

"I have been taking Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for constipation and find it a splendid remedy. I recommend it to my friends and will never be without it in my home."
(From a letter to Dr. Caldwell written by Mrs. James Dills, Schenly, Pa.)

A combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, free from opiates and narcotic drugs, pleasant to the taste, and gentle, yet positive, in its action, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the recognized remedy for constipation in countless homes.

the Belgian drive and further concentrations can be expected in the Verdun region designed to oppose the desperate hold Germany is still maintaining there. Once that is shaken the push back to the Rhine would be a comparatively easy matter.

The second and third phases are quite logical developments of the present Italian drives and the near-eastern smash of the allies. How many British troops can be released by Turkey's withdrawal is not stated, but it is assumed that they can be of material aid in the Balkan campaign against the back door.

As for the fourth phase, Turkey's surrender has made it possible for the allies to enter the Black sea and to capture or destroy the German-held. This is a chance which naval men say will not be overlooked.

JACK DEMPSEY WINE.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 31.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight, was given a permanent injunction against his former manager, John Reiser, of New York, and was awarded $500 and costs in a decision here today. The decision formally recognizes Jack Kearns as Dempsey's manager and denies Reiser's plea to share Dempsey's fight earnings.

REPORT OF HUGHES
SINGLES OUT DEEDS FOR COURT MARTIAL

Much Money Squandered But No Criminal Intent Suggested.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Secretary of War Baker was considering today the recommendation of Charles E. Hughes, that the war department consider the advisability of court martialing Colonel Deeds, aircraft leader. The Hughes report of the investigation into the aircraft situation placed in Baker's hands late yesterday, was studied by the secretary last night and a decision as to court martial was expected soon.

The report was generally viewed here as milder in its conclusions than the senate air probe findings.

Hughes held Deeds was guilty of nothing criminal, but considered he had done things unbecoming an officer in giving war department data to men with whom he formerly was associated and that he had advised the committee on public information incorrectly as to the air program.

At the same time, Hughes recommended criminal action against Lieutenant Colonel J. G. Vincent, former Packard Motor Car company vice president, Lieutenant Colonel W. G. Mixter and Second Lieutenant Samuel B. Vrooman, Jr., for alleged violation of statutes providing that government officials shall not have business interests in concerns with which they have official contact.

About $24,000,000 was found to have been lost through abandoning two types of airplanes and failing to do salvaging.

In answer to claims that the original vast appropriations had been squandered, Hughes pointed out that the expenditures and commitments up to October 1, were less than the original grant.

"The defective organization of the work of the aircraft production and the serious lack of competent direction

Electrical Treatment And Everything Else Failed To Help Her—Tanlac Restores Her.

"There, that is what I have been looking for the past six months," said Mrs. Vi Legault, who resides at 231 1-2 Post street, Spokane, Wash., pointing to the big Tanlac display in Murphree's Drug Store, recently.

"My sister's health has broken down," Mrs. Legault continued, "and I firmly believe Tanlac will fix her up as it did me three years ago."

"Before I took it I was suffering from a complication of ailments which had resulted in nervous prostration. My troubles all started from a bad stomach and I was in a pitiable condition. Everything I ate would sour causing me such awful pains in the pit of my stomach that I could hardly stand it. My nerves were in a bad shape, I was badly constipated and even now I hate to think of the terrible headaches I had. I also suffered from pains and weakness in my right side, which was the worst kind of torture. Electrical treatment and everything else was tried on me, except an operation, which I refused to stand for, but nothing did me any good. I had always weighed around one hundred and forty eight pounds, but my suffering pulled me down to one hundred and twelve, and I was scarcely more than a frame. I really had no desire to live as my case seemed to be hopeless."

