F. E. Neely and wife of Tiller, Oregon are in the city.

George Rogers came home from Astoria to vote. He returned this morning.

Henry N. Stoudenmeyer, former director of the Cherian band, was in the city yesterday from Portland. He has recently gone into one of the Vancouver ship yards.

W. H. Hamilton is in eastern Oregon on business for the Portland Railway Light and Power Company.

Bernard R. Bewley is visiting his mother Mrs. E. Bewley at her home on South Church street. He has been called into the service and will leave next week for Camp Lewis.

themselves down to the official nomination.

Having completed its allotment, and with no work ahead, the surgical dressing department of the Red Cross, working at the postoffice, is taking a short vacation. As soon as another allotment is received, work will be resumed.

Cupid made a winning race with the anti-Cupid forces at the court house during the month of October. The records show that 11 marriage licenses were issued at the office of the county clerk, while but seven divorces were granted. Ten suits for divorces were filed during October but decrees were issued to only the seven.

W. J. Culver, roadmaster of Marion county, says that the work of scarifying and regrading the road between Salem and Turner has been completed and that the road is now open to travel.

Next week the scarifier and rolling outfit will begin on the road south of Salem, towards Liberty. As there is some question as to the paving of the road between Liberty and Salem, the scarifier will begin work south of Liberty. If the government will permit, it is probable that the road between Salem and Liberty will be paved.

Women are getting the political plums in West Salem, as Bethwilda Bedford has been chosen as recorder. Other officers elected are: J. R. Bedford, mayor; Sherman Elliott, city treasurer; Thomas Bean, city marshal; aldermen, W. C. Heise, E. C. Bushnell, J. I. Miller, James Wood, J. R. Shields and J. T. Hunt.

Although the food administration announces that eggs must be retailed at a profit of eight cents above the buying price, this will not especially change the present figure. The market has been rather wobbly for several days and prices all the way from 80 to 83 cents a dozen have been paid. There is the satisfaction that in paying 70 cents a dozen that the price suits the federal food administration and that possibly, since hens may eat wheat that the peak of the retail market has been reached.

Buying In Shipping Shares Was Heavier

New York, Nov. 6.—The Evening Sun financial review says: Political doubts did not entirely preclude the promise of success for the republicans in both branches of the national legislature and this hope did not permit the stock list to stay depressed, although trading was held in check. The war news, while not a very active factor, still held a great deal of interest.

Buying was most pronounced in the shipping shares, due to the announcement that the chairman of the International Merchant Marine had arrived with the terms of the sale of the British ships to interests in England.

Liberty bonds were firm, the 3 1/2's again touching par. Other bonds were higher.

Prohibition Carries Heavy In Wyoming

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 6.—Prohibition was adopted in Wyoming by about three to one, returns showed today, while United States Senator Warren and the entire republican congressional and state tickets were elected by pluralities ranging from five to seven thousand.

United States Senator Warren, father-in-law of General Pershing and present republican incumbent, together with Carey for governor and Representative Mondell, for congressman at large, all republicans, have been elected.

The race between Mrs. Morton, republican candidate and Mrs. Hefferech, democrat, for superintendent of public instruction is very close.

three of the freezing mark last evening. With a record of 35 above, it was the coldest night in Salem since April 5 when the mercury touched the 33 notch. The weather during these November mornings and afternoons is about 10 degrees colder than it was during the first week of November of one year ago. Last year in November the maximum temperature was running along at 60 and 62 while so far this month, it has been 32 and 33.

Mrs. John Miller, of Gervais, rural route 2, box 44, writes the Salem Journal that she is trying to locate her husband. She asks the assistance of the city police force.

Dr. O. B. Miles, city health officer reports eight new cases of influenza today. The situation in the city is holding about the same as in the past week or so. While a number are recovering the new cases coming in each day keeps the situation such that the ban has not been taken off meetings. It is thought with conditions as they are now, there will be little prospects of the opening of the schools next week. However, the health authorities state that everything depends on general conditions.

Officer Mariels brought to the police headquarters last night Alton Brannon, age 15, and Nounce Radelliff, age 12. They confessed to the robbery of the confectionary store at 1863 State street last night. Their plunder consisted mostly of 127 pennies, chewing gum and candy. The boys will be handed over to Judge Bushey. It is understood that one of them is on parole from the reform school.

The casualty list of today contains the name of Fred Ehlen of Aurora, who is listed as slightly wounded. He is the son of Henry C. Ehlen of Aurora.

Walt S. Low, street commissioner, says that he is now building a culvert at 20th street on the road towards Turner and that the road will be closed from 14th to 24th streets.

By order of Captain J. H. Arnold, members of Company F, Oregon guard, will assemble Friday evening at 7 o'clock for essential war work. This does not mean that the boys will meet inside the armory, as the ban is still on for armory meetings.

As almost every student has been shot in the arm and the S. A. T. C. are wearing masks having also been shot, classes have been resumed at Willamette university.

A subscriber hands in the following sure thing for influenza: Take equal parts of ground cinnamon, sulphur and sugar. Bury on the top of the stove both as a fumigator and to inhale the odor.

Charles McGraw, one of a gang of 30 convicts employed at Lake Labish digging potatoes, escaped last night, making the second time he has taken French leave from the state prison during the time he has been serving a sentence of two to five years for burglary committed in Washington county. It is said he was slated for parole within a week, but he thought the parole board had broken faith with him and decided to employ his own method in gaining freedom. He was 38 years old and was committed in 1913.

Feix A. English, who is attending the Central Officers' Training school at Camp Pike, near Little Rock, Arkansas, writes to friends here that Arkansas doesn't stack up with the Willamette valley and that he would really like to see some green grass. Down in Arkansas around Little Rock he says it is rather rocky and barren, although a fine place for a camp. He writes that the food is good and that the men are well supplied with clothing. That Camp Pike proper consists of about 65,000 men and three battalions of officers cadets. The man who is studying to become an officer is obliged to work harder than the other troops, he writes. As to the weather in that part of the south, he writes it is much like the Oregon climate this time of year, only there is but little rain.

Charles E. Warren of Eugene has composed a song entitled, "The Spirit of Nineteen Seventeen" which according to his letter is "dedicated to the

WETS LEAD IN OHIO.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 6.—Tabulations from 4,640 of the state's 5,756 precincts late today showed the wets leading by a majority of 11,479. Both wet and dry members are still claiming the state. The remainder of the precincts to report are largely rural.

Allied Heroes for Liberty." He states: "This poem is a little gem and the music most pleasing, the composition as a whole will readily take rank and place in the history of the present great struggle." As a means of selling his song he has resurrected the old endless chain system and all that one has to do in order to get a copy is to send two bits in real money and six cents in stamps to Mr. Warren at Eugene and then make three copies of his letter and send to friends who might be interested in music and patriotism. He promises in his letter to give 40 per cent of the proceeds from the sale, approximately net to the "Liberty Boys Fund."

The Astoria Chamber of Commerce has written the Salem Commercial club for a lot of information regarding the working of the Salem organization, to be used for matters of comparison. It wants to know whether the leading merchants are supporting the Commercial club and how much they pay as monthly dues. Information is also wanted as to how many grocers are members, whether all the drug store men are in and if the banks as well as the moving picture theatres do their share in supporting the club. C. I. Barr, secretary of the Astoria Chamber of Commerce was in the city about a week ago looking over the situation here and finding out whether the merchants of the capitol city are properly supporting its Commercial club.
