It Is Perfectly Wonderful The Way Gausz Treatment Drives Away Catarrh

An excessive secretion from the nostrils is an unsightly misery. A breath tainted with the odor of catarrh is an offense against all health and decency. A stomach filled with droppings from diseased nasal cavities may cause untold misery, and ruins the complexion. The bowels clogged with strings ofropy mucus indicates a body literally reeking with catarrh, causing pimples, blotches and other skin eruptions.

The blood swarming with millions of catarrh germs, attacks upon the kidneys a labor that may break them down; the lungs and bronchial tubes, scourged with the destructive influence of systemic catarrh, can lead to anemia and the most serious consequences.

So why continue with all this misery? Send your name and address today for a free trial of Mr. Gausz's famous treatment. Mail it to C. E. Gausz, 5907 Main St., Marshall, Mich. It will not cost you a penny to try it, and it surely will astonish you with its wonderful effect. Fill out coupon and mail it today.

GERMAN ROUT ON ENTIRE FRONT.

The Germans are apparently in rout on the entire front from the Sambre to the Meuse.

The official report of the French war office today indicated that the enemy lines have crumbled along the whole line of nearly 100 miles.

Huge gains were reported at a points on this front and whereas the communiques of the past few days have definitely fixed the limits of the advance, today's statement intimated that the allies progress is so rapid this could not be done.

The French have leaped forward at least five miles on their left flank, clearing the forests of Nouvion and Regnaval, and bearing down upon Hirson, from which they are now seven miles distant. Capture of this town will close the northern exit of the German armies southwest of the Ardennes, completing their entrapment.

At the point where the French line joins with that of the American first army, French cavalry has gone into action again and is reported to be approaching the Meuse between Sedan and Mezieres. In the center French troops have pushed forward several miles north of the Serre.

GREATEST OF WORLD WARS COMES TO END

Paris, Nov. 7.—The greatest war of all time came to an end at 2 p. m. today. The allies and Germany signed an armistice three hours earlier on the field of battle. The German delegation had come in to the allied lines under a white flag. Sedan, one of the historic cities in Europe, was captured by the Americans this morning, after an additional advance of more than four miles.

AMERICANS SWEEP ON TOWARD SEDAN

By Webb Miller. (United Press staff correspondent.)

With the American Armies in France, Nov. 7.—(Noon)—The first army today speeded up its already swift advance upon Sedan and is bearing down rapidly upon the city, now only a few kilometers distant. American aviators report the Germans are hurriedly retreating behind the city.

East of the Meuse, observers declare that at some points the enemy retirement is practically a rout, great quantities of equipment and material being abandoned. The Americans made further progress on the important heights behind Dun-Sur-Meuse and gained the crest of Cote St. Germain.

London, Nov. 7.—American troops advanced on a wide front astride the Meuse yesterday, the American official communique announced today. West of the river the Americans captured Raucourt, Bulson and Haraucourt carrying their lines to within less than four miles of Sedan.

Along the east bank, they advanced about two miles, and a half, occupying Marvaux, Fontaines and hill 284. "East of the Meuse we advanced four kilometers and captured Marvaux hill 284 and Fontaines," the statement said. "West of the river we captured Raucourt, Bulson and Haraucourt."

ALLIES PRESSING

ing their pressure on the 150-mile front from the Scheldt to the Meuse, made important advances all along the line yesterday. The greatest progress was made by the French in the center. They shoved ahead nearly eight miles, carrying their lines to within that distance of Hirson, which constitutes the northern gateway for the German armies rapidly being trapped along the southwestern edge of the Ardennes. A similar advance today may see the practical isolation of these enemy forces completed, as the Americans have virtually closed the eastern exit in the Meuse region.

The French, with Italian troops co-operating, went forward between the Sambre and the Bar rivers. They captured the important town of Verwin, on the road to Hirson, and also took Montcornet, Retel and Attigny. The Aisne has been completely passed. On the French left the western outskirts of the Nouvion and Regnaval forests was reached.

