

"Suicide by Inches"

THOUSANDS of people commit suicide by inches! If one should take minute daily doses of some irritant or poisonous drug, no particular effect might be noticed until accumulation of the poison made its action evident.

Yet how many realize that irritant and poisonous substances are formed constantly, even in health, during food digestion and the preparation of its waste for elimination?

If the bowels act regularly and thoroughly, such dangerous matter is safely gotten rid of.

But if constipation exists, there results stagnation of intestinal waste, increased production of poisonous substances, and their absorption into the blood, which carries them all over the body.

The result is disease or disorder, which, if neglected or allowed to continue, cripples or kills.

The victim of such self-poisoning commits suicide by inches.

Constipation is a bad habit. It is a sin against the body.

But there is an even worse habit, a crime against Nature, the taking of pills, castor oil, laxative mineral waters, and salts to "force the bowels to move." Because such drugs do not cure constipation. They make constipation a habit. They do not prevent "suicide by inches."

On the other hand, the Nujol Treatment not only overcomes constipation, but prevents stagnation and makes self-poisoning impossible.

Nujol is not a drug, does not act like any drug; it is absolutely harmless. Nujol helps Nature re-establish easy, daily, thorough, bowel evacuation.

Warning: Nujol is sold only in sealed bottles bearing the Nujol Trade Mark. Insist on Nujol. You may suffer from substitutes.

Clown Prince Writes the Kaiser

Oh, Der Hun, Scoundrel in France, Aug. 21st 1918.
Dear Papa: I am writing on der run, as der grave and glorious soldiers under vine gummand hat not been der Rhine for so long dey have started back dat vey, and of course I am going mit.
Oh, papa, dere has been some of der dings happening here in France.
First, I started in my big offensive which vas to crush der fool Americans, but dey know so little about millicary tactics dey vill not be, grushed, shunt like a vanted 'em. I sent my men in der fight in big vates, and vey dey got to der Americans dey all said: 'Boo! as loud as dey could holler. Vell, agording to vat you had always told me, der Americans should haf turned and run like phazes. But vat do you tink? Dem fool Americans don't know anything about var, and instead of running dey oder vey! dey come right toward us. Some of dem vas singing some dings like 'we won't go pack till it's over, ofer dere,' or some oder, foolish song, and some of dem vor laughing like fools.
Dey are so ignorant, but dey are so ofel reckless mit dere guns, and vey come toward us it vas den that my men took a notion dey wanted to go back to der old Rhine. Vey don't like ved little old dirty Marne river, any how. Und, oh, papa, dere Americans use such ofel language. Dey know nothing of culture and say such ofel dings right before us. Und talk blasphemous, too. Van you dinks they said eight in front of my face?
One big husky from a place dey call Oklahoma, he said—'Oh, papa, I hate to tell you vat all of der dings he said—'To hell mit der kaiser!' Did you ofer hear anything so ofel? I didn't stand und hear such a ofel dings, so I turned round und ran mit der oder boys.

Vas I right—Vas I, Und, Oh, papa, you know dem breast plates vat you sent us—can you sent us some to put on our backs.
You know ve are going der oder vey now, und breast plates are no good for der toward Americans nor shooting us right in der backs. Some of der boys took dere breast plates off und put dem on behind, but der fool Americans are playing 'Der Star Spangled Banner' mit machine guns, on dem breast plates. Can't you help us? You remember in your speech you said that noddin could stand before der prave Chermann soldiers. Oh, papa, I don't believe der ignorant Americans ofer read your speech, for dey run after us chust like vey vas a lot of rabbits. Vat you dink of dat! Can't you sent dem some of your speeches right away? Dey don't know how terrible ve are.
Can't you move my army back to Belchium, vere ve von all our glory? My men can vip all der vimmins und children vat dem Belchiums can bring up.
But dese Americans are made dem understand dat ve are der so rough und ignorant.
Vey can't greatest soldiers on earth, und vey ve try to sing 'Deutschland Uber Alles' dey luff like a lot of moukeys. But ve are getting der best of der Americans. Vey can outdiers on earth we are der pest runners. Nobody can keep up mit us ven ve tink of der old Rhine, und my army never did tink so much of dat dear old river as right now. Let me know tight away by return postoffice.
CROWN PRINCE VILLIE.

