PRINCE MAX, HOG-TIED BY PRESIDENT WILSON, HANDED OVER TO FOCH

If Militarists Fight To End It Will Mean End Of Germany Is Belief.

By J. W. T. Mason.
United Press War Expert.
New York, Oct. 24.—President Wilson has tied Prince Max hand and foot and passed him over to Marshal Foch for judgment. The new German chancellor, put into office by the Kaiser to challenge America to a peace offensive, has been ignominiously defeated by the pen as Von Hindenburg has by the sword.

Attempting to over-match President Wilson at note writing has proven a costly failure. The German government now stands revealed before the German people as unable to negotiate a peace that can save any part of Germany's military machine.

An understanding of this fact is absolutely necessary on the part of the German people before a safe peace is possible. The American answer to Prince Maximilian means the German nation must itself become civilization's hostage for righting the wrong that Germany has done to humanity. This is the basic result of the epistolary exchanges between Berlin and Washington.

The German nation's responsibility for the acts of its autocrats is thus fixed. That is why Germany will not be permitted to enter a peace conference until Marshal Foch and the allies' naval advisers have imposed conditions that will differ in no respect from unconditional surrender.

The only way the German people can save any part of the wreck of their fortunes is by overthrowing kaiserism of their own will and power. To the present there has been no democratic movement in Germany because the tentative reforms have been staged by the Kaiser from above and have not been made secure by popular uprisings. Instead of demanding their full democratic prerogatives, the German people are waiting to take as few rights as the Kaiser thinks safe to give them in the interests of saving the Hohenzollern dynasty.

No democracy was ever permanently founded on voluntary gifts of freedom from an absolutist monarch. If the people themselves do not make secure their charter of human rights by their own majestic might, they may lose overnight what they have not participated in creating.

So, now, under any condition of peace, the German nation must first disarm, there will be better terms if the disarming is done by a self-democratized nation.

The longer the process takes, however, the more drastic will be the peace conditions. The kind of peace the American people intend to demand will depend on the extent of the sacrifices they are called upon to endure.

The attitude of the American democracy during the period of note writing by Prince Maximilian demonstrates beyond doubt that if Germany tries to fight it out to the end, it will be the end of Germany.

MANY PRISONERS

looked for south of Valenciennes, there are no signs so far of any great defensive preparations beyond slender, new trench and wire systems.

The Germans are retiring largely upon the strong, natural positions behind the canal and the Raimies forest and the flooded area between Douai and Valenciennes.

During the past four days the Germans have withdrawn about three kilometers (two miles) every night, after holding on all day, the British at day break occupying the abandoned ground and resuming their pressure.

An example of the forces preying on the minds of the German troops is found in a letter which a captured private received from his brother in Hamburg, written October 12. The letter reiterates five times that peace is certain within a few days and urges the soldier to surrender or avoid death.

How To Address Letters To Soldiers

Just to make it clear as to how letters should be addressed to soldiers, the following form is shown. This sample address is sent out by the Washington postal officials and approved by army authorities. Here is the form for the address and also the return address:

From
Mrs. John Doe,
179 Roe Street,
Salem, Oregon.

Sergeant John K. Doe,
Co. D, 93d Infantry,
American Expeditionary Force

Complaints are being received by postal authorities that letters have not been delivered to soldiers. If the writer would place the return address on the upper left hand corner of the envelope, then if the soldier cannot be located, the letter will be returned to the sender.

Sour Stomach

Eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, abstain from meat for a few days and in most cases the sour stomach will disappear. If it does not, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper. Red meats are most likely to cause sour stomach and you may find it best to eat them out.

in some other way. He surrendered to the Americans near Bazel.

On Italian Front

Rome, Oct. 24.—French and Italian troops, in a powerful local attack on the Setto Communi plateau last night, penetrated far into the enemy lines, capturing the important peak of Mont Sisemol, the Italian war office announced today.

Twenty three officers and 70 men were made prisoner.

British troops stormed Austrian trenches south of Asiago, taking 214 prisoners.

South of the Asa ridge and north of Mont Di Val Bella, Italian patrols took 100 prisoners and four machine guns.

AMERICANS FORCE

new more than thirty German divisions opposing the Americans on this front.

Reports have been received indicating that the German artillery fire on the entire front has reached its lowest mark since the first few months of the war. British, French and American declare there is a remarkable preponderance of rifle and machine guns over shell wounds. The former injuries are light in the majority of cases and permit an early return of the casualties to the line.

On the other hand, the bodies are suffering heavily from allied artillery fire and their losses greatly exceed those of the allies, despite the enemy's normal advantage of defensive fighting. These conditions, coupled with their lowering morale, which is inevitable in view of their peace drive, add to the explanations of the German desire for an armistice.

SUNSHINE AND AIR BATTLES

By Fred S. Feltman
(United Press staff correspondent)
With the American Armies in France
Oct. 23.—(Night)—The first real sunshine in weeks resulted today in the most bitter fighting in the air. The sky was full of airplanes.

