SOCIETY

By CAROL E. DIBBLE.

Of interest to a large circle of Salem friends is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Esther Caroline Cox of Arlington, Oregon, and Sergeant Wesley Sanford Todd, of Tacoma.

Her fiancé is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Edward H. Todd of Tacoma, former Salem residents. Dr. Todd is president of the College of Puget Sound and was at one time vice president of Willamette university.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Vandervort were hosts last week at a series of china breakfast dinners of a delightfully informal nature.

Monday night Mrs. Vandervort also entertained a few guests at a similar enjoyable affair. On this occasion glowing yellow dahlias decked the table which was presided by Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Holt and daughters, Miss Grace Holt and Miss Virginia Holt, and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bergman and son, Donald, and the hosts.

Dr. and Mrs. R. Cartwright are entertaining as their guest, Mrs. George E. Cartwright of New Salem, North Dakota. Mrs. Cartwright will be in Salem some little time, as she plans to eventually locate on the coast.

Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., and Mrs. Earl Piegel, who have been ill for several days with the influenza at the home of their parents, Dr. and Mrs. U. G. Holt, are considerably improved this week. Their brother, Milton Steiner, is also on the road to recovery, after a severe illness of over a week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hughes are spending a few days in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Scott are congratulating upon the arrival of a daughter, born yesterday. She has been named Doris Jean, in honor of her mother, who was Doris Doris Byford of Portland.

Mrs. Cordelia B. Hager of 691 Union street has received word that her son, Harold Hager, who has been seriously ill with the influenza at the Walter Reed hospital in Washington, D. C., is rapidly recuperating.

Mrs. John Scott of Oregon City returned home the latter part of the week after a brief visit in Salem as the guest of her son, Dr. O. L. Scott, and family.

Miss Ploy Button left the latter part of the week for Smithland, Iowa, where she will spend the winter with her parents. Miss Button has been a teacher in the Lincoln school the past year. Prior to her departure she was entertained at an informal dinner party given by Mrs. Frank Myers at the Myers residence on South Commercial street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Canfield were Portland visitors over the week end. Miss Alta Jones returned Sunday from a visit of a few weeks at Joseph, Oregon.

Walter Sobolofsky was a dinner host to a number of Willamette students Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Sobolofsky, 1965 North Cottage street. Raymond Rarey, who has left Salem for his home at Spokane, where he expects to be called in the service shortly was the honor guest of the occasion.

PIGEONS ARE PLANING

Three men are attached to each cote. They train the pigeons, see that the fighting unit to which they are attached is kept supplied with birds, watch for their charges when they return from the front, and then see that the message brought in by the pigeon is promptly delivered.

World Has Never Known Its Equal. "What will get rid of my corn?" The answer has been made by millions—there's only one corn remover that you can bank on, that's absolutely certain, that makes any corn on earth peel right off like a banana skin—and that's magic "Get-It." Tight shoes and dancing even when you have a corn need not disturb you if you apply a few drops of "Get-It" on the corn or callus.

Portland Man Dies. Portland, Oct. 29.—W. J. Clemens, well known insurance man, died here today following a long illness.

HOW MOTHER BURDICK STOOPEO ENTIRE ARMY

Mrs. Burdick Ran All-Night Chocolate Service For Advancing Army.

By Frank J. Taylor. (United Press Staff Correspondent.) With the American Army in France, Oct. 3.—(By Mail.)—"Mother" Burdick, the little Texas woman who invented "strawberry cake" and won the heart of every doughboy who flocked into the little Salvation Army hut for cake and doughnuts and pie, has a new stunt which delights the soldiers.

Recently a new division suddenly appeared in "Mother" Burdick's area, or rather the 1st unit, it appeared. They were going to the front the first doughboys told her. She was business at once. Calling "Pa" Burdick and her other assistants, "Mother" Burdick got pots of chocolate on the stove at once. It was then fairly late at night.

"Mother" Burdick went out to find the general commanding the division. In the dark it was pretty hard to locate the general, but she finally cornered him. He was surprised. Being a newcomer in France with a new division, he had never heard of the Salvation Army women.

So he gave the order for groups to stop one by one for rest at the Salvation Army hut, as they passed through the general stopped himself for a cup of chocolate.