Oh, these common people is so ignorant!

Now, Willie, I want you to be careful. Remember, you is to be the Kaiser of Germany and the whole world, maybe if dem Americans become educated enough, but, Willie, I is so discouraged about dem. I don't believe dey can be educated. But anyhow, you be careful. Remember dat those ignorant Americans might shoot you in der back. I am sending you your breast plates at once, quick. Yes, I am sending you two breast plates. Maybe you had better wear dem both on your back.
Encourage your men all you. --, Willie. Tell dem to fight hard and if dey don't get kill and if dey capture me a live American I will give them an iron cross, maybe.

I am sorry dat I did not train you to run foot races when I trained you to be a soldier. But I didn't think you would ever need to know dat.
I is keeping der Rhine in good shape for you. It is so beautiful.
I fear those ignorant Americans will cut down some of the beautiful trees along it, and oh, Willie that would break my heart. I think I will give dem Americans another chance for peace and if dey don't take it we will retreat back to the beautiful Rhine.
Those ignorant Americans! I is so discouraged with dem. If dey don't accept my peace offer we will have a strategic retreat.

I is very sorry dat those Americans use such bad language.
How ignorant dey is! Just to think, dat big Missourian wanted me to go to hell when he knows well enough that I and Gott is partners and I will go to Hefen.
I wouldn't haf anything to do with such people.
Now, son, I must close. Don't forget to use your breast plates on der other side and make your men be real brave but maybe you had better come back to Berlin until the strategic retreat is over. Then we can blame it on someone else.
Your loving father,
WILHELM.

GERMANY MAKING

should be spoken, not to America, as an intercessor, but to all the victims of German law and cruelty. If the Berlin government receives encouragement in its plan to ignore Europe and deal exclusively as possible with the United States, Hohenzollern in his Dutch waiting place will grin with sardonic satisfaction. The most difficult work of a coalition is not making war, but making peace. Many a beaten nation has saved itself by disrupting conditions at the peace conference. The stake is too large for Germany to neglect any gambler's device that holds a similar possibility of success now.

WILL HOHENZOLLERN TRY TO MOUNT THRONE OF GERMANY AGAIN?

War Expert Says Revolution Has Appearance Of Being Pre-Planned.

By J. W. T. Mason.

(United Press War Expert.)
New York, Nov. 13.—There is deep danger that Hohenzollern will try to mount the throne of Germany again if the delegates to the peace conference succeed in disturbing the harmony of the allies, or sow discord between America and the world's other democracies.

The German revolution shows evidence of having been too carefully organized in too short a time for it to be accepted at its own value.

Hohenzollern's self-imposed exile has taken him into the nearest neutral country from which he could make a quick return if conditions warranted a duplication of Napoleon's escape from Elba. A true revolution should show far more exuberance and a far greater spirit of rejoicing over the winning of freedom than has yet been demonstrated in Germany.

"When a nation has been crushed into mediocrity as Germany has been, a certain amount of inefficiency is inevitable before the true road to liberty is found. Germany has not yet passed through a transition period. There is no indication that new machinery of the government is being used, although new names are replacing the old ministers.

If the revolution had been carefully planned long in advance by Germany efficiency experts, as a final piece of organization to save the old autocratic spirit of the fatherland, it would not have been arranged any differently than it has been.

A revolution that permits a crown prince to return to the lead of its army after renouncing the right of succession, is not a revolution to be trusted. A revolution that retains in office all the autocratic army commanders from Von Hindenburg down, is not a revolution to carry conviction. A revolution that allows its former emperor to cross to a neutral boundary whence he can conveniently return after peace has been signed is a revolution to be held under surveillance.