The Italians crossed the Hurdant river, and stormed Rosoy-Sur-Siere. North of the Aisne, French troops reached the general line of LaFardoy on the outskirts of Chaumont-Porcier, Doumely, Begny, Nerbying and the railway between Retel and Liart. On the right, the French advanced to the general line of Vanzelles, Auboucourt, Sorcy, Bauthemont, Ecorail, Quincourt, Jevail and Chagnilles Oronout, nearly 50 miles north of Attigny. Where the French and American lines join, the latter captured Vendresse and pushed northward, storming Omicourt.

British Continue Progress. London, Nov. 7.—The British continued their progress along the whole battle front yesterday evening, Field Marshal Haig reported today.

"Our progress on the battlefield continued yesterday evening," the statement said. "We have taken Dompierre and Monceau-St. Vaast and have reached or passed the line of the Avesnes-Bavay road between Monceau-St. Vaast and the railway south of Bavay. "A counter-attack in the evening southeast of Bavay was repulsed with heavy losses to the enemy and our line was advanced."

Enter Constantinople. Washington, Nov. 7.—The allies have entered Constantinople and are engaged in demobilizing and disarming the Turkish troops, according to military officials here today. An allied military commission also has reached Sofia, the Bulgarian capital, and is restoring order there and disarming the Bulgarian troops, it is said.

COMBING WON'T RID HAIR OF DANDRUFF

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustreous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

old rut and is showing considerable life. Lambs are in demand at an advance of 50 cents and the mutton end of the trade is strong at following quotations: Prime lambs, $11.50@12.50; fair to medium lambs, $8.50@10.50; yearlings, $10.00@11.00; wethers, $9.00@10.00; ewes, $6.00@8.50. The receipts of live stock at the North Portland Union Stock yards to date is approximately 2,000 cattle, 3,900 hogs and 3,400 sheep.

Unlike Topsy— Swift & Company Has Not "Jest Grewed"

Swift & Company, in fifty years of well ordered growth, has become one of the great national services because it has learned to do something for the American people which they needed to have done for them, in the way in which they preferred to have it done.

It has met each successive demand, in the changing conditions of national life, by getting good meat to increasing millions effectively, efficiently, economically, and expeditiously.

The Swift & Company packing plants, refrigerator cars, car routes, branch houses, organization, and personnel of today are the practical solutions, born of practical experience, to the food problems of a half a century.

Because of all of these elements working in correlation and unison, Swift & Company is able to supply more and better meat to more people than would have been possible otherwise, at a net profit per pound of meat so low (a fraction of a cent) that the consumer price is practically unaffected.

Strip away any portion of this vast, smooth-running human machine, and you make a large part of the meat supply uncertain, lose the benefit of half a century of fruitful experience, and scatter the intelligent energies of men who have devoted a life work toward meeting the needs of a nation in one vital field.

The booklet of preceding chapters in this story of the packing industry will be mailed on request to Swift & Company, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Illinois.

CONTEST PROBABLE IN SELECTING OF NEXT HOUSE SPEAKER

Longworth Of Ohio And Gillett Of Massachusetts Named.

Washington, Nov. 7.—An interesting contest is likely for the speakership of the next house. Half a dozen names were mentioned by republicans today in connection with the place, which passes from democratic hands next March.

Longworth of Ohio and Gillett of Massachusetts are apparently the leading candidates to succeed Champ Clark as boss of the house. Gillett is acting republican leader. Representative Mann of Illinois, the republican leader, is too ill to be considered for the speakership, it is said, though he would doubtless be the almost unanimous choice were he able to undertake the heavy duties involved.

If Gillette is chosen speaker, Longworth probably will succeed him as republican floor leader. Fess, Ohio, chairman of the congressional committee, may get the speakership as a reward for the republican victory in the house. Many republicans give Fess a large share of the credit for organizing the campaign and favor making him speaker or at least floor leader.

Towner, Iowa, member of the committee on education, and Campbell, Kansas, are others whose friends today were booming them for speaker. Unlike Joe Cannon, former speaker, will get a complimentary vote in the republican caucus that picks a speaker but he is not considered seriously for the place. With republican control assured by a considerable majority, democratic interest centered in their own floor leadership. Kitchin, North Carolina, present floor leader, probably will continue to be the leader. Speaker Clark, however, is favored by some, particularly from the north and west. Kitchin's lukewarmness on some war measures has alienated some of the democrats who believe Clark would make better use of the minority strength.
