GERMANS SEND NEW NOTE.

By Robert J. Bender

Washington, Oct. 30.—Germany has sent a supplementary communication to the United States, on the subject of peace. It reached the Swiss legation this forenoon and was delivered by the Swiss charge shortly before noon.

The new message described what Germany is doing in the way of constitutional changes to make the government responsible to the people.

It was said that it does not alter the peace situation as it stands today, not making any new proposals.

It is understood to have been unsolicited and constitutes a voluntary move on the part of Germany. The text may not be made public immediately.

The supplementary message was by way of amplifying previous statements of the German government that it had politically reformed. The note, which it supplements, declared that the president "knows about these reforms."

It was regarded here, therefore, as a last-minute effort to persuade the president that the kaiser's power had been effectually shorn and that armistice dealings would, in reality, be with the German people—not the Hohenzollerns.

How the government regards the sincerity of the explanations was not forthcoming.

The note, which is quite long is unsigned and directed not to President Wilson, but to the United States government. It is more in the nature of a memorandum for public consumption in the United States than an official document solely for the review of the officials.

While the increasing efforts of the central powers for an armistice before they are definitely beaten, there was growing belief here today that the United States and the allies should dispatch their armistice terms and peace terms simultaneously, the former to be granted upon the condition that Germany and her allies accept the latter.

As some expressed it there would be no use in granting an armistice if there was then to be prolonged wrangling and chance for discord at the peace table. Germany, they said, should be given an armistice only if she agrees to the allied peace terms.

Conference at Versailles.

The Versailles conference will agree to adhere to President Wilson's peace points.

This was stated in authoritative American official and entente diplomatic quarters today. As a corollary to the basic acceptance of the question of an armistice has been given over to the military advisers, and according to the United Press' information, armistice terms will be forthcoming before the week ends.

And differences as to the application of the president's 14 points will be thrashed out in the final peace agreement, it was said. It was emphasized that the Versailles conference will close with a completely united diplomatic front.

With armistice terms about ready for presentation to Germany, her broken ally, Austria, was today madly scrambling to get a separate peace before the complete crash comes.

New Austrian Appeal.

Her latest reported note—an appeal to Secretary Lansing to use influence upon President Wilson for such a peace—had not been received. But it was expected to follow closely on her peace answer delivered late yesterday, which was before President Wilson and Secretary Lansing today. That the allies and the United States are ready to make terms on the basis of surrender of Austria is considered likely. But the content, it was learned authentically, will stipulate that Bohemia and Slovakia be occupied as a base for future operations against Germany before an armistice will be allowed Austria. Austria is regarded as in the position of having to take practically any terms the entente and America present.

Must Give Up Entire Fleet.

The original ticket was that Germany would have to give up her submarine fleet and permit occupation of her grand fleet pending the outcome of the final peace negotiations. British pressure may have altered that, for press dispatches from abroad now suggest that surrender of not only the U-boats but the grand fleet will be required.

Austria's note of yesterday will probably be forwarded to Versailles at once. Her supplementary appeal from Count Andrássy, the new foreign minister, to Lansing, is unusual. Diplomatic procedure ordinarily would require that she ask a neutral to aid, rather than ask an enemy secretary of state directly for his good offices.

The semi-official Austrian explanation to the press that her appeal need not imply she was asking for a separate peace, apart from Germany, was interpreted here merely as a feeble effort to show that Germany and Austria are still united. However, the explanation showed that what was wanted will be a separate peace—in the interest of general peace.

Czecho-Slovak Question.

President Wilson has said that the Czecho-Slovak and Jugo-Slav must be satisfied with the peace outcome. The Czecho-Slovak national council is understood to insist on nothing short of unconditional surrender of Austria.

Students in the City.

Students in the city have formed a council to co-operate with the Magyar national council.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lumpy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

President Wilson was reported this morning as preparing a reply to the latest Austrian peace plea, which was expected to be completed and made public some time today—but probably not until late this evening. That the president would merely pass on the Austrian appeal to Versailles for settlement, notifying Austria of his action was the conviction here.

idealism to save Germany from her just fate. The Germans, holding no higher motives than those of force and idealism, believe that America's idealism must necessarily be based on sentimentality and weakness of character.

The Kaiser, therefore, expects the United States to accept his flattery and to summon all the rest of the world as sinners to hear the irrevocable judgments of the American nation. By this means the democracies of Europe would naturally be incited to enmity against America.

The resulting discord would immeasurably benefit German interests. It is not through any such intrigue as this that a just peace can be imposed on the Germans. Peace must be in agreement with the fundamental terms of all the democratic nations, if democracy is to win the war.

Germany must not be allowed to gain the victory by subtly planting seeds of future strife between America and the democracies of Great Britain and France.

Sailing Vessel Sunk At Pier In Seattle

Seattle Wash, Oct. 30.—Rammed during a heavy fog as she lay at buoy number two in Elliott bay, the sailing vessel A. J. Fuller was sunk after being hit by the Japanese steamship, Mexico Maru, a few hundred yards from the Seattle waterfront early this morning.

The A. J. Fuller now rests on the bottom of the bay in 30 fathoms of water. The mate and nightwatchman were the only persons aboard the Fuller at the time of the sinking. They were rescued, the Mexico Maru was on her way to pier 6 when she rammed the schooner, which, sinking, took the buoy down with her.

A full cargo of Alaska canned salmon went down with the Fuller, which was owned and operated by the Northwestern Fisheries company.

The A. J. Fuller was of 1600 tons gross, and plied between Unk, Alaska, and Seattle. She sank in ten minutes after being rammed.
