Christmas boxes may be mailed as late as Nov. 30 to soldiers across the ocean according to recent ruling of the war department. The ruling has placed the final day as Nov. 30. This extension of ten days was due to the fact that so many of the boys were in the great American drive of October and were so busy fighting they had no time or opportunity to mail the necessary labels.

Fatty Arbuckle and Charlie Chaplin at the Bligh tomorrow.

CARD OF THANKS
To all of our friends we wish to express our most sincere and heartfelt thanks for their assistance and their expressions of sympathy in the recent loss of our beloved wife and mother—A. F. Schmalke and children.

The Liberty school will open Monday morning. In fact, throughout the county, there will be a general opening of schools unless in certain districts influenza conditions make it inadvisable.

Sure—see you tonight at the Cotillion, dandy floor and wonderful music.

It seems there was some confusion in names in the report from Portland in regard to the death of Andy Anderson, age 27, due to influenza. According to information received today, it was Leonard Anderson who died and not Anderson.

As you like it—7:00 all evening or 5c dance, tonight at the Cotillion hall.

This is potato story No. 3. The first one was about a potato grown in Salem weighing three pounds. The next report was of one that raised the first entry two ounces. Today the third aspirant for bigness was grown by B. T. Enslay near Marion and its official weight is three pounds and 12 ounces. The potato is on display at the store of Davidson and Barber at Marion.

Mrs. Belle Hardenbrook who has been employed for the past two years in the millinery store of Mrs. Still, left for La Grande, Ore., a few days ago, where she has purchased a millinery store and will conduct the business for herself.

It seems that the boy thieves who entered the confectionery store of William Hargreaves on Asylum avenue and 17th street a few nights ago showed bad taste when they robbed the store of a cannon ball in addition to a lot of candy and cigarettes. They doubtless consumed the eatables and smokables but the cannon ball was too much for them. Anyhow, it was found last evening by G. W. Giles. But the candy and such have not been discovered.

Students of the high school are coming forward with the quota for the United War fund. Up to Friday noon, they had pledged $797.15 and within a day or so expect to have the full quota of $1095.00.

There is still a good demand for labor, according to the U. S. employment bureau with offices on State street. The makers as well as all kinds of mill workers are in demand and the old call for laborers from the ship yards has not been cancelled.

Gopher, gray digger and mole business was not very rushing this month at the office of the county clerk. That is, those who generally bring in seals to claim the reward of five cents per seal appear to have been engaged in other occupations during October, as only $89.00 was paid out of the special fund. Those who are inclined to make spending money in this way may feel encouraged as there remains about $1800 in this special fund for this year.

With a few days the Salem public library will be printed at the Salem special list of books treating on war conditions and the countries of Europe that have been in the late war. Two of the books have already been placed on the library shelves—"Home Fires in France" and " Tales from a Famished Land."

There is nothing to the story or the general impression that army recruits are fed mostly on baked beans. At least there is a different story for the boys of the Students Army Training corps of Willamette university. The fact is these youthful soldiers get baked beans only once a week and that on Saturday and when the cook does serve the beans, it requires 20 pounds to give the boys the correct weekly ration for tomorrow their bill of fare is as follows: Breakfast—mush and milk, hominy, French toast, cake, butter and bread and coffee. Dinner—veal roast with brown gravy, mashed potatoes, creamed turnips, coffee and jelly pudding. Supper—Sandwiches, cake, cold meats and cocoa.

Funeral services of the late Serg. Maj. Harry E. Mason will be held from the Terwilliger Home, 770 Chemeketa St. Monday at 2 p. m. Rev. Mr. Lee of the friends church will officiate. All friends and members of the W. A. C. are respectively invited to attend. Burial will be in I.O.F. cemetery.
This evening at Eaton Hall will be held the annual Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. reception, which was to have been held on the evening of October 12, but the influenza prevented. The reception is for the students, faculty and trustees of the university.
Dr. Carl Gregg Doney will leave this evening for Klamath Falls to join Dr. M. C. Findley in a few days of recreation in the way of fishing and hunting.
Walnut growing is sure to become one of the great industries of the Willamette valley. This is the opinion of H. Van Trump, county fruit inspector. In making a fruit census of the county, Mr. Van Trump found about 1200 acres planted in English walnuts, ten per cent of which is yielding and paying the owners big returns. Trees which Sacred Heart Academy has exceeded on old stock Mr. Van Trump found were grafted about three years ago walnuts to the value each of $25.00. This year many trees yield 150 pounds each which sold on the market at 30 cents a pound. The walnut tract known as the Diem orchard, located just southwest of Quincy is one of the standard bearing tracts in the county. It is one of the oldest, Mr. Van Trump says, but is ample evidence of what walnuts will do in the valley.
In the United War Work campaign, Sacred Heart Academy has exceeded its quota by $7.20. The entire subscription amounted to $202.20. Every boy and girl in the school signed a pledge and all now wear the Victory button as evidence of patriotism. A parade was formed by the student body today, marching around the school block carrying banners to celebrate the success of the drive in the school.

CANCER CURED IN 11 DAYS
Miss Margaret Russell, 1135 N. Fifteenth St., Salem, Or., explains wonderful cure.
To Those Afflicted with Cancer: I deem it a great privilege to be able to testify to the absolute cure of cancer on the side of my nose from which I suffered for three years.
Only July 14, 1916, I applied to Dr. S. C. Stone for treatment. He applied a paste for four days and then a simple ointment. In just eleven days after the first treatment the cancer fell out. The place soon healed and is now sound and well.