Two big expeditions bombed the German rear areas this afternoon. More than 150 American planes in one formation, including sixty bombing machines, swept over the Buzancy region. Tons of explosives were dropped. Railway yards and woods where troops were concentrating were deluged with bombs.

In the past 24 hours Lieutenant Chambers of Tennessee, has brought down two hostile planes and Lieutenant Rickbacker, Foyers and Wright and Captain Grant one each. Lieutenants Woolsey, Manning, Humes and Colson encountered and brought down four Fokkers in flames, escaping with out injury.

German Army Orders

With the American Armies in France
Oct. 24.—In an order to German officers in the field, which has fallen into French hands, Field Marshal Von Hindenburg, referring to the negotiations for an armistice, declares he approves of the peace moves and is obliged to support the government.

"I approve of the steps taken toward peace," he said. "I expect the confidence reposed in me in the days of our success will be all the stronger now. It is my duty to support the government."

An order of the German crown prince to the troops in the field also has been found. In it he says:

"With the consideration of peace under way, I must remind each officer that he is personally responsible when he loses a position or modifies his lines without express orders."

From general headquarters the following order was issued:

"Diplomatic negotiations are under way looking to the end of the war. The more the enemy holds back the more the prospects for a favorable conclusion are insured."

Serbian Still Advance

London, Oct. 24.—Serbian troops have made further progress toward their former capital, driving the Austro-German across the West Morava river, ninety miles from Belgrade, the Serbian war office announced today.

"After stubborn fighting, the enemy was forced to retreat on the Razanj front," the communique said.

"We crossed the west Morava north west of that village, taking 300 prisoners."

General Haig's Report

London, Oct. 24.—The attack was resumed this morning on the whole front between the Sambre-Oise canal and the Echeldt, Field Marshal Haig announced.

Kaiserism At Home

(From the Portland Oregonian.)

Through force of circumstances the newspapers have, to a large extent, become lawmakers in matters of direct legislation. More and more the voter neglects to study measures for himself and relies upon the advice of his favorite publication.

This has been remarked by prominent citizens of opposite extremes of political thought. Yet but one newspaper in Oregon has ever drafted a bill, paid the cost of its initiation and made the bill its own.

The Portland Journal has in the past initiated and fathered measures. Its publisher is said to have expended upwards of $4,000 to force upon the ballot this year two bills relating to newspaper advertising.

The corrupt practices act places certain restrictions upon the expenditure of money by corporations in the interests of candidates. Yet a newspaper, if it determines to use its influence and its organization to foster legislation of particular type, can go farther toward attaining its ends than any railroad or bank or manufactory in purchasing candidates for the legislature.

The large newspaper's organization is state wide. It has employees in every town and in nearly every hamlet. These it can require to do its bidding at penalty of dismissal.

The newspaper has space on its pages which it will not sell at any price to advertisers. This preferred space it is at liberty to utilize for its own ends.

If a newspaper wills it, there may be constantly at its door a group of sycophants ready to do whatever it desires, in return for small crumbs of publication.

There was local fighting west of Tournai without material change.

"In sharp fighting yesterday evening on the front south of Valenciennes we drove the enemy from Vendegies wood and captured Neuville, Salesches and Beaudignies, securing crossings of the Escanillon river at the latter place," the statement said.

"At the close of the day the enemy counter attacked vigorously opposite Vendegies, supporting the infantry with strong artillery fire. They were repulsed. This morning the attack was resumed on the whole front between the Sambre-Oise canal and the Scheldt."

"North of Valenciennes we cleared the enemy from the forest of Raimies and captured the villages of Thiers, Hauteriver and Thign."

"There was determined local fighting west of Tournai, without material change."

Local Gains Made

Paris, Oct. 24.—Local gains on the Oise front between the Oise and the Serre and north of Rheims were reported by the French war office today.

"On the Oise front we crossed the canal east of Grand Verley," the communique said.

"Despite enemy counter attacks we hold the east bank."

"Between the Oise and the Serre there was lively fighting in the region of the railway north of Mesbrecourt."

"North of Nizy-Le Comte we enlarged our gains during the night."

"On the plateau east of Vouziers there were great artillery duels."

Mrs. Smith Recommends Chamberlain's Tablets

"I have had more or less stomach trouble for eight or ten years," writes Mrs. G. H. Smith, Brewerton, N. Y. "When suffering from attacks of indigestion and heaviness after eating, one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets have always relieved me. I have also found them a pleasant laxative." These tablets tone up the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. If you are troubled with indigestion, give them a trial, get well and stay well.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Most Reliable

After many years' experience in the use of it and other cough medicines, there are many who prefer Chamberlain's to any other. Mrs. A. C. Kirtain, Greenville, Ill., writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my mother's home and mine for years, and we always found it a quick cure for colds and bronchial troubles. We find it to be the most reliable cough medicine we have used."

VOTERS OF OREGON

Justice F. A. Moore of the Supreme Court died last month, too late for the name of any candidate to succeed him to be placed on the ballot. This condition makes it necessary to write in the name of your candidate.

This is the most important position in the judicial system of the State. It is essential to choose a man of extensive legal training, of high character, and of broad vision. We commend for your consideration and vote
