The House of Brunswick has achieved a new method of reproduction.

To properly interpret the sound waves of all records—to round out these vibrations in full, life-like volume—these were the problems.

And they are solved by the Brunswick's new and distinctive method, combining the ULTONA and the All-Wood Tone Amplifier.

With the ULTONA, the precise requirements of each type of record are met at a turn of the hand. The playing point, its position on the record and the exact degree of pressure with which it rests in the groove—all are provided in one compact, simple device.

Equally important in the new Brunswick method is the Tone Amplifier. It is built of wood, like a fine violin. Wood alone can give sound waves the mellow vibration essential to good music.

This explains why Brunswick reproductions are entirely free from metallic harshness.

With the ULTONA and the All-Wood Tone Amplifier, new possibilities in phonographic music are discovered.

And remember, these perfect reproductions are possible not from one make or type of record alone, but from ALL records.

No longer need you be restricted in making up your record collection. Choose the selections and the performances you prefer from any catalog—the stars of all the world are at your command.

Of the many models of Brunswick phonographs, there is one that will be sure to suit you exactly, and the price is little less than you expected to pay.
