HIGHER SALARIES ARE ASKED BY THE HEADS OF ALL INSTITUTIONS

Board Of Control Will Make This Recommendation To Legislature.

With the superintendents of various state institutions asking for increases in salary, it is probable that the state board of control will recommend that the next legislature grant such increases.

At a meeting of the board today to consider the budgets of the ten state institutions, the question of salary increases for the heads of the institutions came up when the budget of the Oregon state hospital for the insane was being discussed. These salaries are fixed by law so all the board can do is recommend increases to the legislature.

The board voted to recommend an increase in the salary of Superintendent Steiner from $3000 to $3600 a year. Dr. J. N. Smith, superintendent of the institution for feeble minded, then said he would ask for an increase from $2500 $3000 a year and E. S. Tillinghast, superintendent of the state school for the deaf, said he would ask for an increase.

Governor Withycombe said he favored granting the increases and including the additional amounts in the budgets, but Secretary of State Olcott objected to that method of procedure. He insisted that the budget should contain no larger amounts than the law now allows for the salaries of institution heads, and that the board's recommendations on this subject should be contained in its biennial report to the legislature. He also said he wished to give further consideration to the question of salary increases. The board decided to follow his suggestions.

Olcott also opposed asking the legislature for an appropriation for new dormitories at the state institution for feeble minded, but Withycombe and Kay voted in favor of it. Superintendent Smith of that institution asked for $75,000 for three dormitories. Kay moved to cut the request to $50,000 for two dormitories. Withycombe and Kay voted for this sum and Olcott against it.

The board again split on the question of asking for $10,000 for a new hospital building for the feeble-minded institution. Withycombe and Kay voted for it and Olcott against. Olcott said he was opposed to new buildings at this time.

Another item in the budget for this institution called for $25,000 for a new school building and gymnasium. All three members of the board voted to eliminate it. All voted for an item of $3000 for a new barn.

Superintendent Smith asked for $25,000 for a new boiler room and boilers. This was cut to $10,000 to be approved on condition the legislature makes an appropriation for the two new dormitories. Another request was for $14,500 for furniture. This was cut to $10,000 to be approved in case the new dormitories are obtained.

The budget calls for $68,080 for salaries, which was approved, and $141,920 for maintenance. This item will be trimmed if the new dormitories are not obtained.

The budget for the Oregon state hospital was approved in full, as it contained no items for new buildings. It totals $958,500.

The board approved the budget of the state tuberculosis hospital in full. This totals $143,350, and includes $15,000 for a new outdoor pavilion, which was considered urgent because of the probable need to care for returning soldiers. It also includes $3500 for a residence for the superintendent.

The budget for the state school for the blind was approved in full. It totals $38,911.

The budget for the state school for the deaf was allowed in full, with the one exception that an item of $1125 for a tractor was cut to $250, and the superintendent was instructed to buy a horse instead.

Another meeting of the board will be held Friday afternoon to complete the consideration of the budgets.

Fire Prevention Day, November 2.

November 2 will be fire prevention day in Oregon and all other states of the Union this year, instead of October 9, the customary date for observing fire prevention activities. The observance of the day was postponed at the request of Secretary McAdoo of the treasury department as he did not want anything to divert public attention from the fourth Liberty loan drive, which was then under way.

Gov. Whitcomb has issued a proclamation naming November 2 as fire prevention day and calling upon the citizens of the state to observe it.

State Fire Marshal Wells is also urging observance of the day by massed celebrations and parades. If the influenza epidemic has not subsided, however, these celebrations will have to be postponed or to be held under permission of the health authorities, points out the fire marshal.

Sixteenth Street Cannot Be Extended

The city of Salem will not extend Sixteenth street across the Geer branch of the Southern Pacific railroad. This much has been decided by the Public Service Commission. Some time ago the city sought permission to extend Sixteenth street across the S. P. Trunk. The action of the city was opposed by the Southern Pacific on the grounds that such an extension would be for the benefit of but one piece of property and that the only property now in use where it was sought to extend the street is occupied by the Shell Oil Co. This company, it was shown, had access to the property from Fifteenth street. If

PRESIDENT'S PROBING WILL BARE SCHEME

British Official Opinion Endorses Course Chief Executive Is Taking.

London, Oct. 23.—(British Admiralty Wireless).—The following opinion on President Wilson's attitude toward German peace moves has been expressed in important British official circles: "The probing to which President Wilson is subjecting the German peace proposals will serve to disclose their true character. It is already manifest that these proposals are nothing more or less than a military move dictated by the critical positions of the German armies on the western front and by the defeat, accomplished or imminent, of Germany's allies.

"If the German military power finds itself compelled to resort to new weapons the appropriate and effective answer is a military, not a political one. Fortunately the allies are now in a position to give this military answer. The first prerequisite of any peace must accordingly be defeat of the military power of the enemy.

"When this is accomplished and acknowledged the question of peace will become a practical one. Until this is accomplished and acknowledged it is plain that existing German military authorities, however they may seek to disguise themselves, will remain in power.

"With them President Wilson has emphatically declined to negotiate or confer, the present interchange of notes between Germany and the United States thus serves a useful if negative purpose. It prohibits the real nature of the German party to the interchange and the necessity, as the preface of any real peace proposals, of abolition of that party, which can only follow upon the defeat of the enemy's armed forces."

