

For The Boys in Camp

Make the soldiers' washing easy. Send them Fels-Naptha. It is the ideal soap for soldiers.

Boiling water is hard to get in camp. But Fels-Naptha works perfectly in water of any temperature. And it calls for so little rubbing!

When your soldier boy washes with Fels-Naptha Soap, his clothes will be clean and right for inspection.

MARCHING BEHIND

By Caroline Tickner

(Of the Vigilantes)

"I'm marching on," said the colonel's wife.
"Back of my soldier in the field,
His to command brave men in the strife
Mine a weapon of love to wield.
To soothe, to comfort, to help to cheer,
Those that the soldier holds most dear;
Glady I turn to this task of mine,
To work for the women behind the line."

"I'm marching on," cried the mother brave,
"Back of my soldier across the sea,
He fights this country's cause to save,
He leaves a sacred trust with me.
Mine to keep burning the home fires bright,
To serve and to save with a patriot's might,
That our defenders shall have to eat,
Beef and sugar and fat and wheat."

"I'm marching on," said the maiden fair,
"My brother's a private far away;

He's doing his bit with the boys over there,
I'm doing my bit with the ones that stay,
I'm training the girls for farm and field,
That crops may flourish and gardens yield;

"O, I'll join them—Lezby: do
For we must answer this nation's call,
And our abundance replenish all."

"We're marching—sisters, mothers and wives,
Back of our soldiers brave and true,
Giving our strength as they give their lives,
Marching under the red, white and blue."

For us they are holding the foe at bay,
But we're holding behind, every step
Of the way,
Our men to nurse, and to clothe and to feed,
We're marching on with this nation's need."

All Choked Up With Catarrh? Why Continue Makeshift Treatment?

Sprays and douches will never cure you.

Catarrh is annoying enough when it chokes up your nostrils and air passages, causing painful and difficult breathing and other discomforts. But the real danger comes when it reaches down into your lungs.

This is why you should at once realize the importance of the proper treatment, and lose no time experimenting with worthless remedies which touch only the surface.

To be rid of Catarrh, you must drive the disease germs out of your blood. Splendid results have been reported from the use of S. S. S., which completely roots from your blood the Catarrh germs, for which it is a perfect antidote.

SOCIETY

By CAROL S. DIBBLE

Lovely in the extreme was the wedding of Miss Paula Linn of Portland, the daughter of J. B. Linn of Salem, to Lieutenant Charles Dundore, U. S. A., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dundore which took place Saturday at 5 o'clock at the residence of Miss Ruth Catlin on Culpepper Terrace in Portland, in the presence of a small company of relatives and a few friends. His Grace, Archbishop Alexander Christie, officiated. Miss Marion Voorhies was the maid of honor and Lieutenant Ellsworth Colburn of Minneapolis was the best man. Bridal music was played before and during the ceremony by Mrs. Robert Powers on a harp.

"The bride was beautiful," says the Portland Journal, "in a gown of taupe panne velvet with which she wore a graceful picture hat of taupe faced with a becoming shade of blue. She carried an arm bouquet of gardenias and orchids. Miss Voorhies was becomingly gowned in gray."

"The rooms were decorated in variegated autumn leaves and the richly colored flowers of autumn and lighted tapers added greatly to the effect. Following the ceremony there was an informal reception during which refreshments were served. Mrs. Russell Catlin of Salem presided at the coffee urn and were served by Mrs. Adolph Neu, Miss Jane Murphy of Pendleton, Miss Margaret Biddle and Miss Theodora Stoppenbach.

"Lieutenant Dundore and his bride left last night for Sacramento, he being attached to the aviation corps at Mather field near that city. He expects soon to be reassigned, probably to Texas. Mrs. Dundore is a graduate of Miss Catlin's school and later attended the University of Oregon, where the romance ending in marriage had its inception. Lieutenant Dundore was graduated from the University of Oregon with the class of 1918 and is a Kappa Sigma. He immediately entered the aviation training camp near San Francisco, from which he received his commission."

Mrs. Dundore formerly made her home in Salem and since then has frequently visited here, claiming a large number of friends among the younger contingent both in Salem and Portland, with whom she is very popular. The engagement of the young couple was announced last March and since that time the charming bride has been especially and delightfully entertained, all the affairs of the past few weeks being in accordance with the latest war and quarantine regulations.

Another Salem girl has answered the call to patriotic duty, Miss Emily Griffin. One of sixty eight young women who completed the Reed college course of training for reconstruction aides last month, Miss Griffin has been notified by the surgeon general of her acceptance in order to be in readiness for overseas service at any time.

Miss Griffin was a popular instructor at the Salem high school, where she had charge of the girls' physical training department. Her parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Griffin, reside in Kenosha, Wisconsin, where Rev. Griffin is pastor of the Episcopal church. He was at one time in charge of a pastorate at Eugene.

