BRITISH TOMMIES NOT AS LIVELY AS YANKEES

Continue Their Work When News Of Signing Is Brought To Them.

By Lowell Mellett
(United Press staff correspondent)
At the Allied Front, Nov. 11.—(Night).—The arrival of peace at the front was not like anything you have imagined.

There was practically no contact with the enemy, and the last real fighting took place at Ath, early this morning.

This afternoon I traveled through Ath and eight miles beyond the British lines without finding a single German. Orders forbidding communication with the enemy were superfluous.

Stomach Dead Man Still Lives

People who suffer from sour stomach, fermentation of food, distress after eating and indigestion, and seek relief in large chunks of artificial digestors, are killing their stomachs by inaction just as surely as the victim of morphine is deadening and injuring beyond repair every nerve in his body.

What the stomach of every sufferer from indigestion needs is a good prescription that will build up his stomach, put strength, energy and elasticity into it, and make it sturdy enough to digest a hearty meal without artificial aid.

The best prescription for indigestion ever written is sold by druggists every where and by Dan T. J. Fry and is rigidly guaranteed to build up the stomach and cure indigestion or money back.

This prescription is named M-I-O-N-A, and is sold in small tablet form in large boxes, for only a few cents. Remember the name, M-I-O-N-A stomach tablets. They never fail.

GERMANS GIVE UP SUBMARINE FLEET

Terms Of Armistice, As Amended By General Foch Have Been Received.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Germany loses her entire fleet of submarines under the armistice terms as amended by Marshal Foch before he signed them with the enemy envoy, Monday morning. Instead of 169 vessels, every one of the under sea pirate craft must be surrendered to the allies and the United States within 14 days.

Eighteen of the articles as originally prepared by the supreme war council and agreed by President Wilson to congress were changed under the limited authority for alteration given to the supreme commander in dealing with the enemy envoys.

The state department last evening received and made public the amended articles, with the explanation that no information had come as to how the changes were brought about.

Concessions Made to Germans. Apparently most of them were conceded in response to appeals of the German spokesmen, though several besides that touching submarines make the terms more drastic than before.

Instead of 50,000 railroad cars to be surrendered in evacuated territory, the number is now 150,000.

On the other hand, the number of machine guns to be delivered by the Germans is reduced from 30,000 to 25,000; the German troops in East Africa are permitted to evacuate instead of being required to surrender; provision is made for considering food needs in Germany in the taking of means of transportation, and a specific reference to the regulation of repatriation of German prisoners of war at the conclusion of peace is added.

Time Extension Granted. In response to the German fear of anarchy in occupied Russian provinces after evacuation, the time of evacuation is changed from immediately to "as soon as the allies, taking into account the internal situation of these territories, shall decide that the time for this has come."

Territories which belonged to Austria-Hungary before the war are added to those which must be evacuated.

Another additional clause provides for an armistice commission to which Germans will be admitted to carry out details under decision of the victorious military heads and in accordance with appended notes, which were drafted during the conference between Marshal Foch and the German delegates.

KAISER NOW CALLS

Conditions may demand extradition of the former kaiser and his trial before a socialist court at Berlin, diplomatic cables received here today suggested.

Feeling against Wilhelm is declared to be increasing in Berlin and throughout Prussia. Strong Bavarian factions are demanding punishment of the deposed monarch and the Krupp interests, the Prussian junkers and militarists and all others within the former German empire responsible for the war, the advices state.

The Post of Munich refers to the high feeling throughout Bavaria against those who deliberately planned the world conflict, particularly Ludendorff, the Krupp and Wilhelm.

Regarding the Krupp, the paper asserts "this enterprise will be made to answer to a court of justice for having given subsidies to general propaganda of war and thus to have sys-

Discussion At Conference.

London, Nov. 13.—The whole question of the former kaiser's possible extradition will probably be discussed at the peace conference which is likely to be held in Versailles before the end of the year.

A United Press dispatch from Amsterdam today said that Wilhelm arrived Monday afternoon in Maarsse on a special train, to take up his residence at Count von Bentinck's castle.

The conditions on which the Dutch government will permit him to stay in Holland cannot be published out of courtesy, the dispatch said, but they are equal to simple military internment. The former kaiser is not on parole, but is under moral obligation to remain in Holland and not to do anything contrary to public order or that will be likely to embarrass Holland with her neighbors or other powers.

Wilhelm, who the United Press correspondent saw alighting from a special train at Maarsse and entering an automobile, was very pale and appeared to be nervous and tired. He was dressed in civilian clothes as a result of a request from the military authorities. He was accompanied by his favorite dachshund.

Reports continue to arrive of the progress of the revolution in Germany and the political metamorphosis of Austria-Hungary.

A Copenhagen dispatch from Vienna said the state council had proclaimed a republic in German-Austria to be a part of the republic of Germany.

Revel of the German garrison in Antwerp was reported from Amsterdam.

The strained relations between Germany and Russia appear to be on the way to adjustment.

A Copenhagen dispatch said that Russian Ambassador Joffe and the whole legation had returned to Berlin.

OFFERS RESOLUTION

By Ed L. Keen
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

London, Nov. 13.—Joint action by the powers will be necessary to send the former kaiser to Elba or St. Helena, or to subject him to criminal prosecution—it was pointed out by the British officials today.

No anxiety is felt regarding the possibility of Wilhelm again interfering with the world peace. He is regarded as impotent for further evil, in view of the drastic armistice forced by the allies.

The internal situation in Germany is believed to be rapidly precluding any slight pro-kaiser sentiment that may linger there. Count Wilhelm Hohenzollern, as he now calls himself, is helpless and hopeless, so far as any "Napoleonic return from Elba" is concerned. The former kaiser lacks the genius to sway the people that was Bonaparte's basis of power.

British newspapers are clamorous for seizure of Hohenzollern's person and his commitment to exile.

The Evening Standard hopes that immediate steps will be taken to secure possession of the former kaiser, declaring "it is the plain duty of the allies, in their own interest, as well as that of humanity and the new Germany." It recalls Napoleon's return from Elba and warns against a repetition.

The borough council of Deptford the Westminster Gazette announced, has adopted this resolution:

"The future of civilization requires punishment of German authorities from the former kaiser down who ordered and permitted specific violation of the law."

A copy of the resolution was sent to Premier Lloyd-George and members of parliament.

"It is our business to demand the Dutch surrender of the former kaiser into our keeping," said the Express.

"Wilhelm and his tribe must be brought to judgment, or, at least, held for safe keeping."

Commenting on the armistice, London newspapers agree in the modest expression that it is "a victory for God." They refrain from boasting and point out that while the armistice undoubtedly is severe, Germany through lies and atrocities has made her own bed and declare that she must lie in it.

The aid given by the United States is particularly emphasized in expression of gratitude.

Regarding Foreign Secretary Solf's appeal to President Wilson to aid "starving Germany," it is pointed out that the armistice provides the allies shall feed Germany.

"Bleeding and impoverished and brought to the verge of ruin, the allies stand at last victorious with the United States behind them," said the Chronicle. "The liberties of the world are saved."