Stanfield Expected To Stand For O. A. C. Funds

R. N. Stanfield, speaker of the house of representatives at the last session of the legislature and therefore, a member of the state emergency board, will be present at the meeting of the board called for Friday morning to consider the request of the Oregon Agricultural College for $37,435 deficiency appropriation.

The vote of Speaker Stanfield will decide the question of whether the appropriation shall be authorized as four members of the board are on record in favor of it and two as opposed. It takes five votes to authorize a deficiency, so Stanfield's vote will be the deciding factor.

Germany Must Fight Or Submit—Barthou

Paris, Oct. 23.—"Germany must submit or fight. If she desires an armistice Poch will dictate it," Louis Barthou, former French premier, declared today, speaking at the Sorbonne, at a ceremony in honor of the Americans.

"Germany's last note was an indirect confession of a desperate situation," he said.

"She desires to obtain an armistice which will break the clan of the allied armies, paralyze the command and divide the entente in favor of a haggling for peace, in which Germany always would come out victorious with her fleet, her armies and her material intact."

"She must submit or fight. If she desires an armistice Poch will dictate it in the name of the allies. I am not amongst those who blame President Wilson for not refusing to reply to the first note. Germany has been caught in her own trap and Germany has lost the war."

Maxine Zidania Crabtree was granted a divorce from Henry Crabtree, and she was given the name of Kennedy, that of her first husband. Crabtree deserted her about 12 years ago and as her son is now in the service in France, she thought she would rather bear his name than that of the man she had not seen for 12 years.

Zulena Bonannon was granted a divorce from Jeff Bonannon. They have a family of grown up children. The divorce was granted on the ground of desertion for more than one year.

President Wilson Will Make Statement To People Of America

Washington, Oct. 23.—President Wilson late today completed a statement for the American people covering the subject of his action in regard to the latest German peace movement.

It is planned to give out the statement, which may be the reply, at 9 o'clock tonight.

The work on the announcement was completed after extended cable conversations with the allied governments.

It is possible, however, that the statement will not be given out until tomorrow morning. The official translation of the official German text was made public late today. It showed no material difference with the press text published Monday.

WAR WORK CAMPAIGN IS BEING ORGANIZED

County Chairman Staley Reports Good Progress Is Being Made.

The United War Work campaign organization in Marion county is progressing rapidly according to Chairman W. I. Staley and Associate Campaign Director W. M. Smith. The following places were visited Monday, the chairman of each selected and quotas assigned: Aurora, John Saddle chairman, Donald, O. J. Espy chairman, Butteville, John Murry chairman, Hubbard, Bahne Paulson, chairman, Woodburn, N. A. Hoffer chairman. Yesterday the following places were visited and organization perfected: Brooks, J. E. Aspinwall chairman, Gervais, J. Johnston chairman, Monitor, G. G. White chairman, Mt. Angel, M. W. Smith chairman, Scotts Mills, J. A. Alderman chairman, Silverton, F. E. Callister chairman.

The plan of organization which has been suggested for Marion county has been to divide the county into the following divisions: Aunsville, Turner, Jefferson, Macleay, Sublimity, Gates, Mehama, Marion, Scotts Mills, Shaw, Silverton, Woodburn, Hubbard, Aurora, Gervais, St. Paul, Donald, Butteville, Stayton, Monitor, Mt. Angel and Salem. Each division will be responsible for a certain number of school districts which lie in close proximity to a particular division. The smallest unit of organization therefore for the United War Work campaign will be a school district. A certain number of school districts will compose a division and the divisions above named will complete the county organization. Practically all of the divisions have been organized and it is the hope of Chairman Staley and Director Smith to finish the work of county organization not later than tomorrow.

Three Divorces Granted In Circuit Court

Three divorces were granted yesterday by Judge Bingham. Hazel M. Von Eyth was given an absolute divorce from John A. Von Eyth and she was restored to her name Mrs. Hazel M. Newsom. The divorce was given on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment and separated in July 1918. In her petition for a divorce Mrs. Von Eyth alleged that he claimed to be a man of wealth and good social position.

Maxine Zidania Crabtree was granted a divorce from Henry Crabtree, and she was given the name of Kennedy, that of her first husband. Crabtree deserted her about 12 years ago and as her son is now in the service in France, she thought she would rather bear his name than that of the man she had not seen for 12 years.

Zulena Bonannon was granted a divorce from Jeff Bonannon. They have a family of grown up children. The divorce was granted on the ground of desertion for more than one year.

CHILDREN HATE PILLS, CALOMEL AND CASTOR OIL

If Cross, Feverish, Constipated, Give "California Syrup Of Figs."

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" another insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup Of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach; and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup Of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

Open Forum

Salem, Oregon, July 6, 1918. An open letter to Bishop Matthew Simpson Hughes.

Dear Bishop: Four weeks ago a public letter addressed to you charged the Sunday newspaper with being an abominable nuisance, and the republican party with being "an hypocritical, ungodly old liquor party, over forty years behind the times, ruled by liquor and tobacco."

I boldly rose up and charged you with these things, and to me these seem to be vital and irrepressible issues of vast and immediate importance. Are you a son of the Most High?
