(United Press staff correspondent)
Washington, Nov. 16.—Demobilization orders already issued will care for the discharge of 200,000 men within the next two weeks in this country. As the machinery develops, the army can discharge 30,000 men a day. These facts developed from Chief of Staff March's press conference today. No more troops will be sent overseas, March announced. March has ordered General Pershing to return to the United States as soon as transports are available, casual convalescent, sick and wounded, before the steady flow of the larger bodies begins.

Demobilization Orders

Demobilization orders already out contemplate demobilizing in this country in this order: First, development battalions, in number containing 98,159 men; second, conscientious objectors not under sentence; third, spruce producers; fourth, central schools for officers; fifth, United States guard, 135,000 on paper; six, railroad troops; seventh, depot brigades; eighth, men in replacement camps; and ninth, men in combat divisions.

Needs of Future

Making the demobilizations, the war department is taking into account the

GREATEST AERIAL COMBAT ON RECORD

Successfully Attacked Fifteen Enemy Planes At One Time.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 16.—The story of the greatest individual aerial combat on record became public today when the Canadian military headquarters in London announced the details of a battle fought by Major W. T. Barker, with a big flock of enemy planes. Barker went over with a New Brunswick unit and is reported dangerously wounded.

Names Cabled

The department ordered Pershing to cable uncoded the names of all killed and wounded Americans up to November 11. General Pershing replied he would expedite this.

Army Excellent

General March said the performance of the American army had reached "the highest point of military excellence" when the war ended. The troops are close to the hearts of the American people, he said.

Make Tour of Country

Plans are being made to give the Rainbow division a special reception when it arrives in this country and it is probable that, because of the fact that troops from every state are in it, the division will make a virtual tour of the country, March said.

Manifestation To Be Held In Honor Of Alsace-Lorraine

Paris, Nov. 16.—Sunday a great manifestation will be held in honor of Alsace-Lorraine which promises to be the most important held in years.

Hubbard Creamery Buys

The past week the Hubbard Creamery company purchased the lot on Second street just south of Henry Schell's machine shop and had the frame dwelling on it torn down at once. The property had not been occupied for some time and was considered unsafe to adjacent property. The Creamery people have not indicated they intend to put a building on this lot now or later, but that the property is adjacent to their main building is sufficient reason to think some improvements will be made on it in the next few months to take care of their increasing volume of business. Here's hoping for the creamery is a constant source of revenue for a large scope of country and is a potent factor in developing the country.

GERMANY STILL KICKS OVER CARRYING OUT TERMS OF ARMISTICE

Now Self Wants To Send Delegation To United States To Plead For Food.

London, Nov. 16.—(1:10 p. m.)—Germany wants to send a delegation to the United States to plead for food, according to a wireless dispatch received from Berlin today. Foreign Secretary Self, in another wireless to Secretary Lansing, asks President Wilson's permission to send such a commission immediately to America to lay before the United States government the conditions of famine in Germany in the necessity of taking steps for the purchase of foodstuffs. Self also emphasized his anxiety for an immediate conference at The Hague.

Newspaper Complains

Copenhagen, Nov. 16.—Germany can not carry out the naval provisions of the armistice, the Deutsche Tages Zeitung declares. "It is impossible to deliver the naval material demanded in the armistice because the naval authorities no longer control the seamen," says the newspaper. "The submarine crews refuse to go to England, fearing violence."

FURTHER DETAILS OF TURKISH ARMISTICE

Surrender All Artillery, Ammunition And Government Supplies.

London, Nov. 16.—Further details of the Turkish armistice are contained in an official statement, as follows: "In order to secure compliance with the armistice terms, the Turkish government will carry out in Mesopotamia complete evacuation of the Mosul Vilayet, surrender of all artillery, ammunition and government supplies above normal needs for the units, the town of Mosul shall be cleared by November 15 and British political officers shall be appointed to control the administration of the gendarmerie."

MAJOR GENERAL BUCK SAYS AMERICAN BOYS TIMELY ARRIVAL WON

No Yankee Unit Ever Lost Foot Of Ground Gained In Encounter.

New York, Nov. 16.—"The arrival of American troops in force at the time they did was the war, I was right there at the front for seven months and I know it is a pretty big statement to make, but it is true."

SENIORITY RULE WILL HAVE FIGHT FOR LIFE IN NEXT CONGRESS

Fruits Of Republican Return To Power Seem To Be Going To Eastern States.

Washington, Nov. 16.—The time-honored congressional seniority rule is going to have to fight for its life. Senators and representatives of the middle west claim that while their states made a return to the republicans to power possible, the fruits of the victory are going to the east in the form of floor leadership in both houses, as well as important committee chairmanships, unless the seniority rule is changed.

Feeling in the senate has already taken form in a resolution by Senator Norris, Nebraska, to prohibit chairmen of important senate committees from serving on any other committee. This, Norris said, would prevent the business of the senate being controlled by a few men. It is the first gun of the progressive element in its revolt for recognition from the regular republicans. This rule is already in effect in the house, but many representatives, going a step farther, basing all choices for committee

"LITTLE ALLIES" NEED FOOD NOW HUN WONT STARVE

American People Will Not Have To Deprive Themselves to Feed Boche.

SHE NEEDS ONLY TO PAY FRENCH AND BELGIANS

Act Prohibiting Use Of Food Stuffs For Beer Still In Effect.

New York, Nov. 16.—The American people will not have to deprive themselves of a mouthful of food to feed Germany, Herbert Hoover, federal food administrator, declared here today before sailing for Europe to hold a series of conferences on world food supply with the allied and neutral food officials.

Lever Act Still In Force

"Our only interest in Germany is to get together on a stable basis so she can pay the money she owes to France and Belgium," said Hoover.

Is Food Surplus

"We will have a surplus of some 15,000,000 to 20,000,000 tons of food, if we are economical, so that the situation can be handled if this and other smaller surpluses in the world can be transported."

HOOPER ISSUED THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT EXPLAINING HIS MISSION ABROAD:

"I am going to Europe to discuss the further food measures that must be organized as a result of the cessation of hostilities. The food problem in Europe today is one of extreme complexity. Of their 420,000,000 people, practically only three areas—south Russia, Hungary and Denmark—comprising 40,000,000, have sufficient food supplies to last until next harvest without imports. Some must have immediate relief."

Mannish Fashions Will Be Hastily Abandoned When Boys Come Home.

SELECTION OF PEACE DELEGATES IS PROBLEM

While Allied Nations Ponder Peace Plans, And Germany Evacuates Territory, Versailles Palace, Favorite Place For Signing Treaties, Is Being Remodeled For Peace Conference.

PALACE BEING REMODELED

By William Philip Simms
(United Press staff correspondent)
Paris, Nov. 16.—The final trimmings of the war are being put on faster than anybody had hoped.

To Attend Conference

London, Nov. 16.—That President Wilson will attend the peace conference is a practical certainty, the Evening News declares. The newspaper attributed the information to Colonel House.

Germany Asks Quick Action

Washington, Nov. 16.—While Germany continues its efforts to force an early peace conference, this government is giving serious thought to selection of peace delegates and to consideration of the peace terms along with current problems of reconstruction.

Jubilees Planned

Public interest in the announcement by the newspapers that President Wilson is coming is shown by the almost daily rumors that he will arrive in a few days.

Not To Be Hurried Into Peace

This government is giving serious thought to the feeding of the central empire, but does not propose to be hurried into a peace session by the Teuton pleas. In fact, the German notes are beginning to be regarded as drags on the market, as evidenced by Secretary Lansing's notice to Germany that she must deal with all the allies, not alone with the United States.