Hohenzollern's surrender should be demanded of Holland by Atterica and the allies under the law of extradition. After sentence of guilty of world murder has been imposed on him, he should be imprisoned for life. Execution would be too lenient. It would fix the conditions of the case if Great Britain would cede St. Helena to the league of

Salem Man Writes Words Of Dashing Patriotic Song

A new patriotic song is now being presented for public approval, entitled "We'll All Cheer the Flag." The song is of special interest to Salem people as the words are by Albert E. Gebhardt, examiner in the corporation department at the state house. The music is by the Portland musician and band leader, Dudley Huntington Metcosh. The song is published by Mr. Gebhardt.

Although hundreds of patriotic songs have been recently published, "We'll All Cheer the Flag" bids fair to meet with the patriotic spirit of those who enjoy rousing songs, as it is by far above the average that has been offered for public approval. The chorus has the proper dashing military swing and the words are really worth while. They tell a story of patriotism and this is a lot more than can be said of the average patriotic song offered to the public.

Applications for a prison for the former kaiser. Thereafter St. Helena would serve as a perpetual place of incarceration for high offenders against the world's peace.

Shoes and Not Shoes

We sell you shoes of Standard Makes, such as Keith Konquerer, Buckingham & Hecht and J. E. Tilt. The names which stand for Quality only during the last fifty years, and not shoes the kind you know are made for special sales. We do not want anyone to take a chance or even our word; as every shoe dealer claims his shoes are the best.—But ask one of our Customers. He will tell you what kind of shoes Paris Shoe Shop carry. Do you insist that your shoe man give you the same kind of shoe you bought the last time?—that's the way our customers buy their shoes.

REMEMBER! That when you deal with us you deal with a shoe maker and not a SHOE MAN. Anybody can be a shoe man, but it takes a life time to become a shoe maker, the kind we know.

BEWARE! Don't trust your feet to everybody. Your feet is your life—take no chances. For Style, Quality and Perfect fit go to Paris.

AMERICANS MARCH

district already has been evacuated.

As the evacuated towns and villages in Alsace-Lorraine are taken over, the German civil administrations are replaced by French officials. Re-occupation of the restored provinces will be carried out precisely the same as that of northern France, as it is considered that Alsace-Lorraine has been occupied by the enemy forty eight years instead of four years.

American troops are cooperating with the French in the work of re-occupation. The Germans have officially complained of the hostile attitude of the inhabitants of Alsace-Lorraine as they withdrew. Colmar is only ten miles from the allied lines, as they were at the close of hostilities. Metz is 12 miles, and Strassburg 20 miles from the lines.

Officer to Chiny
London, Nov. 14.—French military officials have asked the German Seventh army to send an officer to Chiny at 2 o'clock this afternoon to arrange handing over of that army's guns and material, it was announced in a wireless dispatch from Paris.

Chiny is in Belgium, 14 miles north-east of Hiron and only six miles from the allied lines as established on Nov. 11.

Kaiser Writes to Clown Prince

The following letter was written by a Belota girl in reply to the recent letter published in a Kansas paper, written by Crown Prince Willie to his papa, the Kaiser:
Somewhere in Germany, Here, There and Everywhere, Night and Day All the Time—Dear Son Willie: Received your very pleasing (f) letter dated "All the time."
Now, son, I am very sorry dat dem Americans are so ignorant and unmanly. We didn't built this great war machine of ours to conquer such ignorant people with. I thought der world vas better civilized or I would never haf started such a war. I never haf been in America but I supposed dat dey were vel enough educated to know dat I and Gott and Germany were going to rule the whole world. It may be dat if dey don't become better educated quick at once dat we will haf to give up this war for conquest and go to fighting for defense. Yes, Willie, I haf just about already decided this. There's no use trying to conquer a people that are too ignorant to know dat we can whip dem.

I haf already told my people, my son, dat we was fighting a war of self-defense but dey says dey can't understand why we is in France a fighting if we is fighting dat kind of a war.