Miss Griffin visited in Salem just prior to the opening of the schools this fall.

Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson returned last night from Portland, where she has been spending several days.

A rare and beautiful old Italian oil painting of the Madonna, painted by Giovanni Battista Salvi Sassoferro, belonging to Laurence Hofer, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hofer, was shown at a private view in Portland Saturday. The picture is of great value and Mr. Hofer has refused to part with it at any price. Mr. Hofer is attached to the American navy submarine chaser division. While in Scotland recently he visited a curio shop, where he discovered this Sassoferro, which among a number of other art treasures and relics were being sold by their owners, on account of prevailing war conditions. A connoisseur from Edinburgh pronounced the picture genuine and Mr. Hofer bought it and sent it home.

Although the painter's last name was Salvi, he is known as Sassoferro because he was born in the year 1605 near a castle of that name in the neighborhood of Urbino, Italy. Sassoferro painted only religious subjects, mostly the Madonna and the sleeping Holy Child. It is said that there are few of this artist's works in this country. He died in 1685.

Another antique of decided worth which Mr. Hofer obtained is a pair of candlesticks 150 years old, which he has sent home to his mother.

A combined outing and hiking trip was enjoyed over the week end by Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zimmerman, their destination being Mary's Peak. They motored to Philomath Saturday evening, and Sunday morning drove up into the mountains, till within a distance of six miles from the top of the mountain, which last climb they made by foot, hiking about fifteen miles in all, before driving home last evening.

Mrs. R. J. Hendricks is entertaining as her guest, her sister, Mrs. E. A. Greenwood, of Salt Lake City, at her home on North Summer street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Abbott and their daughter, accompanied by Mrs. J. Griffith, and son, John, motored to Foley Springs for the week end.

THE VOLUNTEER'S MOTHER

He was so beautiful—my baby son! His sun-kissed curls clung close around his head; His deep blue eyes looked trustingly in mine. I did my best to keep his beauty fair. And fresh and clean and dainty, for I knew I never could be satisfied with less.

SENTIMENT IN STATTON

(Turner Tribune, Rep.)

While in Silverton Tuesday afternoon we found that the political feeling there centered on Walter Pierce for governor and Alex LaFollette for state senator. We were told that the labor element strongly endorsed both of these gentlemen. Several business men informed us that it was their belief that Mr. LaFollette would carry the city vote with a good margin. Reports received from Astoria, Jefferson, Marion, Statton and Mill City, show LaFollette stronger than he was in the primaries. The north end of the county will roll up its usual large vote. Mr. LaFollette is a winner, paste this in your hat.

Expectant Mothers View Event Calmly

Time Brings Knowledge That by Use of Penetrating Remedy Suffering is Avoided.

Thousands of women have found by the application of Mother's Friend, the penetrating remedy, prepared especially for expectant mothers, that pain and suffering at the crisis is avoided and that in addition the months preceding the crisis are free from nervousness, nausea, dizziness and bearing-down pains and general discomfort. Mother's Friend makes it possible for the expectant mother to herself actually aid nature in the glorious work to be performed, and no woman should neglect to give nature a helping hand. It will mean infinitely less pain and the hours at the crisis will be free of the agony that so many women endure. The period is one of calm repose and restful nights.

By the use of Mother's Friend the skin is kept soft and natural, and experienced mothers say that it is much better to keep your health and good looks during the period of expectancy than to try to regain them after the crisis.

Write the Bradford R. Remedy Company, Dept. G, Lamar Building, Atlanta, Georgia, for their free illustrated book, and obtain a bottle of Mother's Friend and begin its use at once.

I gave my days and nights to keep him so—

Called in fresh air and sunlight to my aid,

Good food and play, all healthful things of life.

I wanted physical perfection, for I never could be satisfied with less.

He was so bright and clever, my big son!

I sent him to the very best of schools, Denying self that he might know no lack.

Of opportunity to do his best.

Or feel no door of progress closed to him,

I never could be satisfied with less.

And yet—but now—my well-beloved son,

For your perfection can I pay the price?

Or would I have you play the coward's part.

With selfish, shriveled soul too small to dwell

Within so fair a frame. Is that my choice?

I sought the best! Shall I be satisfied with less?

Nay, I would have you honorable, my son—

Just, loyal, brave, and truthful, scorn-

ing fear

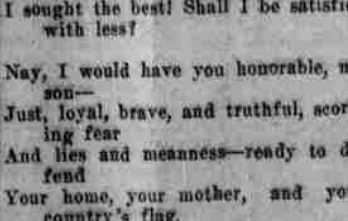

And lies and meanness—ready to defend

Your home, your mother, and your country's flag.

He's gone! Dear God! With bleeding heart I know

I still could not be satisfied with less!

—SARAH BENTON YOUNG.