"Well some wonderful things happen in this world, and my recovery is one of them. I picked up a paper one day in Detroit, Michigan, where I was living at the time and read a Tanlac testimonial given by a lady who lived but a short distance from me, and right then I decided to try Tanlac. The results I obtained are nothing less than remarkable. My appetite soon came back, my stomach got so I could eat and digest my food and every one of my troubles gradually left, and the first thing I knew I was regaining my lost weight and strength. After using five bottles of Tanlac I found that I had one up to one hundred and fifty-two pounds—actually gaining forty pounds—making several pounds more than I had ever weighed before. And although it has been nearly three years now since Tanlac restored me I have never been bothered with any of my old troubles to this good day, and I have held my weight, always weighing around one hundred and fifty pounds. So you can see why I have been so anxious to find Tanlac for my sister. I am going to let her know right away where she can get it. I am glad to give this statement, for the best way I know to pay the debt of gratitude I owe Tanlac is to tell others how it has made life worth living for me."

Tanlac is sold in Stubbard by Stubbard Drug Co.; in Mt. Angel by Jen Gooch, in Gervais by John Kelly, in Turner by H. P. Cornelius, in Woodburn by Lyman H. Shorey, in Salem by Dr. S. C. Stone, in Silverton by Geo. A. Stenhammer, in Gates by Mrs. J. P. McCurdy and in Stayton by C. A. Beauchamp, in Aurora by Aurora Drug Store. (Adv.)

of that work by the responsible officers of the signal corps," said the conclusions, "to which the delays and waste were chiefly due, were matters for administrative correction through unification of effort under competent control."

He held the reorganization under John D. Ryan has caused marked improvement.

Vast profits in airplane production were revealed but none was held to be in bad faith. The Dayton-Wright company, it was estimated, should make over $8,000,000 on contracts up to next March; the Ford Motor company over $5,000,000 on contracts to January; the Packard company over $6,000,000 on contracts to January.

Attorney General Gregory's supplemental letter held that more than half of these profits were taken in taxes by the government. Hughes, himself, pointed out that manufacturers figured on a liberal profit margin and that there was small incentive to economize under the cost accounting system.

Hughes found that there had been some bad organization work and that in some cases contracts were given to poorly equipped plants over well equipped ones. The report showed that contracts withdrawn from the Engel Aircraft company, were re-awarded after Secretary of War Baker's brother had resigned from the concern.

Neither political party found much for campaign material in the Hughes report. One phase eagerly seized upon by politicians was that Hughes showed Henry Ford persisted in employing men of German origin. Gregory's report added that the result of Ford's factory had been fully up to requirements.

DOCTORS FAILED TO HELP

But Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Removed the Cause of this Woman's Illness.

Worcester, Mass.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a weakness and pain which used to keep me in bed for two days each month. I tried many doctors without benefit until I was really discouraged. My mother urged me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as it had helped her so much. I did so and soon saw a change for the better. I kept on taking it and now I can do all my housework, even my washing and I have a little baby who is as healthy as I could ask—thanks to your Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. F. H. STOWE, 24 Bowdoin St., Worcester, Mass.

Women who suffer from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, headaches and nervousness should lose no time in giving this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial.

Charges Germans With Unnecessary Barbarities
London, Oct. 31.—(British admiralty wireless.)—"The rules of international law which were also the rules of humanity, have been observed in this country, but have been over and over again flagrantly broken by our enemies." Sir George Cave, home secretary declared in addressing the house of commons on the barbarous treatment of British prisoners of war. "Some of the German internment camps are reasonably well organized, but there are other camps where conditions were almost unendurable and inhumanities went on which almost were past belief.

"These things go on today, and evidence the government had got from returned prisoners, is very much on the same lines as previously.

"It is estimated that the number of deaths in prisoner war camps, since November 1, 1918, is 2000 of all nations.

With regard to working parties, Cave said the men were beaten and tortured, and made to work when they were ill. They were underfed and overworked in fact everything was done to break their spirit, but Sir George said he thanked God that in most cases it was not broken.

Sir George said he had the best reason for believing that in any armistice the government should insure that, as an essential and primary condition, all prisoners of war in enemy countries be unconditionally released. He threatened to do these things," he declared.

"We have got to take them by the throat and punish them so that it will redress for cruelties.

"It is no good talking to the people but a example for generations to come."
