Question Arises As To Whether City Had Right To Dam Private Water Supply.

Before the circuit court tomorrow will be tried a case involving the quesion as to whether a city or municipal orporation has the right to dam a pring and prevent water from flowing oss a farm adjacent to the land on which the spring is located.

The case is that of Jennie J. Hall against the City of Turner. On October 15, 1915, she filed a complaint against the City of Turner, alleging that she was the owner of about 141 seres of land and that she and her predecessors had been in possession for the past 50 year, and that she had been on the land
